

*Colorado Company Announces International Expansion into Uruguay and California by International Consolidated Companies (OTC: INCC)
Shareholder Update*

DENVER, CO / OTC Markets / December 31, 2016 / INCC, has announced international and domestic expansion plans.

2016: INCC is now current with OTC markets. California passed fully legal sales of recreational marijuana.

2017: INCC is filing to change its name/symbol to: Element 79, Inc.

“e79” is Gold on the periodic table. We feel that Cannabis is the new Gold. We will file for a name change with the Secretary of State after FINRA filing is accepted.

INCC seeks to acquire companies in the legal medical and recreational marijuana markets both domestically and internationally. INCC is in acquisition and joint venture talks with candidates in both the Uruguay and California markets. (In 2012, the Uruguayan government, under President Mujica, legalized sales of cannabis.)

Anticipating 2017 to be a year of acquisitions, INCC has filed to increase its' authorized shares to 5 billion.

INCC is analyzing additional, innovative acquisitions in the growing cannabis space. The end of Cannabis prohibition has been sweeping the country with 28 states that now allow some form of consumption, and a multitude of others that may decided to end prohibition in the moving forward.
