6) Describe the Issuer's Business, Products and Services

Describe the issuer's business so a potential investor can clearly understand the company. In answering this item, please include the following:

a description of the issuer's business operations;

Business - General

The Company Website : www.wellnessbuilder.com

The Company specializes in advances in Supplements for Health, and Anti-Aging with a special interest in Preventative Medicine. The Company was formed to distribute nutraceuticals formulas developed over thirty years of research by Dr. Kevin Buckman. Dr. Buckman has created more than a dozen fucoidan-based formulas which are intended to address the needs of individuals suffering from DDS (Degenerative Disease Syndrome), which includes such maladies as gastrointestinal disorders, auto-immune diseases, asthma, Alzheimer's, dementia, diabetes, arthritis, cancer, and heart disease.

The Company is focused on delivering nutraceutical formulas that can help diabetes and heart disease, along with new diagnostics for early detection of a predisposition to these disease states. Recognition of diabetes and vascular-cardiac disease is a very important part of this program since over one half of men and women have significant cardiovascular disease and millions of Americans have Diabetes and don't know it.

The growing concerns of oxidative stress have been shown to be an etiology of these diseases. There is also growing evidence of the benefits from the correct anti-oxidant in a bio-available and effective delivery system. Handling of oxidative stress of the 50 billion cells of each of us is vital for quality of life and longevity. Peak performance and feeling of vitality is another important goal of The Company.

Our mission is to provide medically proven modalities for Diabetes and assist lowering the costs of most expensive medical disorders in the United States and Worldwide. Diabetes and Heart Disease is increasing in frequency throughout the world at a rapid rate, they are related as inflammatory diseases and the most costly problem and biggest killers in the US. Current allopathic therapy is severely lacking in ability to provide sick care and preventive medical practices.

Today the most costly medical problems we have are due to diabetes, heart disease, and cancer. Delivering products that provide better education for our customers that utilize scientifically-based testing is the most important service we can offer. The proper focus for Chronic Diseases such as Diabetes and Heart Disease is centered on the proper metabolic pathways. The goal for Diabetes is not just control of the blood sugar. The goal for cardiac disease is not just good cholesterol levels. Both Diabetes and Heart Disease require more control over cellular and metabolic pathways that are responsible for the health of every person suffering from these diseases. All of our products have been designed to help a variety of people by providing them a feeling of better wellness.
