Re: Letter with respect to adequate current information

Gentlemen:

I am an attorney licensed to practice law in the state of Nevada and am a U.S. resident. I have reviewed the corporations Information and Disclosure Statement, articles, bylaws and other necessary documents. My opinion herein is based solely upon these documents and representations and cannot be relied upon in the event that such documentation is inaccurate or contains misrepresentations.

OTC Markets is entitled to rely on this opinion in determining whether San West, Inc. has made adequate current information publicly available within the meaning of Rule 144(c)(2) under the Securities Act of 1933.

I have been retained by the Company for the purpose of rendering this opinion and related matters. I have been retained solely for the purpose of reviewing the current information supplied by San West, Inc. I have examined such corporate records and other documents and such questions of law as counsel considered necessary or appropriate for purposes of rendering the opinion. This letter covers Nevada and United States laws. This letter does not rely upon the work of other counsel.

I am allowed to practice before the Securities and Exchange Commission and have not been prohibited from practice thereunder. I have relied on information obtained from public officials, officers of the issuer and other sources and believe that all such sources are reliable as to matters of fact.

I have reviewed San West, Inc.'s Information and Disclosure Statement which is being submitted concurrently with this letter, the Dec. 31, 2014 Annual Report submitted July 10, 2015, the Quarterly report for the period ended March 31, 2015 submitted on July 16, 2015, the December 31, 2012 Annual Report submitted July 26, 2013, and Articles and Bylaws posted July 10, 2013.

San West, Inc.'s financials as filed on OTC Markets were prepared by Justin Frere CPA, MBA who has years of experience in the preparation of GAAP financials. The presented financials have not been audited.

Adequate current public information is available concerning the Securities and San West, Inc. within the meaning of Rule 144(c)(2) under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act"). Such information has been posted on the OTC Markets News Service and such information includes all of the information that a broker dealer would be required to obtain from San West, Inc. to publish a quotation for the Securities under Rule 15c2-11 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and complies as to form with the OTC Markets Guidelines for Providing Adequate Current Information and has been posted in the OTC Markets News Service.

San West, Inc.'s transfer agent is First American Stock Transfer, 4747 N. 7th St. Suite 170, Phoenix, AZ, 85014, 602-485-1346, www.FirstAmericanStock.com.

First American Stock Transfer is currently registered under the Exchange Act and is an SEC approved transfer agent. I reviewed a certified shareholder list provided by First American Stock Tranfer to confirm the number of outstanding shares as set forth in the information.

I have personally spoken with management of San West, Inc. and its directors. Frank Drechsler and Vladimir Cood are all of the officers and directors of the corporation and thus are promoters. Frank Drechsler's address is 17620 Oak Street, Fountain Valley, CA 92708, he holds, 246,011,780 common shares all of which bear a restrictive legend, and he has owned the shares from the inception of the formation of the corporation which he received for services in the formation of the corporation and additional shares have been issued for ongoing services. Vladimir Cood's address is 1819 Hillman Ave., Belmont, CA 94002, he holds, 18,740,623 common shares all of which bear a restrictive legend, and he purchased his stock for $280,000. I have reviewed the information as amended as published by San West, Inc and have discussed such information with management and the director. I also inquired of such management and director if he or any five percent (5%) shareholder was under any investigation by any federal or state regulatory authority for any violation of federal or states securities laws and to be best of my knowledge none are.

There have been no sales of the Securities by Insiders within the twelve-month period prior to the opinion. Nothing has come to the attention of myself indicating that any of the Insiders is in possession of any material non-public information regarding the Issuer or the Securities that would prohibit any of them from buying or selling the Securities under Rules 10b-5 or 10b5-1 under the Exchange Act.

No person other than OTC Markets is entitled to rely on this opinion but OTC Markets may post this opinion on the OTC Markets News Service for viewing by the public and regulators.

Sincerely,
HAROLD P. GEWERTER, ESQ., LTD.
