News Release

Medical Innovation Holdings, Inc. (MIHI) Announces Manufacturing Supply Agreement for NextGen Telemedicine Equipment and Peripherals

DULUTH, GEORGIA (October 19, 2017) Medical Innovation Holdings Inc. (OTC Pink: MIHI) today announces its manufacturing agreement with MDI Source, a Georgia-based company serving the technology industry for over 30 years. Per the agreement, MDI will manufacture customized telemedicine equipment to fit the footprint of any doctor's office that signs up to utilize MIHI's telemedicine practice. This arrangement will allow MIHI to offer these offices a variety of telemedicine equipment that supports the shift toward a blend of in-office and virtual visits.

Coupling MDI's hardware with MIHI's EMR/PMS software solution provides rural clinics a comprehensive solution unmatched in the marketplace. Additionally, MDI will provide various levels of technical support and services to MIHI clients, ensuring world-class service with world-class products.

"When we entered this marketplace, the cost for telemedicine workstations was significantly high," says MIHI CEO Jake Sanchez. "This agreement with MDI is a game changer for MIHI and the marketplace, as we can now offer feature rich and user friendly comprehensive EMP/PMS software solutions at half the price. Our business plan is to subsidize a significant portion of the cost, if not 100%, of the telemedicine stations for our rural primary clinics that sign up and register to utilize our network of specialists. We want to make it as easy as possible for the rural clinics to join up with us."
