QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THIS PROXY MATERIAL AND VOTING

Who can vote at the Special Meeting?

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on June 30th 2026, the record date for the Special Meeting, will be entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. Since there is only one (1) named round lot stockholder other than Cede & Co as of the record date, all Non-Objecting Beneficial Owners (NOBOs) are encouraged to vote via this attached proxy. As of the record date, there were 2,105 round lot NOBOs.

We are NOT directly mailing this proxy statement and the accompanying materials to NOBOs or their brokers, instead we are disseminating this release via OTC Markets from the News and Filings & Disclosure pages, and on our corporate X (Twitter) account at https://x.com/TailoredTickers.

As a NOBO of record, you may vote by proxy ballot for the Special Meeting. We urge you to fill out and return the enclosed proxy ballot to ensure your vote is counted.

What am I voting on?

There are two (2) matters scheduled for a vote at the Special Meeting:

(1) Confirmation of David Duarte as Sole Director and Removal of All Previous Directors
(2) Adoption of Amended & Restated Bylaws (see Annex A for the proposed Bylaws)

The Court Appointed Custodian does not intend to bring any other matters before the meeting and is not aware of anyone else who will submit any other matters to be voted on. However, if any other matters properly come before the meeting, the people named on the proxy card, or their substitutes, will be authorized to vote on those matters in their own judgment.

How many votes do I have?

On each matter to be voted upon, you have one vote for each share of common stock you owned as of June 30th 2026.

What is the quorum requirement?

A quorum of stockholders is necessary to hold a valid meeting. A quorum will be present if a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote are present or represented by proxy at the meeting. Your shares will be counted towards the quorum only if you submit a valid proxy or vote in person at the Special Meeting. Abstentions will be counted towards the quorum requirement. If there is no quorum, a majority of the votes present at the Special Meeting may adjourn the meeting to another date.

How do I vote?

If you are a stockholder of record, you may vote in person at the Special Meeting or vote by proxy using the enclosed proxy card. If you are a NOBO holder, you may vote by proxy using the enclosed proxy ballot.

To vote using the proxy ballot, simply complete, date, and sign the enclosed proxy ballot and return it promptly by mail to 624 Tyvola Rd, Suite 103 #186, Charlotte NC 28217, or by email at ceo@juddholdingcorp.com. If you return your signed proxy card to us before 4:00pm EDT on July 21st 2026 (the day before the Special Meeting), we will vote your shares as you direct.

How are votes counted?

You may either vote "FOR" or "WITHHOLD" authority to vote for each nominee for the Board of Directors. You may vote "FOR", "AGAINST" or "ABSTAIN" on any other proposals.

If you submit your proxy but abstain from voting or withhold authority to vote on one or more matters, your shares will be counted as present at the meeting for the purpose of determining a quorum. Your shares also will be counted as present at the meeting for the purpose of calculating the vote on the particular matter with respect to which you abstained from voting or withheld authority to vote. If you abstain from voting on a proposal, your abstention has the same effect as a vote against that proposal, except, however, an abstention has no effect on the election of directors. See "How many votes are needed to approve each Proposal?"

How many votes are needed to approve each Proposal?

Pursuant to the current Bylaws in effect, "When a quorum is present or represented at any meeting, the vote of the holders of 10% of the stock having voting power present in person or represented by proxy shall be sufficient to elect Directors or to decide any question brought before such meeting."

Can I change my vote after submitting my proxy?

Yes. You can revoke your proxy at any time before the final vote at the Special Meeting. If you are a stockholder of record, you may revoke your proxy by:

- Submitting another properly completed proxy card with a later date.
