RE: Attorney Opinion Letter With Respect to Adequate Current Information:
WiFi Wireless Inc. (WFWL)

Dear Administrator:

I am a resident of the United States and I am a licensed attorney in the State of California (SBN: 228010). I am authorized to practice in front of all California state courts, federal district courts, and federal and state administrative agencies and commissions including, but not limited to, the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). I have not been prohibited from practice before the SEC. I express no opinion as to the laws of any other jurisdiction except for those of the State of California, and the United States of America as referred to herein. Furthermore, for the purposes of rendering this opinion, I have assumed that if a Court applies the laws of a jurisdiction other than the laws of California, the laws of such other jurisdiction are identical in all material respects to the comparable laws of the State of California.

I have been retained by WiFi Wireless Inc. (the "Company") for the sole purpose of reviewing the current information supplied by the Company and rendering this opinion letter based upon that review. The purpose of this opinion letter is to address any concerns your organization might have regarding any determination as to whether the Company has made adequate current information publicly available, particularly in light of the meaning of Rule 144 (c)(2) under the Securities Act of 1933.

WiFi Wireless Inc. is an Oregon Corporation. Its trading symbol is WFWL. It was incorporated on August 28, 1989 in the state of Oregon as Sunburst Resources Inc. and shelved as an entity to be actively involved in business at a later date.

On June 03, 2004 it changed its name to WiFi Wireless, Inc. and commenced to be actively involved in business.

This letter is intended for only OTC Markets Group sole use and reliance. No other person is entitled to rely upon it. However, full and complete permission and rights is hereby given to OTC Markets Group to publish this letter through the OTC Disclosure and News Service for viewing by the public and regulators.

FACTS AND ASSUMPTIONS

The following is the basis for supporting my legal opinion letter regarding any disclosed information of the Company. The opinions expressed below are subject to the qualifications and assumptions set forth herein, and to any matters not disclosed to me.

In connection with rendering this opinion letter, I have examined certain corporate records and other documents prepared by the Company as I have considered necessary or appropriate for the purposes of rendering this opinion. These records and documents included, but were not limited to, Articles of Incorporation, Corporate By-laws and Corporate Financial Statements.

In addition, I have made such investigations and have examined such questions of law as I considered necessary and appropriate for the purpose of rendering this opinion letter. In all such examinations, I have assumed the genuineness of all signatures (both manual and conformed), the authenticity of all documents submitted to me as originals, the conformity to original documents of all documents submitted to me as copies and the authenticity of all originals of such documents submitted as copies. As to all questions of fact relevant to this opinion, I have relied upon information and representations from public officials, officers of the Company and other sources, and I represent that such sources were believed to be reliable. Nothing came to my attention during the course of my investigation that led me to conclude that any such documents were not genuine or authentic or that the facts set forth therein were not true.

In preparation of this Opinion letter, I have reviewed the following documents, all available to the public either through the Company's Initial Information and Disclosure Statement posted October 31, 2011, or by other Company documents that have been publicly available on the OTC Markets Groups' Disclosure and News Service as of the dates noted:

OPIONION

It is my opinion these documents and information (i) constitute “adequate current public information” concerning the Securities and the Issuer and “is available” within the meaning of Rule 144(c)(2) under the Securities Act; (ii) includes all of the information that a broker-dealer would be required to obtain from the Issuer to publish a quotation for the Securities under Rule 15c2-11 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”); (iii) complies as to form with the Pink OTC Markets Group Guidelines for Providing Adequate Current Information which are located on the Internet at www.otcmarkets.com; and (iv) has been posted through the OTC Disclosure and News Service. However my opinion does not alleviate the professional responsibilities of brokers, dealers, and investors to conduct their own professional diligence.

Investigation and discussion revealed that financial statements for the second, third and fourth quarters of 2014 were not audited but were prepared by Rachel Lanham, interim CFO for the Issuer. She has years of experience in the industry and with other companies working on matters of finance, cost analysis, business services and tax preparation.

Additional investigation and discussion revealed that financial statements for 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013 and the first quarter of 2014 were not audited but were prepared by Charles R. Close, a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), owner of the firm C. R. Close & Associates, P.C. Mr. Close has over 15 years experience in the industry and other public companies working on matters of auditing, financial consulting, cost analysis, business services and tax preparation.

Further investigation and discussion revealed that financial statements for 2008 and 2009 were not audited but were prepared by John C. Coon a Federally Licensed Certified Internal Auditor, employed by the U.S. Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). Mr. Coon has over 20 years experience in the industry and other public companies working on matters of Internal Audit, Sarbanes-Oxley, Due Diligence, Public Accounting, Enterprise Risk Management, Corporate Governance and Compliance, Fraud Investigation and Mitigation, and Strategic Management.

Further investigation and discussion revealed that financial statements for 2007 were not audited but were prepared by Chris W. Johnston, CPA a Certified Public Accountant licensed with the State of California. Mr. Johnston has over 14 years experience in the industry with extensive experience in tax services, auditing, financial consulting, cost analysis, business services, trust and estate planning and tax preparation, and business evaluations.

The transfer agent is currently Transfer Online, Inc. located at 512 SE Salmon Street, Portland, OR 97214. The transfer agent is registered with the SEC under the Exchange Act with registered agent number 084-05808. The number of outstanding shares set forth in the Company's information was confirmed by Counsel via direct correspondence from Transfer Online, Inc.

Furthermore, I have (i) personally met with management and a majority of the directors of the Company to (ii) review the information, as amended, published by the Company on the OTC Disclosure News Service, and (iii) discussed the information with management and a majority of the directors of the Company.

Lastly, after personal consultations, inquiry and meetings with the management, Director and President of the Company I am satisfied that to the best of my knowledge that neither Counsel nor any individual officer or 5% shareholder of the Company or the Company itself is currently under any investigation by any federal or sate regulatory authority for any violation of federal or states' securities laws. Counsel is in good standing in all jurisdictions, to include California where she is admitted to the bar. Counsel can practice before any California state or federal court or agency, to include the Securities and Exchange Commission.

THE FOREGOING OPINIONS ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING ASSUMPTIONS, EXCEPTIONS, LIMITATIONS, AND QUALIFICATIONS:

The opinions expressed in this letter are rendered as of the date hereof and are based on my understandings and assumptions as to present facts, and on the application of applicable law as the same exists on the date hereof. The opinions remain valid so long as the documents, instruments, records and certificates I have examined and relied upon as noted above, are unchanged and the assumptions I have made, as noted above, are valid. I assume no obligation to update or supplement this opinion letter after the date hereof with respect to any facts or circumstances that may hereafter come to my attention, or to reflect any changes in the facts or law that may hereafter occur or take effect. This opinion is given only with respect to the specific transaction in the shares to which this opinion relates as set forth above and may not be relied on by any other person holding securities, whether in the company or in any other corporation.

THIS OPINION LETTER is being furnished by me as special counsel to WiFi Wireless Inc. OTC Markets Group and no person or entity other than OTC Markets Group, is entitled to rely in any manner on this Opinion Letter and OTC Markets Group shall have full and complete permission and rights to publish this letter in the OTC Disclosure and News Service for viewing by the public and regulators.

Sincerely,

Richard Medina, Jr. Esq.
