The Company currently only has 250,000,000 shares of common stock authorized. The Company could far exceed its authorized shares of common stock if all the financial instruments as more fully set forth in the Company's financials referenced herein were exercised or converted into shares of common stock. The company however intends to address this issue in the future by continuing to review and have further discussions with major holders of the listed debt transferred from discontinued operations, so as to attempt to reach an agreement that would substantially reduce such liability and its dilutive effect. There can however be no assurance that such an agreement will be voluntarily reached, which may the cause the Company to explore further other actions it may deem necessary.

Item 6. Description of the Issuer's Business, Products and Services.

- A. Priority Aviation provides its clients with what it believes to be is premier class private jet charter service worldwide. The Company, acting as brokers, accomplishes this through a screening processes that only selects the safest and most reliable private jets available in the industry. By making use of technological innovations our charter department operates 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. With access to thousands of pre-screened aircraft and highly-trained flight crews, flight access can be arranged with as little as 4 hours' notice.

On July 1, 2015, the Company entered into an Amendment to the Executive Employment Agreement with Peter Minikes (the “Amendment”). Pursuant to the terms of the Amendment, the Company will not renew Mr. Minikes’ Employment Agreement upon its expiration on December 5, 2016. If the Company desires to enter into another business or if Mr. Minikes is no longer employed by the Company, but in any case after July 1, 2016, Mr. Minikes shall have the right to acquire the operating business segment Priority One Jets. The purchase price for the business segment to be paid by Mr. Minikes to the Company shall be the cancellation of all amounts owed to Mr. Minikes, the return of all stock and options in the Company and the assumption of all liabilities and obligations of the business segment. Priority One Jets shall be entitled to keep the assets in the business segment in excess of the public expenses of the Company from July 1, 2015 through September 30, 2016, including the cost of preparing the Company tax returns.

The Company is searching for a new business focused in the technology sector. Due to the background of its new board member its focus currently is on technology created in Israel. The Company has identified several opportunities and is in discussion with one of such companies to reach an agreement. There can, however, be no assurances that the Company will be successful in reaching such agreement, or in a further search should such agreement not be consummated, or that the Company may find what it believes to be a different opportunity.

The Company is the subject of a lawsuit in connection with the lease termination of its prior premises by entities controlled by Daniel Wainstein and Marissa Welner. Ms. Welner was a former CEO and member of the Board of Directors of the Company before her removal for cause in September 2014. The Company believes the lawsuit to be totally without merit and has filed counterclaims against the relevant parties. The Company is continuing to investigate certain actions taken by Mr. Wainstein, Ms. Welner and their attorneys and affiliated persons and may if necessary bring additional actions against those parties. The litigation is in the preliminary discovery stages, with document productions due this past September. However, due to opposing parties failure to comply with court calendar deadlines, the litigation is currently stalled. There is a conference scheduled in January to review the best way to proceed with the litigation.

B. Company was incorporated on March 25, 1999 in the state of Nevada.

C. The primary SIC Code for the Company is 4724.
