

StereoVision Appoints Stephen Curran Vice-Chairman of Their Board

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA (OTCMarkets-12/28/2017) StereoVision Entertainment, Inc. (OTC:SVSN), a publicly traded Nevada corporation announced today that Stephen Curran has been appointed Vice-Chairman of their Board of Directors.

“Stephen Curran, a Dallas, Texas native, began developing real estate in 1977,” said StereoVision CEO Jack Honour. “Since then he’s built over four million square feet of industrial, office, and retail space. He’s been a StereoVision shareholder for 13 years and over the years has worked with the Company in a number of capacities. He’s well-traveled and very familiar with conducting business in Puerto Rico. He’s an active environmentalist and conservationist and is a key player in CannaVision’s entry into the industrial hemp industry. Currently he’s working on the restoration of the Texas Gulf coast after the catastrophic damage done by Hurricane Harvey. He’s been a multi-year presenter at the annual EARTHx Eco-conference in Dallas, Texas and he’ll be working with us on CannaVision’s Hemp Pavilion exhibition for this year’s EARTHx event in Dallas.”
