

Priority Aviation Inc. Announces New Headquarters and Web Site

March 11, 2014, New York, NY ... Priority Aviation Inc. , (PJET.OTC Pink Markets) announced today the moving of its headquarters to 15 Maiden Lane, Suite 408, New York, NY 10038.

The Company is also reporting that it has been the subject of a lawsuit in connection with the lease termination of its prior premises by entities controlled by Daniel Wainstein and Marissa Welner. Ms. Welner was a former CEO and member of the Board of Directors of the Company before her removal for cause in September 2014. The Company believes the lawsuit to be totally without merit and has filed counterclaims against the relevant parties. The Company is continuing to investigate certain actions taken by Mr. Wainstein, Ms. Welner and their attorneys and affiliated persons and may if necessary bring additional actions against those parties.

The Company during 2014 replaced its legal counsel and accountants to assist them and has recently filed restated December 2013 financial statements to properly reflect proper recording of the company's business combination in December 2013, as well as other reported items. The Company is completing the preparation of its 2014's financial statements and hopes to be current and up to date in its filings in the near future.

The Company is also announcing the unveiling of its updated website which allows for a more user friendly customer experience. Priority Aviation CEO, Peter Minikes said of the website, " I am happy to report that since the launch of our new website a few weeks ago, we have seen a tremendous increase in traffic which has led to a greater amount of flight opportunities. We are confident this trend will continue as our customers become more familiar with the site. " The web address is www.priorityonejets.com.
