Current Report

Due to a default judgment secured by Harold & Bette Wallace in Delaware, they purchased most, but not all, of Spencer's common and preferred shares at a sheriff's sale for $1,000. Spencer's Delaware attorney appealed this sale on March 18, 2014 stating that the sale was: (1) woefully inadequate and failed to meet the 50% rule and (2) failed to comply with SEC Rule 144. The appeal was denied by the Delaware court on May 21, 2015. If Bette Wallace is successful in retaining the stock after all litigation has been completed, her ownership will not give her voting control of the company.
