10. Management's Discussion and Analysis

A. Plan of Operation:

The company has been very active in securing interest from a totally new group of investors. With the new Management the Company is taking a whole new orientation over and above the actual water business. Since September 2013, Management has been in discussion with companies in different fields:

1.1 Financial Mobile Transactions and Telephony

Aquagold is also looking into the financial mobile transaction business and global telephony with the cooperation of its new partners. The negotiations are in the final stage of implementation and in signing new agreements that we will be able to announce shortly. The company has already signed an MOU with SmartCard Inc., and all the other services connected with it.

1.2 Management is currently in discussion with new investors to acquire new sources of water for export.

. 1.3 Management has recently received a proposal to join up with a very powerful company which deals in developing new products

B. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

In order to achieve its goals and enter into partnership with the groups that management is dealing with actually, the main request has been to reorganize the company's financials and share situation to make it more attractive. Management is considering transforming the debt into shares and warrants and – mostly – Management has done a reverse split to increase the value of the common shares and to bring it to a more suitable level.

Once this is achieved, the partners will sign agreements with the company and allow it to prosper at a rate that will reward our efforts of the last three years.
