ACCOUNTANT'S COMPILATION REPORT

To the Shareholders
Ultimate Sports, Inc.

I have compiled the accompanying balance sheet of Ultimate Sports, Inc. as of December 31, 2014 and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the year then ended. I have not audited or reviewed the accompanying financial statements and, accordingly, do not express an opinion or provide any assurance about whether the financial statements are in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and for designing, implementing, and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements.

My responsibility is to conduct the compilation in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The objective of a compilation is to assist management in presenting financial information in the form of financial statements without undertaking to obtain or provide any assurance that there are no material modifications that should be made to the financial statements.

I am not independent with respect to Ultimate Sports, Inc.

ULTIMATE SPORTS, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2014

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization

Ultimate Sports, Inc. ("The Company") is an Indiana corporation organized on December 6, 1988. The Company is engaged in the business of designing and assembling snowmobile skis and related products. The Company has offices in West Lafayette, Indiana.

Accounting Year

The Company has elected a calendar accounting period beginning on January 1 and ending December 31 each year.

Method of Accounting

The financial statements of Ultimate Sports, Inc. have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting. Under this method, certain revenues are recognized when earned and certain expenses and purchases of assets are recognized when the obligation incurred.

Management's Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are stated at the amount management expects to collect from outstanding balances. Management provides for probable uncollectible amounts through a charge to earnings and a credit to a valuation account based on its assessment of the current status of individual accounts. Balances which are still outstanding after management has used reasonable collection efforts are written off through a charge to the valuation allowance and a credit to trade accounts receivable. Changes in the valuation allowance have not been material to the financial statements.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is computed under accelerated method with useful lives ranging from 5 to 7 years. Expenditures for major renewals and betterments which extend the useful lives of property and equipment are capitalized. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred.

Inventory

Inventory is composed principally of raw materials and is stated at the lower of cost or market. Substantially all inventory is pledged as collateral on bank loans.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

Long-lived assets and identifiable intangibles to be held and used are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount should be addressed. Impairment is measured by comparing the carrying value to the estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to result from use of the assets and their eventual disposition.

ULTIMATE SPORTS, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2014

Advertising Cost

Advertising costs, except for costs associated with direct-response advertising, are charged to operations when incurred. The costs of direct-response advertising are capitalized and amortized over the period during which future benefits are expected to be received.

Financial Instruments

For most financial instruments, including cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accruals, management believes that the carrying amount approximates fair value, as the majority of these instruments are short-term in nature.

NOTE 2 – LOANS TO SHAREHOLDER

The Company has made non-interest bearing and unsecured loans to its founding shareholder in the amount of $99,666. The loans are due on demand.
