Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Appointment of Principal Officers

Argyle Security, Inc. (the "Company") announced that, effective July 31, 2015, it has come to a mutual agreement with Mr. Richard Watts, Chief Financial Officer and Principal Financial Officer of the Company for him to depart after more than five years of service. As a result, Mr. Watts resigned his positions as an officer of the Company and as an officer and director of each of the Company's subsidiaries. Mr. Watts will continue to be available to serve the Company in a consultancy role.

Further, Mr. Andrew Rogler was elected by the Board of Directors of the Company to serve as Executive Vice President of Finance, Chief Accounting Officer and Treasurer of the Company and each of its subsidiaries, filling the vacancies left by Mr. Watts. Mr. Rogler has served as Corporate Controller of the Company since 2010 and as Controller of its subsidiaries since 2007.

In addition, Mr. Matthew A. Kepke was elected to serve as a director of each of the Company's subsidiaries, filling the vacancies left by Mr. Watts. Mr. Kepke, has served as the Company's Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary since 2008.