Item XVI Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation.

Instructions to Item XVI

A. Plan of Operation.

1. Describe the issuer's plan of operation for the next twelve months. This description should include such matters as:

1. Over the next twelve months, management intends to devote a substantial amount of time and effort to building the newly acquired KOMA UNWIND brand. The goal is to develop numerous revenue streams, including revenues from the flagship Piranha Water, and numerous soon-to-be released products, such as the Company's line of relaxation drinks and shots. Management is also committed to achieving its stated mission to create a more inclusive work environment and contributing to greater diversity, and is confident that the Company will benefit substantially from its ability to attract talented and motivated individuals from overlooked demographics.

i. Cash requirements: The Company's plans for aggressive expansion will give rise to concomitant capital needs. At the present time, the Company intends to release its extensive product line in a graduated rollout process that will reduce the urgency of such capital demands, and also provides a continuing base of revenues to fund further expansion. Because several products such as Piranha Water and Koma Unwind are ready for market immediately, management does not anticipate substantial cash requirements in order to bring those products to market, and intends to leverage revenues generated from the sale of these products to finance the development of other products.

ii. Product research and development: R & D are already completed for the Company's first two product releases, Koma Unwind & Sugar Free Unwind and Koma Unwind & Relax5 shots. The target demographic of Koma Unwind is notoriously mercurial, and therefore the Company expects to spend a portion of its efforts in an ongoing process to continual research and development in order to bring new products to market.

iii. Expected purchase or sale of plant and significant equipment: At the present time, there are no plans to make such major purchases. Typically in the beverage industry, production is frequently outsourced, and management intends to rely on its knowledge of the industry and network of industry contacts to guide the Company in selecting the most appropriate corporate partners to produce product.

iv. Significant changes in the number of employees: Management does not have specific figures or concrete plans in place to augment the work force. Instead, such staff increases will be dictated by the pace at which the Company is able to achieve its stated goals and reach milestones that will both necessitate additional personnel and provide the revenue base to support an augmented staff.

B. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

Since the company's inception it has operated under several entities, however in 2008 the company became a viable bottled water sales and marketing company, the company an emerging beverage company focused on developing, producing, and marketing beverages and related products to a group of niche markets. On April 9, 2009, became the company's current CEO. Brian Weber has a number of business ventures which include, Nationwide General Contractor, NASCAR team owner & driver, hotel operator, sanitation business, and beverage company.

1. Full Fiscal Years: After 2 consecutive quarters of establishing new production partnerships, marketing and product development and sales integration. We have seen a significant increase in brand awareness and sales inquires and purchases. Barring such expenditures, gross margins should consequently increase, and thus lead to sustainable profitability.

I. Known trends, events or uncertainties that have or are reasonably likely to have a Material impact on the issuer's short-term or long-term liquidity: Management is Confident that the target market for its upcoming products is sufficiently large and Receptive to generate more than adequate revenues for its ongoing operations, both In the short-term and long-term.

ii. Internal and external source of liquidity: For the moment, management has chosen To answer liquidity demands from within, and given that two major product Offerings, Piranha water and Koma Unwind Relaxation drink are already ready for Production and release, management is optimistic in the ability of the Company to Generate a substantial revenue base from the sales of these products to finance Ongoing efforts. Additional capital needs are expected to be answered through the Continued participation of the Company in the public markets.

iii. Material commitments for capital expenditures and the expected sources of funds For such expenditures: Management does not have any immediate, concrete plans That would not require substantial capital outlays, nor is there any present material Commitments of such nature.

iv. Known trends, events or uncertainties that have had or that are reasonably expected To have a material impact on the net sales or revenues or income from continuing Operations. This mercurial nature presents both opportunities and challenges. On the one hand, it obviates the Company's ability to realistically count on long-term revenues from specific product offerings or to rely on a substantial degree of brand loyalty. On the other hand, it also means that there are Constant opportunities to introduce offerings successfully to the market, providing That the Company is able to accurately gauge demand. Provided that the Company Is successful in its goals of answering market demand, management is confident That this will have a beneficial effect on sales, revenues, and income.

v. Significant elements of income or loss that do not arise from the issuer's Continuing operations: Management does not believe that the financial statements Reflect any such elements.

Any one or more members of the Board of Directors may participate in meetings by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment.

No notice need be given of annual or regular meetings of the Board of Directors. Notice of each special meeting of the Board shall be given to each director either by mail not later than noon, Wyoming time, on the third day prior to the meeting or by telegram, written message or orally not later than noon, Wyoming time, on the day prior to the meeting. Notices are deemed to have been properly given if given: by mail, when deposited in the United States mail; by telegram at the time of filing; or by messenger at the time of delivery. Notices by mail, telegram or messenger shall be sent to each director at the address designated by him for that purpose, or, if none has been so designated, at his last known residence or business address.

Notice of a meeting of the Board of Directors need not be given to any director who submits a signed waiver of notice whether before or after the meeting, or who attends the meeting without protesting, prior thereto or at its commencement, the lack of notice to any director.

A notice, or waiver of notice, need not specify the purpose of any meeting of the Board of Directors.

A majority of the directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn any meeting to another time and place. Notice of any adjournment of a meeting to another time or place shall be given, in the manner described above, to the directors who were not present at the time of the adjournment and, unless such time and place are announced at the meeting, to the other directors.

6. Resignations

Any director of the Corporation may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors or to the President or to the Secretary of the Corporation. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein; and unless otherwise specified therein the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

7. Removal of Directors

Any one or more of the directors may be removed for cause by action of the Board of Directors. Any or all of the directors may be removed with or without cause by vote of the shareholders.

8. Newly Created Directorships and Vacancies

Newly created directorships resulting from an increase in the number of directors and vacancies occurring in the Board of Directors for any reason except the removal of directors by shareholders may be filled by vote of a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum exists. The shareholder shall fill vacancies occurring as a result of the removal of directors by shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected to hold office for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

9. Executive and Other Committees of Directors

The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board, may designate from among its members an executive committee and other committees each consisting of three or more directors and each of which, to the extent provided in the resolution, shall have all the authority of the Board, except that no such committee shall have authority as to the following matters: (a) the submission to shareholders of any action that needs shareholders' approval; (b) the filling of vacancies in the Board or in any committee; (c) the fixing of compensation of the directors for serving on the Board or on any committee; (d) the amendment or repeal of the bylaws, or the adoption of new bylaws; (e) the amendment or repeal of any resolution of the Board which, by its term, shall not be so amendable or repealable; or (f) the removal or indemnification of directors.

The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any such committee, who may replace any absent member or members at any meeting of such committee.

Unless a greater proportion is required by the resolution designating a committee, a majority of the entire authorized number of members of such committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the vote of a majority of the members present at a meeting at the time of such vote, if a quorum is then present, shall be the act of such committee.

Each such committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors.

10. Compensation of Directors

The Board of Directors shall have authority to fix the compensation of directors for services in any capacity.

11. Interest of Directors in a Transaction

Unless shown to be unfair and unreasonable as to the Corporation, no contract or other transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, firm, association or other entity in which one or more of the directors are directors or officers, or are financially interested, shall be either void or voidable, irrespective of whether such interested director or directors are present at a meeting of the Board of Directors, or of a committee thereof, which authorizes such contract or transaction and irrespective of whether his or their votes are counted for such purpose. In the absence of fraud any such contract and transaction conclusively may be authorized or approved as fair and reasonable by: (a) the Board of Directors or a duly empowered committee thereof, by a vote sufficient for such purpose without counting the vote or votes of such interested director or directors (although such interested director or directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at the meeting which authorizes such contract or transaction), if the fact of such common directorship, officership or financial interest is disclosed or known to the Board or committee, as the case may be; or (b) the shareholders entitled to vote for the election of directors, if such common directorship, officership or financial interest is disclosed or known to such shareholders.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no loan, except advances in connection with indemnification, shall be made by the Corporation to any director unless it is authorized by vote of the shareholders without counting any shares of the director who would be the borrower or unless the director who would be the borrower is the sole shareholder of the Corporation.

The Board of Directors, as soon as may be practicable after the annual election of directors, shall elect a President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, and from time to time may elect or appoint such other officers as it may determine. The same person may hold any two or more offices. The Board of Directors may also elect one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers.

The Board with or without cause may remove any officer, at any time. The President shall also preside at all meetings of the shareholders and the Board of Directors.

The Secretary shall have custody of the corporate seal of the Corporation and the Secretary, or an Assistant Secretary, shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it and when so affixed, it may be attested by the Secretary's signature or by the signature of such Assistant Secretary. The Board of Directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the Corporation and to attest the affixing by his signature.

The Assistant Secretary, or if there be more than one, the Assistant Secretaries in the order designated by the Board of Directors, or in the absence of such designation then in the order of their election, in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of the Secretary's inability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Secretary and shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors may from time to time prescribe.

8. Treasurer and Assistant Treasurers

The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities; shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation; and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors.

The Treasurer shall disburse the funds as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Directors, at its regular meetings, or when the Board of Directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation.

If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of the office of Treasurer, and for the restoration to the Corporation, in the case of the Treasurer's death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in the possession or under the control of the Treasurer belonging to the Corporation.

The Assistant Treasurer, or if there shall be more than one, the Assistant Treasurers in the order designated by the Board of Directors, or in the absence of such designation, then in the order of their election, in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of the Treasurer's inability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Treasurer and shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors may from time to time prescribe.

9. Books and Records

The Corporation shall keep: (a) correct and complete books and records of account; (b) minutes of the proceedings of the shareholders, Board of Directors and any committees of directors; and (c) a current list of the directors and officers and their residence addresses. The Corporation shall also keep at its office in the State of Wyoming or at the office of its transfer agent or registrar in the State of Wyoming, if any, a record containing the names and addresses of all shareholders, the number and class of shares held by each and the dates when they respectively became the owners of record thereof.

The Board of Directors may determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions and regulations any accounts, books, records or other documents of the Corporation shall be open to inspection, and no creditor, security holder or other person shall have any right to inspect any accounts, books, records or other documents of the Corporation except as conferred by statute or as so authorized by the Board.

10. Checks, Notes, etc.

All checks and drafts on, and withdrawals from the Corporation's accounts with banks or other financial institutions, and all bills of exchange, notes and other instruments for the payment of money, drawn, made, endorsed, or accepted by the Corporation, shall be signed on its behalf by the person or persons thereunto authorized by, or pursuant to resolution of, the Board of Directors.

The shares may be sealed with the seal of the Corporation or a facsimile thereof. The signatures of the officers upon a certificate may be facsimiles if a transfer agent countersigns the certificate or registered by a registrar other than the Corporation or its employee. In case any officer who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer before such certificate is issued, the Corporation with the same effect may issue it as if he were such officer at the date of issue.

Each certificate representing shares issued by the Corporation shall set forth upon the face or back of the certificate, or shall state that the Corporation will furnish to any shareholder upon request and without charge, a full statement of the designation, relative rights, preferences and limitations of the shares of each class of shares, if more than one, authorized to be issued and the designation, relative rights, preferences and limitations of each series of any class of preferred shares authorized to be issued so far as the same have been fixed, and the authority of the Board of Directors to designate and fix the relative rights, preferences and limitations of other series.

Each certificate representing shares shall state upon the face thereof: (a) that the Corporation is formed under the laws of the State of Wyoming; (b) the name of the person or persons to whom issued; and (c) the number and class of shares, and the designation of the series, if any, which such certificate represents.

3. Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Share Certificates
