6) Describe the Issuer's Business, Products and Services

Describe the issuer's business so a potential investor can clearly understand the company. In answering this item, please include the following:

A. a description of the issuer's business operations;

Global Enterprises Group was created to bring housing solutions to fixed income and low to moderate income families who have historically occupied marginal or inferior dwelling units in small populated towns and townships in rural America. The company brings over 40 years of construction experience and a willingness to join forces with some of the nation's most creative housing technology companies. Together they shall seek to eliminate the scourge of dilapidated structures that rank among the poorer such dwelling units in any modernized society in the world.

Global Enterprises Group has determined that the use of Z-MIX, a patented building material, will be a very expeditious and economical way to utilize this constructive technology to take advantage of the existing affordable homes markets worldwide. Although Z-MIX exceeds U.S. Building Code standards, additional approvals must be obtained before the product can become a factor in housing supply in the US.

In anticipation of Z-MIX's many usages, the Company has purchased an exclusive license to use Z-MIX, a building material that is not only lighter and stronger than concrete, but also uses waste materials such as old tires, wood chips and plastic waste in its composition.

The Z-MIX opportunity will create new industries that are more kind to our environment, less demanding of our precious supply of resources, and more supportive of a higher worldwide standard of living. The U.S. Patent Office has awarded Z-MIX the status of "SPECIAL", recognizing that its patent has the potential to make great environmental impacts and changes in the United States and the World. Z-MIX is an environmentally-friendly cementitious product that recycles waste products to fill underground tanks and voids, to manufacture wood substitute products, and to build homes throughout the World.

Global Enterprise Group has a strong focus to develop housing for third world markets, in particular Africa, whereas the Company's products and methods of construction can provide inexpensive housing to the millions of homeless. The opportunity to provide clean and secure housing to the third world population remains a key objective in the company's operations.

Material corporate events:

On March 30, 2015 -Global Enterprises Group, Inc. announced it has appointed Mr. Bradley Robinson as the Company's new President and CEO. Recently, GLHO announced a pending acquisition with Predictive Therapeutics, LLC where Mr. Robinson is its President and CEO.Mr. Robinson has established and recognizable business acumen, he has co-founded both private and public companies, secured/structured financing, and formed strategic partnerships.

On March 24, 2015 Global Enterprises Group, Inc. announced that the Company has entered into an agreement to acquire a majority position of Predictive Therapeutics, LLC. Appropriate corporate governance changes (i.e., management and board positions) will be made upon completion of the definitive merger agreement, which is expected to be executed within ten days. Predictive Therapeutics, LLC ("PRx") was organized to develop, commercialize, acquire and invest in technologies involved in novel molecular diagnostic and therapeutic products in healthcare. PRx intends to revolutionize the treatment of serious, chronic and debilitating diseases through the commercialization of novel therapeutics leveraged by proprietary gene-based companion diagnostics. PRx has developed and/or acquired a pipeline of products. These proprietary technologies can open a window into the origin of human disease and the role that genes and their related proteins play in the disease's onset and progression. PRx uses genetic information as the cornerstone in the development of new diagnostics that assess a person's risk of disease and therapeutic products designed to effectively prevent and treat the disease.

On March 5, 2015 - the Company announced it was preparing to begin sand mining operations in Sierra Leone.

On Feb. 24, 2015- the Company announces the signing of a "Memorandum of Understanding" (MOU) to acquire certain granite quarry and mining assets in Sierra Leone, Africa.

Global Enterprises Group is a Nevada Corporation that was created to bring housing solutions to fixed income and low to moderate income families who have historically occupied marginal or inferior dwelling units in small populated towns and townships in rural America. The company brings over 40 years of construction experience and a willingness to join forces with some of the nation's most creative housing technology companies. Together they shall seek to eliminate the scourge of dilapidated structures that rank among the poorer such dwelling units in any modernized society in the world.

It is an objective, couched in integrated private and public resources, that when achieved, will eliminate the existing atmosphere in which both government and private developers and builders in these United States, have failed to address deplorable conditions of sub-standard housing for too many citizens of this great democracy.

Both private and public resources will be employed to fill these dwelling units with major roles anticipated by the involvement of the USDA and its Farmers Home Administration programs for construction and permanent financing. The USDA 502 Loan Guarantee Program will be the dominant tool employed by the building contractors in each of these 12 states.
