Re: The Children's Internet, Inc. Adequate Current Information

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I have been retained as legal counsel to The Children's Internet, Inc., a Nevada corporation (the "Issuer"), to provide an examination of corporate records regarding the Annual Report and Initial Information Disclosure Statement as they relate to the information publicly disclosed by the Issuer published through the OTC Disclosure and News Services. The Company's previous filings are available for public inspection at www.otcmarkets.com.

The Annual Report and Initial Information Disclosure Statement Report of the Issuer is being published with the OTC Disclosure and News Service on February 12, 2015. The opinion is solely for the information of the addressee hereof and OTC Market Group is entitled to rely on such letter in determining whether the Issuer has made adequate current information publicly available within the meaning of Rule 144(c)(2) under the Securities Act of 1933.
The undersigned grants OTC Markets Group full and complete permission and rights to publish the letter in the OTC Disclosure and News Service for viewing by the public and regulators.

The undersigned counsel is a U.S. resident and was retained by the Issuer solely for the purpose of rendering this opinion and reviewing the current information supplied by Issuer.

This opinion is based on my knowledge of the law and facts as of the date hereof and as a result of reviewing such corporate records supplied by the Company including the Initial Information Disclosure Statement and Annual Report published on February 12, 2015, which included the Balance Sheet and other financial statements of the Issuer as of December 31, 2013 and 2014.. The undersigned has examined these and other such corporate records and other documents and such questions of law as counsel has considered necessary or appropriate for the purposes of rendering this opinion.

The undersigned was admitted to the Bar of the State of California in 1983, (Bar#107800). The undersigned is permitted to practice before the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and has never been barred from practice in any of the foregoing jurisdictions.

In formulation of the opinion set forth below, I have examined such corporate records and documents including, but not limited to, the Issuer's financial statements posted on February 12, 2015, (the "Information"), , the Issuer's Articles of Incorporation, as amended, By-Laws and, minutes of meetings and actions of its Board of Directors and such other documents as were deemed relevant and necessary as a basis for the opinion hereinafter set forth as well as meeting personally with the management and available Directors of the Company.

Counsel has personally conferred with Directors and Management of the Company concerning the information provided and has received representations from the Company, its management and directors as to the accuracy of the information provided for this determination. In such examination and in discussions, the genuineness of all signatures set forth on each document has been assumed, as well as the authenticity of all original documents and the conformity to original documents of all copies of such documents as may have been supplied during the course of examination. This opinion is further based upon those representations which counsel believes to be reliable.

Also, in preparing this report, the undersigned counsel has examined and reviewed that information posted on www.otcmarkets.com and reviewed and updated documents posted by this Issuer referenced above, to wit: the Disclosure Statement posted as of February 12, 2015 , and the Balance Sheets and financial statements.

For the purposes of rendering this opinion, I have assumed that no person or entity has engaged in fraud or misrepresentation regarding the inducement relating to, or the execution or delivery of, the documents reviewed. Furthermore, I express no opinion as to the validity of any of the assumptions, form or content of any financial or statistical data contained therein. The terms used in this opinion shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the documents relied upon in formulating this opinion.

To the best knowledge of the undersigned counsel, after inquiry of the management and directors of the Issuer, neither the Issuer nor any holder of more than 5% of the outstanding shares of the Issuer, is currently under investigation by any federal or state regulatory authority for any violation of federal or state laws.

The Company's transfer agent is Transfer Online, Inc., with a business address of 512 SE Salmon Street, Portland, OR,. The agency is registered with the SEC under the Exchange Act.

The Company's fiscal year ends December 31. The current financial statements of the Company filed with the OTC are unaudited. I have been advised that the Issuer's President, Chief Executive officer and Chief Financial Officer, Gary Ff. Kimmons is responsible for the preparation of the Issuer's financial statements contained in the Information.

The undersigned has (i) personally met with the Issuer's management and a majority of its directors, (ii) reviewed the Disclosure Report published by the Issuer on the OTC Disclosure and News Service, and (iii) discussed the Annual Report with management and a majority of the directors of the Issuer.

To the best of my knowledge and after reasonable inquiry if the Issuer's management and directors, there is no officer, director, 5% holder, or counsel currently under investigation by any federal or state regulatory agency for any violation of federal or state securities law.

It is my opinion that the Information (i) constitutes "adequate current public information" concerning the Issuer and is "available" within the meaning of Rule 144(c)(2) under the Securites Act and (ii) includes all of the information that a broker-dealer would be required to obtain from the issuer to publish a quotation for the Securities under Rule 15(c)(2)(11) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"). The Information, on its face, appears to comply in all material aspects of the OTC Pink Basic Disclosure Guidelines.

This opinion is solely for the information of the addresses hereof and the other parties specifically identified in the first paragraph hereof, and is not to be quoted in whole or in part or otherwise referred to, nor is to be filed with any governmental agency or other person without any prior written consent.

Other than the addressee hereof and such other parties, no one is entitled to rely on this opinion. This opinion is based on my knowledge of the law and facts as of the date hereof. I assume no duty to communicate with you with respect to any other matter which comes to my attention hereafter.

Thank you for your consideration and attention.

Respectfully submitted,

Thomas Russell, Esq.
