Global Senior Enterprises Inc, and Baying Ecological Holding Group has successfully exchanged equity assets.

On Dec. 28, 2013, Global Senior Enterprises, Inc. (OTC: GSET, hereinafter as GSET) entered into a Counseling Listed Cooperation Agreement with Shaanxi Surplus Eco. Industrial Development to assist Shaanxi Surplus acquire Toro Ventures Inc. Shaanxi Surplus has successfully changed the shell company's name to Baying Ecological Holding Group (hereinafter as Baying) on Feb. 7, 2014 and the OTC ticker to BYIN.

According to the Agreement between GSET and Baying, after the name change, Baying has transferred 30% stake of its equity, which is 60,000 shares and a total value of $81,000 given Baying's stock price of $1.35 at that time, to GSET to exchange 13,500 shares of GSET common stock at a negotiated price of $6. The 13,500 shares are further transferred to two largest individual shareholders of Baying. After GSET's 24 million share expansion, they will appear as shareholders of GSET. With Baying's continuing effort to integrate the remaining assets and management into the shell company, Baying will hold more stakes of GSET's equity.

Based in Xi'an, Shaanxi Province, Baying reports 10 million RMB registered assets. Baying is at the core of walnut industry participating in eco-efficient projects, producing high-end organic agricultural, biological and health care products. The equity asset exchange between Baying and GSET, will continuously bring two parties a higher scale of efficiency and benefits.
