At any adjourned meeting, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. A written waiver of notice, whether given before or after the meeting to which it relates, shall be equivalent to the giving of notice of such meeting to the stockholder or stockholders signing such waiver. Attendance of a stockholder at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the stockholder attends for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

5. Fixing Date for Determination of Shareholders Record.

In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or to exercise any rights in respect of any other change, conversion or exchange of stock or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix in advance a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) nor less than ten (10) days prior to the date of such meeting or such action, as the case may be. If the Board has not fixed a record date for determining the stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at a meeting of stockholders, the record date shall be at four o'clock in the afternoon on the day before the day required pursuant to the provisions of this Section 9 to act as chairman of such meeting, the person (who shall be an Assistant Secretary, if any and if present) whom the chairman of the meeting shall appoint shall act as secretary of the meeting and keep the minutes thereof.

10. Order of Business; Notice of Stockholder Proposals; Nomination of Director Candidates.

(a) At any annual or special meeting of the stockholders, only such business shall be conducted as shall have been brought before the meetings (i) pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting, (ii) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors, or (iii) by any stockholder of the Corporation who is a stockholder of record at the time of giving of notice provided for in this Section 10, who shall be entitled to vote at such meeting, and who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 10. Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors may be made at a meeting of stockholders (i) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof or (ii) by any stockholder of the Corporation who is a stockholder of record at the time of giving of notice provided for in this Section 10 who shall be entitled to vote for the election of directors at the meeting, and who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 10.

(c) A stockholder must give timely, written notice to the Secretary of the Corporation to nominate directors at an annual meeting pursuant to Section 10 hereof or to propose business to be brought before an annual or special meeting pursuant to clause (iii) of Section 10(a) hereof. To be timely in the case of an annual meeting, a stockholder's notice must be received at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not less than one hundred twenty (120) days before the date of the Corporation's proxy statement release to shareholders in connection with the Corporation's previous year's annual meeting of stockholders. To be timely in the case of a special meeting or in the event that the date of the annual meeting is changed by more than thirty (30) days from such anniversary date, a stockholder's notice must be received at the principal executive offices of the Corporation no later than the close of business on the tenth day following the earlier of the day on which notice of the meeting date was mailed or public disclosure of the meeting date was made. For purposes of this Section 10, public disclosure shall mean disclosure in a press release reported by the Dow Jones News Service, Associated Press or comparable national news service or in a document publicly filed by the Corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 13, 14 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such stockholder's notice shall set forth (i) with respect to each matter, if any, that the stockholder proposes to bring before the meeting, a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting and the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting, (ii) with respect to each person, if any, whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election as a director, all information relating to such person (including such person(s) written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director) that is required under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, (iii) the name and address, as they appear on the Corporation's records, of the stockholder proposing such business or nominating such persons (as the case may be), and the name and address of the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal or nomination is made, (iv) the class and number of shares of capital

(d) Notwithstanding anything in these Bylaws to the contrary, no business shall be conducted, and no person shall be nominated to serve as a director, at an annual or special meeting of stockholders, except in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 10. The Chairman of the meeting shall, if the facts warrant, determine that business was not properly brought before the meeting, or that a nomination was not made, in accordance with the procedures prescribed by these Bylaws and, if he shall so determine, he shall so declare to the meeting, and any such business not properly brought before the meeting shall not be transacted and any defective nomination shall be disregarded. A stockholder shall also comply with all applicable requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder with respect to the matters set forth in this Section 10.

(e) This Section 10 shall not prevent the consideration and approval or disapproval at the annual meeting of reports of officers, directors and committees of the Board of Directors, but, in connection with such reports, no business shall be acted upon at such annual meeting unless stated, filed and received as herein provided.

11. Election of Directors.

Each stockholder entitled to vote at each election of Directors, shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, the number of shares of stock owned by such stockholder. Stockholders shall not have cumulative voting rights with respect to the election of Directors. The candidates receiving the greatest number of votes, up to the number of Directors to be elected, shall be the Directors.

12. Stockholder Approval or Ratification.

The Board of Directors may submit any contract or act for approval or ratification of the stockholders at a duly constituted meeting of the stockholders. Except as otherwise required by law, if any contract or act so submitted is approved or ratified by a majority of the votes cast thereon at such meeting, the same shall be valid and as binding upon the Corporation and all of its stockholders as it would be if it were the act of the stockholders.

13. Action by Stockholders Without a Meeting.

Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the stockholders may be taken without a meeting, without notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by the number of stockholders as are required to pass such action and entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof.

14. Irregularities.

All informalities and irregularities at any meeting of the stockholders with respect to calls, notices of meeting, the manner of voting, the form of proxies and credentials, and the method of ascertaining those present shall be deemed waived if no objection is made at the meeting.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. General Powers.

The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors.

2. Number; Term of Office and Qualifications.

Subject to the requirements of the Private Corporations Law of the State of Nevada and the Articles of Incorporation, the Board of Directors may, from time to time, determine the number of Directors upon the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the Directors in office. Each Director shall hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders following his appointment or election and until his or her successor is elected or until his or her death, resignation or removal in the manner hereinafter provided. Directors do not need to be residents of the State of Nevada or stockholders of the Corporation.

3. Place of Meeting.

The Board of Directors may hold its meetings at such place or places as it may from time to time by resolution determine or as shall be designated in any notices or waivers of notice thereof. Any such meeting, whether regular or special, may be held by conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting in such manner shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

4. Annual Meetings.

As soon as practicable after each annual election of Directors and on the same day, the Board of Directors may meet for the purpose of organization and the transaction of other business at the place where regular meetings of the Board of Directors are held, and no notice of such meeting shall be necessary in order to legally hold the meeting, provided that a quorum is present. If such meeting is not held as provided above, the meeting may be held at such time and place as shall be specified in a notice given as hereinafter provided for a special meeting of the Board of Directors, or in the event of waiver of notice as specified in the written waiver of notice.

5. Regular Meetings.

Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such times as the Board of Directors shall from time to time by resolution determine.

6. Special Meetings; Notice.

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held whenever called by the Chairman of the Board or a majority of the Directors at the time in office. Notice shall be given, in the manner hereinafter provided, of each such special meeting, which notice shall state the time and place of such meeting, but need not state the purposes thereof. Except as otherwise provided in Section 7 of this Article III, notice of each such meeting shall be mailed to each Director, addressed to him or her at his or her residence or usual place of business, at least two (2) days before the day on which such meeting is to be held, or shall be sent addressed to him or her at such place by telegraph, cable, wireless or other form of recorded communication or delivered personally or by telephone not later than the day before the day on which such meeting is to be held. A written waiver of notice, whether given before or after the meeting to which it relates, shall be equivalent to the giving of notice of such meeting to the Director or Directors signing such waiver. Attendance of a Director at a special meeting of the Board of Directors shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when he or she attends the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

7. Quorum and Manner of Acting.

A majority of the whole Board of Directors shall be present in person at any meeting of the Board of Directors in order to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at such meeting, and except as otherwise specified in these Bylaws, and except also as otherwise expressly provided by the Private Corporations Law of the State of Nevada, the vote of a majority of the Directors present at any such meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors. In the absence of a quorum from any such meeting, a majority of the Directors present thereat may adjourn such meeting from time to time to another time or place, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present thereat. The Directors shall act only as a Board and the individual Directors shall have no power as such.

8. Organization.

(a) From its members, the Board of Directors will elect a Chairman to preside over meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. The Chairman may simultaneously serve as any officer of the Corporation. The Board may elect one or more Vice Chairmen. In the absence of the Chairman or a Vice Chairman, if any, the Board shall designate any person to preside at such meetings.

(b) At each meeting of the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, or, if he or she is absent therefrom, a Vice Chairman, or if he or she is absent therefrom, a Director chosen by a majority of the Directors present thereat, shall act as chairman of such meeting and preside thereat. The Secretary, or if he or she is absent, the person (who shall be an Assistant Secretary, if any and if present) whom the chairman of such meeting shall appoint, shall act as Secretary of such meeting and keep the minutes thereof.

9. Action by Directors Without a Meeting.

Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by all Directors entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof.

10. Resignations.

Any Director may resign at any time by giving written notice of his or her resignation to the Corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, or, if the time when it shall become effective is not specified therein, it shall take effect immediately upon its receipt by the Chairman of the Board, the President or the Secretary; and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

11. Recording of a Negative Vote.

A Director who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors at which any action is taken shall be presumed to have assented to such action unless his dissent to such action shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless he shall file his written dissent to such action with the Secretary before the adjournment thereof or forward such dissent to the Secretary by certified mail before 5:00 p.m. the next day which is not a holiday or Saturday after the adjournment of the meeting. No right to dissent shall apply to a Director who voted in favor of such action.

13. Vacancies.

Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors, and any newly created directorship, may be filled by a majority of the Directors then in office, including any Director whose resignation from the Board of Directors becomes effective at a future time, provided that the number of Directors then in office is not less than a quorum of the whole Board, or by a sole remaining Director. If at any time the Corporation has no Directors in office, any officer or any shareholder or any fiduciary entrusted with responsibility for the person or estate of a shareholder may call a special meeting of the shareholders for the purpose of filling vacancies in the Board of Directors.

14. Compensation.

Unless otherwise expressly provided by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors, no Director shall receive any compensation for his or her services as a Director. The Board of Directors may at any time and from time to time by resolution provide that the Directors shall be paid a fixed sum for attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors or a stated salary as Director. In addition, the Board of Directors may at any time and from time to time by resolution provide that Directors shall be paid their actual expenses, if any, of attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors. Nothing in this section shall be construed as precluding any Director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor, but the Board of Directors may by resolution provide that any Director receiving compensation for his or her services to the Corporation in any other capacity shall not receive additional compensation for his or her services as a Director.

2. Transfers of Stock.

Stock of the Corporation shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by applicable law and in these bylaws. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation, and in the case of certificated shares of stock, only by the person named in the certificate or by such person's attorney lawfully constituted in writing and upon the surrender of the certificate therefor, properly endorsed for transfer and payment of all necessary transfer taxes; or, in the case of uncertificated shares of stock, upon receipt of proper transfer instructions from the registered holder of the shares or by such person's attorney lawfully constituted in writing, and upon payment of all necessary transfer taxes and compliance with appropriate procedures for transferring shares in uncertificated form; provided, however, that such surrender and endorsement, compliance or payment of taxes shall not be required in any case in which the officers of the Corporation shall determine to waive such requirement. With respect to certificated shares of stock, every certificate exchanged, returned or surrendered to the Corporation shall be marked “Cancelled,” with the date of cancellation, by the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Corporation or the transfer agent thereof. No transfer of stock shall be valid as against the Corporation for any purpose until it shall have been entered in the stock records of the Corporation by an entry showing from and to whom transferred.

3. Lost or Destroyed Certificates.

Any person claiming a certificate of stock to be lost or destroyed shall make an affidavit or affirmation of that fact and advertise the same in such manner as the Board of Directors may require, and the Board of Directors may, in its discretion, require the owner of the lost or destroyed certificate or his legal representative to give the Corporation a bond, in such sum as it may direct, not exceeding double the value of the stock, to indemnify the Corporation against any claim that may be made against it on account of the alleged loss of any such certificate. A new certificate of the same tenor and for the same number of shares as the one alleged to be lost or destroyed, or uncertificated shares in place of any such certificate, may be issued without requiring any bond when, in the judgment of the Directors, it is proper to do so.

The Board of Directors may from time to time declare, and the Corporation may pay, dividends on its outstanding shares of stock in the manner and upon the terms and conditions provided in the Private Corporations Law of the State of Nevada.

A corporate seal shall not be requisite to the validity of any instrument executed by or on behalf of the Corporation. Nevertheless, if in any instance a corporate seal is used, the same shall be in the form of a circle and shall bear the full name of the Corporation and the year and state of incorporation, or words and figures of similar import.

ARTICLE X

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

1. General.

The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

2. Derivative Actions.

The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

3. Indemnification in Certain Cases.

To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article X, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

4. Procedure.

Any indemnification under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article X (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in such Sections 1 and 2. Such determination shall be made (a) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (b) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (c) by the stockholders.

5. Advances for Expenses.

Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation, to the extent permitted by law, in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount if it shall be ultimately determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article X.

6. Rights Not Exclusive.

The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to, the other Sections of this Article X shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any law, by-law, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office.

7. Insurance.

The Corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article X.

8. Definition of Corporation.

For the purposes of this Article X, references to “the Corporation” include all constituent corporations absorbed in consolidation or merger as well as the resulting or surviving corporation so that any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of such a constituent corporation or is or was serving at the request of such constituent as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise shall stand in the same position under the provisions of this Article X with respect to the resulting or surviving corporation as he would if he had served the resulting or surviving corporation in the same capacity.

9. Other Definitions.

For purposes of this Article X, references to “other enterprises” shall include employee benefit plans; references to “fines” shall include any excise taxes assessed on a person with respect to an employee benefit plan; and references to “serving at the request of the corporation” shall include any service as a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation which imposes duties on, or involves services by, such director, officer, employee, or agent with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants, or beneficiaries; and a person who acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan shall be deemed to have acted in a manner “not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation” as referred to in this Article X.

10. Continuation of Rights.

The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to this Article X shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person. No amendment to or repeal of this Article X shall apply to or have any effect on, the rights of any director, officer, employee or agent under this Article X which rights come into existence by virtue of acts or omissions of such director, officer, employee or agent occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

11. Contract.

The foregoing provisions of this Article shall be deemed to be a contract between the Corporation and each director and officer who serves in such capacity at any time while this Bylaw is in effect, and any repeal or modification thereof shall not affect any rights or obligations then existing with respect to any state of facts then or theretofore existing of any Proceeding theretofore or thereafter brought based in whole or in part upon any such state of facts. The foregoing rights of indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which any director or officer may be entitled apart from the provisions of this Article.

ARTICLE XI

AMENDMENTS

These Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors at any regular meeting of the stockholders or of the Board of Directors or at any special meeting of the stockholders or of the Board of Directors if notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws be contained in the notice of such special meeting. If the power to adopt, amend or repeal Bylaws is conferred upon the Board of Directors by the Certificate of Incorporation, it shall not divest or limit the power of the stockholders to adopt, amend or repeal Bylaws.

THIRD: PURPOSES AND POWERS. The purposes for which the Corporation is organized is to engage in any and all lawful acts and/or activities whatsoever for which corporations may be organized under and pursue under the laws of the State of Nevada. The Corporation may pursue said purposes in the State of Nevada and/or in any state, territory or jurisdiction of the United States of America and/or in any foreign country. In furtherance of the foregoing purposes, the Corporation shall have and may exercise all of its rights, powers and privileges now or thereafter conferred upon corporations organized under the laws of Nevada. Statutes provides that the Directors may act in such instances, such action by the Directors shall be deemed to exist in these Articles of Incorporation and the authority granted by the Nevada Revised Statutes shall be imputed hereto without the same specifically having been enumerated herein.

13. The Board of Directors may consist of from one (1) to eleven (11) directors, as determined, from time to time, by the then existing Board of Directors.

C. As provided by NRS 78.1-10, without repeating the section in full here, the same is adopted and no contract or other transaction between this Corporation and any of its officers, agents, or directors shall be deemed void or voidable solely for that reason. The balance of the provisions of the code section cited, as it now exists, allowing such transactions, is hereby incorporated into this Subsection C of this Article Fifth as though fully set forth herein, and such Subsection C of this Article Fifth shall be read and interpreted to provide the greatest latitude in its application.

SIXTH: WRITTEN CONSENT. EIGHTH: EXISTENCE. The Corporation shall have perpetual existence.

NINTH: INDEMNIFICATION. A. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. To the maximum extent allowable by law, no Director of the Corporation shall have any personal liability to the Corporation or its stockholders for damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director or officer. The above elimination of personal liability shall not be construed to eliminate or limit the liability of a Director for acts or omissions which involve intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of law, or for the payment of dividends in violation of NRS 78.300.

13. NATURAL OF INDEMNITY. The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was or has agreed to become a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving or has agreed to serve at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or by reason of any action alleged to have been taken or omitted in such capacity, and may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to such an action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was or has agreed to become an employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving or has agreed to serve at the request of the Corporation as an employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her or on his or her behalf in connection with such action, suit or proceeding and any appeal therefrom, if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful; except that in the case of an action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor (a) such indemnification shall be limited to expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in the defense or settlement of such action or suit, and (b) no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that this conduct was unlawful.

C. SUCCESSFUL DEFENSE. To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Subsection B of this Ninth Article or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he or she shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

D. DETERMINATION THAT INDEMNIFICATION IS PROPER. Any indemnification of a director or officer of the Corporation under Subsection B of this Ninth Article (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation unless a determination is made that indemnification of the director or officer is not proper in the circumstances because he or she has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Subsection B of this Ninth Article. Any indemnification of an employee or agent of the Corporation under Subsection B of this Ninth Article (unless ordered by a court) may be made by the Corporation upon a determination that indemnification of the employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Subsection A of this Ninth Article. Any such determination shall be made (a) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (b) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (c) by the stockholders.

E. ADVANCE PAYMENT OF EXPENSES. Unless the Board of Directors otherwise determines in a specific case, expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of a written undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Ninth Article. Such expenses incurred by other employees and agents may be so paid upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the Board of Directors deems appropriate.

F. SURVIVAL; PRESERVATION OF OTHER RIGHTS. The foregoing indemnification provisions shall be deemed to be a contract between the Corporation and each director, officer, employee and agent who serves in any such capacity at any time while these provisions as well as the relevant provisions of the NRS are in effect and any repeal or modification thereof shall not affect any right or obligation then existing with respect to any slate of facts then or previously existing or any action, suit, or proceeding previously or thereafter brought or threatened based in whole or in part upon fully such state of facts. Such a contract right may not be modified retroactively without the consent of such director, officer, employee or agent. The indemnification provided by this Ninth Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his or her official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person. The Corporation may enter into an agreement with any of its directors, officers, employees or agents providing for indemnification and advancement of expenses, including attorneys' fees, that may enhance, qualify or limit any right to indemnification or advancement of expenses created by this Ninth Article.

G. SEVERABILITY. If this Ninth Article or any portion hereof shall be invalidated on any ground by any court of competent jurisdiction, then the Corporation shall nevertheless indemnify each director or officer and may indemnify each employee or agent of the Corporation as to costs, charges and expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgment, fines and amounts paid in settlement with respect to any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including an action by or in the right of the Corporation, to the fullest extent permitted by any applicable portion of this Ninth Article that shall not have been invalidated and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

H. SUBROGATION. In the event of payment of indemnification to a person described in Subsection A of this Ninth Article, the Corporation shall be subrogated to the extent of such payment to any right of recovery such person may have and such person, as a condition of receiving indemnification from the Corporation, shall execute all documents and do all things that the Corporation may deem necessary or desirable to perfect such right of recovery, including the execution of such documents necessary to enable the Corporation effectively to enforce any such recovery.

I. NO DUPLICATION OF PAYMENTS. The Corporation shall not be liable under this Ninth Article to make any payment in connection with any claim made against a person described in this Ninth Article to the extent such person has otherwise received payment (under any insurance policy, bylaw or otherwise) of the amounts otherwise indemnifiable hereunder.

TENTH: PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHTS. Unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, no holder of stock of the Corporation shall be entitled as such, as a matter of right, to purchase or subscribe for any stock of any class or series of stock which the Corporation may issue or sell, whether or not exchangeable for any stock of the Corporation of any class or series, and whether out of unissued shares authorized by the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation as originally filed or by any amendment thereof, or out of shares of stock of the Corporation acquired by it after the issue thereof, and whether issued for cash, labor or services performed, personal property, real property, or leases thereof, nor shall any stockholder be entitled to any right of subscription to any such stock; nor, unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, shall any holder of any shares of stock, as a matter of right, to purchase or subscribe for any obligation that the Corporation may issue or sell that shall be convertible into or exchangeable for any shares of the stock of the Corporation's capital stock of any class or series. Unless required by applicable law, the capital stock of any class or series of the Corporation shall have no cumulative voting rights in the election of directors or on any other matters requiring or presented for stockholder approval.

ELEVENTH: ELECTION REGARDING NRS 78.378-78.3793 AND 78.411-78.444. This Corporation shall not be governed by nor shall the provisions of NRS 78.378 through and including 78.379 and NRS 78.411 through and including 78.444 in any way whatsoever affect the management, operation or be applied in this Corporation.

TWELFTH: A. NEGOTIATIONS OF EQUITABLE INTERESTS IN SHARES OR RIGHTS. Unless a person is recognized as a stockholder through procedures established by the Corporation pursuant to the NSR or any similar law, the Corporation shall be entitled to treat the registered holder of any shares of the Corporation's stock as the owner thereof for all purposes permitted by the NRS including without limitation all rights deriv\llg.from such hares, and the Corporation shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares or rights deriving from such shares on the part of any other person, including without limitation a purchaser, assignee or transferee of such shares, unless and until such other person becomes the registered holder of such shares or is recognized as such, whether or not the Corporation shall have either actual or constructive notice of the claimed interest of such other person. By way of example and not of limitation, until such other person has.become the registered holder of such shares or is recognized pursuant to the NSR or any similar applicable law, such person shall not be entitled: (1) to receive notice of the meetings of stockholders; (2) to vote at such meetings; (3) to examine a list of the stockh9lders; (4) to be paid dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders; or (5) to own, enjoy and exercise any other rights deriving from such shares against the Corporation.

B. CONFLICTING INTEREST TRANSACTIONS. To the maximum extent allowable by law, no Director of the Corporation shall have any personal liability to the Corporation or its stockholders for damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director or officer. B. NATURE OF INDEMNITY. The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was or has agreed to become a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving or has agreed to serve at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or by reason of any action alleged to have been taken or omitted in such capacity, and may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to such an action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was or has agreed to become an employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving or has agreed to serve at the request of the Corporation as an employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her or on his or her behalf in connection with such action, suit or proceeding and any appeal therefrom, if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful; except that in the case of an action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor (a) such indemnification shall be limited to expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in the defense or settlement of such action or suit, and (b) no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of rwlo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in o:t not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that this conduct was unlawful.

D. SUCCESSFUL DEFENSE. To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Subsection B of this Ninth Article or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he or she shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

D. DETERMINATION THAT INDEMNIFICATION IS PROPER. Any indemnification of a director or officer of the Corporation under Subsection B of this Ninth Article (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation unless a determination is made that indemnification of the director or officer is not proper in the circumstances because he or she has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Subsection B of this Ninth Article. Any indemnification of an employee or agent of the Corporation under Subsection B of this nth Article (unless ordered by a court) may be made by the Corporation upon a determination that indemnification of the employee or agent is properdn the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set ?tirt'h in Subsection A of this Ninth Article. Any such determination shall be made (a) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action; swror- proceeding, or (b) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (c) by the stockholders.

E. ADVANCE PAYMENT OF EXPENSES. Unless the Board of Directors otherwise determines in a specific case, expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of a written undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Ninth Article. Such expenses incurred by other employees and agents may be so paid upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the Board of Directors deems appropriate.

F. SURVIVAL; PRESERVATION OF OTHER RIGHTS. - "The foregoing indemnification provisions shall be deemed to be a contract between the Corporation and each director, officer, employee and agent who serves in any such capacity at any time while these provisions as well as the relevant provisions of the NRS are in effect and any repeal or modification thereof shall not affect any right or obligation then existing with respect to any state of facts then or previously existing or any action, suit, or proceeding previously or thereafter brought or threatened based in whole or in part upon any such state of facts. Such a contract right may not be modified retroactively without the consent of such director, officer, employee or agent. The indemnification provided by this Ninth Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stock holders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his or her official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person. The Corporation may enter into an agreement with any of its directors, officers, employees or agents providing for indemnification and advancement of expenses, including attorneys' fees, that may change, enhance, qualify or limit any right to indemnification or advancement of expenses created by this Ninth Article.

G. SURVIVABILITY. If this Ninth Article or any portion thereof shall be invalidated on any ground by any court of competent jurisdiction, then the Corporation shall nevertheless indemnify each director or officer and may indemnify each employee or agent of the Corporation as to costs, charges and expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgment, fines and amounts paid in settlement with respect to any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including an action by or in the right of the Corporation, to the fullest extent permitted by any applicable portion of this Ninth Article that shall not have been invalidated and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

H. SUBROGATION. In the event of payment of indemnification to a person described in Subsection A of this Ninth Article, the Corporation shall be subrogated to the extent of such payment to any right of recovery such person may have and such person, as a condition of receiving indemnification from the Corporation, shall execute all documents and do all things that the Corporation may deem necessary or desirable to perfect such right of recovery, including the execution of such documents necessary to enable the Corporation effectively to enforce any such recovery.

I. NO DUPLICATION OF PAYMENTS. The Corporation shall not be liable under this Ninth Article to make any payment in connection with any claim made against a person described in this Ninth Article to the extent such person has otherwise received payment (under any insurance policy, bylaw or otherwise) of the amounts otherwise indemnifiable hereunder.

TENTH: PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHTS. Unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, no holder of stock of the Corporation shall be entitled as such, as a matter of right, to purchase or subscribe for any stock of any class or series of stock which the Corporation may issue or sell, whether or not exchangeable for any stock of the Corporation of any class or series, and whether out of unissued shares authorized by the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation as originally filed or by any amendment thereof, or out of shares of stock of the Corporation acquired by it after the issue thereof, and whether issued for cash, labor or services performed, personal property, real property, or leases thereof, nor shall any stockholder be entitled to any right of subscription to any such stock; nor, unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, shall any holder of any shares of stock, as a matter of right, to purchase or subscribe for any obligation that the Corporation may issue or sell that shall be convertible into or exchangeable for any shares of the stock of the Corporation's capital stock of any class or series. cumulative voting rights in the election of directors or on any other matters requiring or presented for stockholder approval.

Unless a person is recognized as a stockholder through procedures established by the Corporation pursuant to the NSR or any similar law, the Corporation shall be entitled to treat the registered holder of any shares of the Corporation's stock as the owner thereof for all purposes permitted by the NRS including without limitation all rights deriving from such shares, and the Corporation shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares or rights deriving from such shares on the part of any other person, including without limitation a purchaser, assignee or transferee of such shares, unless and until such other person becomes the registered holder of such shares or is recognized as such, whether or not the Corporation shall have either actual or constructive notice of the claimed interest of such other person. No conflicting interest transaction shall be void or voidable, be enjoined, set aside or give rise to an award of damages or other sanctions in a proceeding by a shareholder or by or in the right of the Corporation, solely because the conflicting interest transaction involves a director of the corporation or an entity in which a director of the Corporation is a director or officer or has a financial interest, or solely because the director is present at or participates in the meetings of the Corporation's board of directors or of the committee of the board of directors which authorizes, approves or ratifies a conflicting interest transaction, or solely because the director's vote is counted for such purpose if: (a) the material facts as to the director's relationship or interest and as to the conflicting interest transaction are disclosed or are known to the board of directors or the committee, and the board of directors or committee in good faith authorizes, approves or ratifies the conflicting interest transaction by the affirmative vote of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors are less than a quorum; or (b) the material facts as to the director's relationship or
