My Social income, Inc.
Footnotes to Unaudited Financial Statements

Note 1. BUSINESS

My Social Income, Inc ("MSI") and its subsidiary Global Communications Network, Inc. provide Voice over Internet telephone services ("VOiP" services) to residential and commercial customers throughout the United States and in many foreign countries. Global Communications Network, Inc. operates a Social Network platform. Principal products and services provided include local, national and international long-distance telephone services, telephone and switching products and communication and marketing products and services. The Company is organized within one operating division. The Company initiated operations in 1997 as a broker of long-distance telephone services. In 2004 the Company began operations in the VoIP field, and currently is a complete vertically-integrated VOiP enterprise. In 2008, it introduced it's social networking platform.

Note 2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of My Social Income, Inc. and of it's wholly-owned subsidiary, Global Communications Network, Inc. The Company owns no beneficial interest in any other commercial enterprises at the present time. The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP"). Intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ form those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand and amounts due from bank and credit card clearing companies.

Inventories

Inventories consist of finished, ready to sell products only, are recorded at cost under a FIFO assumption, and are valued at the lower of cost or market.

Property, Plant and Equipment

Fixed assets are recorded at cost. Depreciation and amortization are accounted for on the straight-line method based on the estimated useful lives of the assets.

Other Assets and Liabilities

Other assets consist primarily of amounts prepaid for future services.

Sales

Revenue is recognized when product is shipped, or when an IP number is activated if no product is shipped.

Note 4. INTANGIBLE ASSETS

The Company capitalized its VOiP start-up costs of $1,913, and is amortizing this cost over 5 years. The Company reviews this account annually at December 31 for impairment. No impairment of this asset has been found.

Note 5. INDEBTEDNESS

The Company has financed its development and operations largely through issuing convertible notes to investors, both short-term and long term. And by receiving loans from shareholders.

Short Term Debt

The Company incurred no Short-Term Debt for 2012, 2011, 2010, 2009, 2008, 2007, and 2006.

Long-Term Debt

Prior to 2005 the Company issued $418,685.37 in long-term notes payable to three related entities. These notes bear 7.00% interest compounded annually and have no fixed maturity date. During 2007, 2006 and 2005 respectively, the Company borrowed $45,000.00, $2,012.07 and $-0- from these entities, and repaid $-0-, $35,487.07 and $8,000.00 to these parties. LCR loans.

Convertible Debt

Prior to 2004 the Company issued $726,500.00 in long-term notes to investors, and issued an additional $426,500.00 of such notes in 2004. Each dollar of these notes, including accrued interest, was convertible into 1.60 shares of common stock if originally issued prior to 11/1/03, and was convertible into 1.40 shares of Intelecom common stock if originally issued between 11/1/03 and 10/31/04. As of 11/1/04, all of these notes were converted into common stock per their agreements except for two notes valued at $21,350.00 excluding accrued interest that were converted in 2005.

During 2008, 2007 and 2006, the Company incurred $50,000, $867,000 and $178,000, respectively in new convertible debt in the form of notes payable to various individuals. These notes bear interest at an annual rate of 8.00%, and bear a term of one (1) year. Interest is not payable until conversion unless the trading price of the Company's common stock falls below $0.75 per share. These notes began maturing in November 2007. These notes carry an attached stock purchase warrant that allows the holder to convert their note into common stock at a rate $0.75 per dollar of note value. If conversion occurs further trading is not restricted in the common stock for the converted shares.

Note 6. INCOME TAXES

The Company and its eligible subsidiary file a consolidated federal income tax return. No provision has been made in these financial statements for past, current or future federal income taxes. The Company has a significant federal loss carryforward.

Note 9. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

The Company has no significant commitments to provide goods and/or services to any third party as of the Balance Sheet date. The Company is subject to legal proceedings and claims which arise in the ordinary course of business. In management's opinion there are no material claims as of the balance sheet date.

Note 10. RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The Company's future operating results may be affected by a number of factors.

Because My Social Income, Inc. does business all over the world, political changes could have effect on future operations. The Company also could be affected by a change in the ability of it's major supplier to provide products in a timely fashion.

Note 11. UNEARNED REVENUE

The Company’s revenue recognition policies are in compliance with SEC Staff Accounting Bulletin (“SAB”) 104. Sales revenue is recognized at the date of shipment to customers when a formal arrangement exists, the price is fixed or determinable, the delivery is completed, no other significant obligations of the Company exist and collectability is reasonably assured. Payments received before all of the relevant criteria for revenue recognition are satisfied are recorded as unearned revenue. Unearned revenue due to undelivered elements is recognized ratably on a straight-line basis over the related product’s life cycle.
