CALIFORNIA GOLD MINING INC.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS
FOR THE SIX MONTHS ENDED FEBRUARY 28, 2015 AND 2014

This report provides a discussion and analysis of the financial condition of California Gold Mining Inc. to enable a reader to assess material changes in the financial condition between February 28, 2015 and 2014 and results of operations for the three and six months ended February 28, 2015 and 2014. This Management's Discussion and Analysis is intended to supplement and complement the unaudited Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements for the three and six months ended, and as at, February 28, 2015 and 2014 (collectively the "Interim Financial Statements"). Accordingly, this report should be read in conjunction with the Interim Financial Statements. Certain notes to the Interim Financial Statements are specifically referred to in this Management's Discussion and Analysis and such notes are incorporated by reference herein. All figures shown are in Canadian dollars unless otherwise stated.

This report also contains certain forward-looking statements relating to the potential future performance. Forward-looking statements are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from those implied by the forward-looking statements. For additional information regarding forward-looking statements, see Section 12 – Cautionary Note Regarding Forward Looking Statements Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date the statements were made, and readers are advised to consider such forward-looking statements in light of the risks as set forth below, including those set out in Section 11 – Risks and Uncertainties.

This Management's Discussion and Analysis has been prepared as of April 20, 2015 (the "Report Date").

1. OVERVIEW

California Gold Mining Inc. ("California Gold" or the "Corporation") is a junior mineral exploration company engaged in the acquisition, exploration and development of mineral resource properties. Since March 1, 2013, its principal property has been its Fremont Property, located in Mariposa, California. Prior to its acquisition of the Fremont Property, the Corporation's only material property was the Dingman Property, which is described further below. From February 9, 2010 through April 12, 2013 the common shares of the Corporation, then named Upper Canada Gold Corporation, traded on the TSX Venture Exchange under the symbol "UCC". Effective as of April 15, 2013, the Corporation's common shares have traded under the symbol "CGM". To date, the Corporation has not earned significant revenues and is considered to be in the exploration stage.

1.1 Financial Condition, Performance and Cash Flows

The Corporation has had no revenue from active operations and its primary activities consist of exploration and development activities at its Fremont Property. Expenses of the Corporation for the six months ended February 28, 2015 were $281,682, resulting largely from management expenses, share based compensation expenses, and costs of exploration work at the Fremont Property. See Section 3.1.2 – Results of Operations – Operating Income and Expenses – Expenses and Section 3.1.4 – Results of Operations – Operating Income and Expenses – General and Administrative and Other Expenses for additional information on the Corporation's expenses.

During the six months ended February 28, 2015, the Corporation completed two private placements, the first consisting of 7,000,000 common shares for gross proceeds of $350,000 which was completed on September 10, 2014 and the second consisting of 6,840,000 common shares for gross proceeds of $342,000 which was completed on December 12, 2014.

Cash outflow on account of operations was $21,289 for the six months ended February 28, 2015. During the six months ended February 28, 2015, the Corporation incurred $164,286 of costs on exploration and development activities related to the Fremont Property. See Section 3.1.3 – Results of Operations– Operating Income and Expenses – Property Exploration and Acquisition Costs for additional details for spending on the Fremont Property and Section 4 – Liquidity & Capital Resources for information on the Corporation's cash flows.

As of February 28, 2015, the Corporation maintained cash and cash equivalents of $13,038 and had a working capital deficiency of $16,751. Please see the third paragraph of Note 1 to the Interim Financial Statements which describes the use of accounting principles applicable to a going concern and management's election to continue using such principles given the Corporation's working capital deficiency.

1.2 Fremont Property

On September 17, 2014, the Corporation announced the results from the property-wide surface geological mapping program conducted at the Fremont Property that was originally commenced on July 8, 2014. The surface geological mapping program included 55 line-kilometres of geological traverses and was successful in identifying five large and new exploration areas on the Fremont Property, being Golden Chain, Vermont Slab, Golden Slope, Ogle Canyon and Race Track Meadow and also provided critical structural information for a previously known mineralized zone known as Chicken Gulch that had previously been subject to limited exploration RC drilling in the 1980s. The surface geological mapping program was followed up with a surface sampling program focused on the five new exploration zones. The results of the surface sampling program were announced on December 4, 2014 and were considered very positive by management. These results are expected to assist the Corporation in fine tuning targets for the Corporation's next phase of exploration drilling.

Over the next 12 months, the Corporation intends to progress the Fremont project by conducting the Phase III drill program, which is expected to achieve the following three main objectives through 20,000 to 25,000 feet of diamond drilling – (1) test the down-dip extension of the main mineralized structure at the Pine Tree-Josephine deposit with deep holes, (2) test the tenor of mineralization at the 5 newly discovered mineralized zones on surface with shallow holes, and (3) convert a significant portion of the historic (non-43-101 compliant) Goldenbell resource estimate into a NI 43-101 compliant resource estimate. The commencement of the Phase III drill program is subject to the Corporation raising the requisite funds.

1.3 Dingman Property

The Corporation acquired its interest in the Dingman Property from Opawica Explorations Inc. ("Opawica") on January 29, 2010 pursuant to an option agreement dated July 31, 2009 between the Corporation and Opawica that transferred all of Opawica's interest in the Dingman Property to the Corporation, subject to an existing net smelter royalty. Concurrently with its acquisition of the Dingman Property, the Corporation also completed a financing and undertook other restructuring activities (the "Restructuring") to focus the Corporation on the future development of the Dingman Property. The "Dingman Property", as used herein, refers to eight mining claims and related surface rights agreements in Hastings County near Madoc, Ontario. No material work was completed on the Dingman Property during the six months ended February 28, 2015.

1.4 Other Developments

On September 2, 2014, the Corporation's common shares commenced trading on the OTCQX marketplace in the U.S., under the ticker CFGMF. Also on this date, David Birkenshaw resigned as a director of the Corporation.

On November 12, 2014, the Corporation announced the appointment of Vishal Gupta as its President and Chief Executive Officer.

On December 20, 2013, the Corporation was served with notice that Martin Shefsky (its former CEO) and his holding company ("Holdco"), through which Shefsky had provided his services, had brought an application against the Corporation in the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta, alleging, among other things, (a) the failure of the Corporation to constitute its board of directors with a majority of nominees of Shefsky at its April 4, 2013 meeting of shareholders, (b) misrepresentations made in the context of negotiating Holdco's services agreement, (c) breach of Holdco's services agreement, and (d) certain improper actions by the board of directors in connection with the private placement of units completed in September 2013. The private placement is described further in Note 5(b)(i) of the Interim Financial Statements. Shefsky's claim was heard before the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta on April 2 and 3, 2014. On November 28, 2014, the Court dismissed Shefsky's claim. The Corporation has since received notice that Mr. Shefsky intends to appeal the Court's dismissal of his claim.

On January 21, 2015, the Corporation's shareholders elected Kevin Cinq-Mars, Patrick Cronin, Vishal Gupta, Ron LeClair and Alan Stephens as directors of the Corporation at the Corporation's annual and special meeting of shareholders. Prior to the meeting, Michael Churchill resigned as a director of the Corporation and withdrew his name from the nomination of directors at the meeting. On February 6, 2015, the Corporation entered into a settlement agreement with Mr. Churchill concerning the termination of his consulting services agreement with the Corporation. The settlement agreement provided for, inter alia, a payment of $186,667 to Mr. Churchill's holding company to be satisfied through the issuance of 2,666,667 common shares of the Corporation at a deemed price of $0.07 per share. The foregoing shares were issued on February 23, 2015 and are subject to a hold period that expires on June 24, 2015.

The Corporation's management team continues exploring all possible avenues in an effort to raise the requisite capital to fund the proposed Phase III drill program at the Fremont Property.

2. OVERVIEW OF FINANCIAL RESULTS

3. RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

3.1 Operating Income and Expenses

3.1.1 Income

The Corporation has no revenue from active operations. The Corporation's other income for the six months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the six months ended February 28, 2014 increased from $2,553 to $2,961. Other income of the Corporation for the three months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the three months ended February 28, 2014 increased from $1,305 to $1,444. The Corporation's main source of other income was rental income from its Fremont Property. The Corporation also realized a small gain on disposal of certain equipment during the six month period ended February 28, 2105.

3.1.2 Expenses

Expenses of the Corporation for the six months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the six months ended February 28, 2014 decreased from $1,278,818 to $281,682. The Corporation's expenses for the six months ended February 28, 2014 resulted largely from increased costs for almost all areas of the business over the same period in the prior year as a result of its acquisition of the Fremont Property, although the net amount was lower because acquisition costs were eliminated, share-based compensation was reduced by 97% and the Corporation recorded a gain of $290,680 on account foreign exchange gains. The Corporation's expenses for the six months ended February 28, 2015 were primarily driven by management termination expenses, other management fees, exploration costs at the Fremont Property and share based compensation costs. Overall, expenses were reduced largely because of foreign exchange gains and reduced spending on exploration and development, professional fees and travel. These reductions were somewhat offset by increases to share based compensation, management termination fees, investor relations costs, shareholder information fees.

Expenses of the Corporation for the three months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the three months ended February 28, 2014 decreased from $713,860 to $19,569. Similar to the six month period, most of the Corporation's expenses for the three month period decreased over the prior year period as a result of foreign exchange gains, and reduced spending on exploration and development, and professional fees.

3.1.3 Property Exploration and Acquisition Costs

As of January 29, 2010, the Corporation entered the mineral exploration business and has not received any material revenues. Funding of the Corporation's exploration activities has been provided by equity offerings of the Corporation's securities. The recoverability of amounts paid by the Corporation for resource properties will be dependent upon the discovery of economically recoverable reserves and confirmation of the Corporation's interest in the underlying resource properties, as well as the ability of the Corporation to obtain the necessary financing to complete exploration and development of the properties, and upon future profitable production or proceeds from the disposition thereof.

As of February 28, 2015, the Corporation had incurred $7,871,180 of acquisition, improvement, exploration and development costs on the Fremont Property and $3,436,085 of acquisition, exploration and development costs for the Dingman Property for a total of $11,307,265. The Corporation has expensed all acquisition costs with the exception of US$4,810,000 of acquisition costs for the Fremont Property that were capitalized. The Corporation has capitalized all improvement costs.

Costs incurred by the Corporation on each of the Fremont Property and the Dingman Property over the six months ended February 28, 2015 and 2014 are set out below:

	Fremont	Dingman	Total Mineral Interests

(1) The figure reported for the Fremont Property is net of a refund on deposits given to the Corporation subsequent to August 31, 2011.

Exploration costs expensed include costs incurred in the exploration of the Fremont Property and the Dingman Property. Exploration costs expensed for the six months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the six months ended February 28, 2014 decreased from $727,034 to $166,086. For the three months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the three months ended February 28, 2014, these costs decreased from $511,302 to $61,181. Development costs include costs incurred in pursuit of advancing the development of the Fremont Property that are not considered in furtherance of defining a mineral resource estimate, including, but not limited to environmental studies, permitting and community relations. During the six months ended February 28, 2015, the Corporation did not incur any development costs.

With respect to the Dingman Property, costs incurred during the six months ended February 28, 2015 and 2014 were on account of sample and drill core storage costs.

With respect to the Fremont Property, exploration costs incurred during the six months ended February 28, 2015 were on account of internal studies, metallurgical test work and the comprehensive surface sampling program. Exploration costs incurred during the three months ended February 28, 2014 were largely on account of internal studies and metallurgical test work. Exploration costs incurred during the six months ended February 28, 2014 were on account of analyzing the results of the Phase 1 drill program that included 6,487 feet of HQ drilling over 14 holes as well as conducting the Phase 2 metallurgical drill program. Exploration costs incurred during the three months ended February 28, 2014 were largely on account of conducting the Phase 2 metallurgical drill program.

3.1.4 General and Administrative and Other Expenses

General and administrative and other expenses incurred during the three and six months ended February 28, 2015 and 2014 consist of the following:

	Three months ended February 28		Six months ended February 28
	2015	2014	2015	2014
Management fees	$ 232,417	$ 90,677	$ 340,521	$ 276,872

Interest and bank charges	848	744	1,754	1,344
Development costs	–	38,603	–	88,156
Other general & administrative	11,127	45,086	19,832	84,522
Loss (gain) on foreign exchange	(490,839)	(231,404)	(754,637)	(290,680)
Total Expenses	$ (19,569)	$ 713,860	$ (281,682)	$ 1,278, 818

Management fees for the six months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the six months ended February 28, 2014 increased from $276,872 to $340,521. Management fees incurred during the six months ended February 28, 2014 included a one-time severance payment to the former Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation of $90,000, while during the period ended February 28, 2015, a one-time termination expense of $186,667, paid through the issuance of 2,666,672 common shares of the Corporation, was made to the former President and former director of the Corporation.. Not including these non-recurring termination expenses, recurring management fees for the six month periods were $153,854 (2015) and $186,872 (2014). Management fees for the three months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the three months ended February 28, 2014 increased from $90,677 to $232,417. However, by excluding non-recurring termination expenses, the recurring management fees for the three month periods decreased from $90,677 (2014) to $45,750 (2015).

Share-based compensation of the Corporation for the three months ended February 28, 2015 decreased from $13,419 to $13,288, and increased for the six month period from $28.878 to $156,024. The expenses incurred during the three and six months ended February 28, 2014 as well as the three months ended February 28, 2015 reflect the cost of options granted during prior periods but that vested during the period. The expenses incurred during the six months ended February 28, 2015 largely relate to stock options granted near the start of the period. Note 6 to the Interim Financial Statements describes the assumptions used in calculating the fair value of the options granted and/or vested.

Professional fees for the six months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the six months ended February 28, 2014 decreased from $205,442 to $86,326. Professional fees incurred during the six months ended February 28, 2014 were largely attributable to the Shefsky litigation. Approximately 55% of the professional fees incurred during the six months ended February 28, 2015 were on account of routine auditing accruals, accounting fees and tax services while 30% were incurred in connection with investment banking mandates. The balance of 15% of professional fees related to legal fees. Professional fees for the three months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the three months ended February 28, 2014 decreased from $157,953 to $63,856. The costs incurred over the three month period were attributable as to 44% to auditing accruals, accounting fees and tax services, 40% to investment banking mandates and 16% to legal fees.

Beginning with the interim period ended May 31, 2014, the Corporation removed and segregated non-management salaries and wages from other general and administrative expenses. Non-management salaries and wages for the six and three-month periods ended February 28, 2015 were $71,999 and $28,558 respectively. These amounts related primarily to the Corporation's employees based at its Fremont Property.

Investor relations expenses for the six months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the six months ended February 28, 2014 increased from $14,588 to $46,017. These expenses can vary greatly and for the six months ended February 28, 2015, they represent costs associated with investor meetings and presentations, advertising and promotion and attendance at investor conferences. For the six months ended February 28, 2014, the costs relate to expenses associated with attendance at conferences and investor relations consultants the cost of arranging investor visits to the Fremont Property. Investor relations expenses for the three months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the three months ended February 28, 2014 increased from $10,773 to $15,028. The sources of these expenses are the same as the sources for the expenses over the six month periods.

Shareholder information expenses for the six months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the six months ended February 28, 2014 increased from $25,537 to $42,980. This increase was attributable to additional costs associated with the Corporation's listing on the OTC-QX market. These costs amount to approximately 40% of shareholder information costs and are incurred in US Dollars. Shareholder information expenses also include costs of communications and public filings, regulatory or otherwise, with shareholders, costs associated with shareholder meetings, and transfer agent costs. Shareholder information expenses for the three months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the three months ended February 28, 2014 increased from $18,113 to $29,783.

Depreciation expenses for the six months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the six months ended February 28, 2014 increased from $17,588 to $31,008 due to additional depreciation associated with depreciable asset purchases and improvements to depreciable assets made since the earlier period. Depreciation expenses for the three months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the three months ended February 28, 2014 increased from $9,091 to $16,050 for similar reasons.

The Corporation incurred $15,501 and $30,400 in property taxes during the three and six months respectively ended February 28, 2015 compared to $13,583 and $26,913 in property taxes during the three and six month periods ended February 28, 2014. All property taxes pertain to the Fremont Property. As property taxes are paid in US Dollars, variations from prior periods are due primarily to fluctuations in exchange rates.

Insurance expenses of the Corporation for the six months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the six months ended February 28, 2014 increased from $14,908 to $19,085. Insurance expenses of the Corporation for the three months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the three months ended February 28, 2014 increased from $6,922 to $9,490. Costs increased in both periods due to increased costs of certain insurance held by the Corporation.

Occupancy expenses of the Corporation for the six months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the six months ended February 28, 2014 decreased from $15,549 to $14,575. Occupancy expenses of the Corporation for the three months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the three months ended February 28, 2014 increased from $7,826 to $6,825. Costs incurred during the periods ended February 28, 2015 were incurred pursuant to a space sharing agreement with an arm's length party, while costs incurred during the periods ended February 28, 2014 were incurred under a cost sharing arrangement that ended on July 30, 2014.

Travel and accommodation expenses of the Corporation for the six months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the six months ended February 28, 2014 decreased from $50,167 to $9,712. Travel expenses of the Corporation for the three months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the three months ended February 28, 2014 decreased from $21,172 to $6,456. These decreased costs were driven by lower activity levels at the Fremont Property.

Interest and bank charges for the six months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the six months ended February 28, 2014 increased from $1,344 to $1,754. Interest and bank charges for the three months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the three months ended February 28, 2014 increased from $744 to $848. These increases are associated with levels of banking activity.

Other general and administrative expenses of the Corporation for the six months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the six months ended February 28, 2014 decreased from $84,522 to $19,832. Other general and administrative expenses of the Corporation for the three months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the three months ended February 28, 2014 decreased from $45,086 to $11,127. However, expenses for the earlier periods include non-management wages and salaries, but for the later periods, these are excluded and presented separately as salaries and wages. Considering the costs in aggregate over the six month periods, an 8.6% increase was observed driven largely by changes in foreign exchange rates. Over the three month periods, the aggregate costs decreased by 12.0% as the Corporation ramped down activities at the Fremont Property in order to conserve cash. Otherwise, general and administrative expenses primarily include general office costs, telephone costs, government filing fees and disbursements charged by the Corporation's suppliers. Of the total other general and administrative expenses incurred during the six months ended February 28, 2015, material components included utilities at the Fremont Project (42%), government fees (24%) and telecommunications (16%). Approximately 54% of the Corporation's general and administrative expenses for the six months ended February 28, 2015 were incurred on account of operating the Fremont Property.

The Corporation's loss (gain) from foreign exchange improved from a gain of $290,680 for the six months ended February 28, 2014 to a gain of $754,637 for the six months ended February 28, 2015. The Corporation's loss (gain) from foreign exchange improved from a gain of $231,404 to a gain of $490,839 for the three months ended February 28, 2015. Current period gains were observed on account of continued depreciation of the Canadian Dollar, resulting in gains on carrying values of fixed assets located in the United States as well as gains observed on account of Canadian Dollar denominated loans from the Corporation to its US subsidiary and carrying value of cash on hand.

3.2 Net Loss

The net loss of the Corporation for the six months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the six months ended February 28, 2014 improved from a loss of $1,276,265 to a loss of $278,721. Reduced net losses during the six months ended February 28, 2015 stem from foreign exchange gains, reduced exploration spending and reduced professional fees which were offset by moderate increases in other expenses as well as non-recurring management termination expenses.

The net loss of the Corporation for the three months ended February 28, 2015 compared to the three months ended February 28, 2014 improved from a loss of $712,555 to a loss of $18,125. Net losses incurred, and the observed improvements, during these periods were generally incurred for the same reasons as during the six month period.

3.3 Other Comprehensive Loss

The Corporation has two US subsidiaries, California Gold Mines (US) Inc. and Fremont Gold Mining LLC. The functional currency of these subsidiaries is the US Dollar while the parent company, California Gold Mining Inc. has retained the Canadian Dollar as its functional currency. Other comprehensive loss is the result of the translation of the financial results of the Corporation's US subsidiaries into Canadian Dollars for consolidation purposes. The cumulative effect of these translations is accounted for as part of the Corporation's equity.

For the six months ended February 28, 2015, the Corporation's other comprehensive gain was $44,771 compared to other comprehensive gain of $49,621 for the six months ended February 28, 2014. For the three months ended February 28, 2015, the Corporation's other comprehensive gain was $32,286 compared to other comprehensive gain of $42,286 for the three months ended February 28, 2014.

4. LIQUIDITY & CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Corporation has not historically generated enough revenues to offset its expenses. The Corporation's ability to continue as a going concern depends on its ability to finance its cash requirements through the issuance of equity securities or other financing. For more information on risks and uncertainties facing the Corporation, see Section 11 – Risks and Uncertainties.

Cash and cash equivalents as at February 28, 2015 were $13,038 compared to $104,281 as at August 31, 2014. Factors that could impact on the Corporation's liquidity are monitored regularly and include the market price of the Corporation's trading securities for the purposes of raising financing, exploration expenditures, and operating costs.

As at February 28, 2015, the Corporation had a working capital deficiency of $16,751 as compared to a working capital deficiency of $43,842 as of August 31, 2014.

As of February 28, 2015, accounts receivable and accrued interest of $38,514 consisted primarily of HST receivable of $30,428 and accrued workers' compensation insurance reimbursements of $8,087.

As of February 28, 2015, accounts payable and accrued liabilities of $133,877 consisted of $33,646 in trade payables, $80,662 in accrued liabilities, $10,816 in accrued property taxes, $3,751 in employee incentives and $5,000 in unearned income.

4.1 Operating Cash Flow

The Corporation is considered to be in the exploration and development stage and as such, does not earn any significant revenue. The Corporation has not historically generated enough revenues to offset its expenses.

For the six months ended February 28, 2015, cash outflow expended on operations before changes in non-cash working capital items was $91,864 compared to an outflow of $1,237,799 for the six months ended February 28, 2014. Changes in non-cash working capital items for the six months ended February 28, 2015 were $70,575 compared to $80,009 for the six months ended February 28, 2014 resulting in net cash outflows from operations of $21,289 for the six months ended February 28, 2015 and outflows of $1,157,790 for the six months ended February 28, 2014.

4.2 Investing Activities

For the six months ended February 28, 2015, the Corporation had cash outflows of $5,333 associated with the purchase or improvement of fixed assets compared to $48,778 of cash outflows associated with the purchase or improvement of fixed assets for the six months ended February 28, 2014.

4.3 Financing Activities

For the six months ended February 28, 2015, the Corporation had cash inflows of $683,345 associated with financing activities net of financing costs. This cash inflow resulted from the issuance by the Corporation of 16,506,672 common shares for gross proceeds of $878,667 less $186,667 settled on account of debt payable and less costs of issuance of $8,655. Of these common shares, 13,840,000 were issued at a price of $0.05 per share and 2,666,672 were issued at a deemed price of $0.07 per share.

For the six months ended February 28, 2014, the Corporation had cash inflows of $864,817 associated with financing activities net of financing costs. This cash inflow resulted from the issuance by the Corporation of 17,542,066 units for gross proceeds of $887,616 less costs of issuance of $22,799. Of these units, 15,860,000 were issued at a price of $0.05 and 1,682,062 were issued at a price of $0.05625 per unit. Each unit was comprised of one common share and one common share purchase warrant with each warrant entitling the holder thereof to acquire a further common share of the Corporation at a price of $0.10 until September 10, 2017 (as to 17,542,066 units) and until October 2, 2107 (as to 1,682,062 units). At the times of these transactions, persons already considered to be “insiders” under applicable securities laws subscribed for a total of 3,500,000 units.

4.4 Commitments

Effective as of March 1, 2013 the Corporation and First Metals Inc. entered into an agreement for shared office space. During the three and six months ended February 28, 2014, the Corporation paid base rent of $7,826 and $15,549 respectively, plus a share of certain operating costs. This cost sharing agreement expired on July 30, 2014. The Corporation has since entered into a new month-to-month cost sharing agreement for office space with an unrelated third party.

4.5 Contingent Liabilities

On December 20, 2013, the Corporation was served with notice that Shefsky and the holding company ("Holdco") through which he had provided his services had brought an application against the Corporation in the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta, alleging, among other things, (a) the failure of the Corporation to constitute its board of directors with a majority of nominees of Shefsky at its April 4, 2013 meeting of shareholders, (b) misrepresentations made in the context of negotiating Holdco's services agreement, (c) breach of Holdco's services agreement, and (d) certain improper actions by the board of directors in connection with the private placement of units completed in September 2013. The private placement is described further in Note 5(b)(i) of the Financial Statements. A full hearing on the matter took place on April 2 and 3, 2014. On November 28, 2014 the Court ordered that Shefsky's and Holdco's application was dismissed. Mr. Shefsky has since given notice to the Corporation that he intends to appeal the dismissal of his application.

4.6 Sources of Financing

The Corporation's ability to continue as a going concern depends on its ability to finance its cash requirements through the issuance of equity securities or other financing. It is not possible to predict the Corporation's ability to fund its cash requirements in the short term (see Section 11 – Risks and Uncertainties).

5. OFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENTS

The Corporation currently has no off-balance sheet arrangements with any parties.

6. TRANSACTIONS WITH RELATED PARTIES

Transactions with related parties are summarized in Note 10 to the Interim Financial Statements. All such transactions are in the normal course of operations and are measured at the exchange amount which is the amount agreed to by the related parties.

7. CAPITALIZATION

Shareholder's equity was $6,075,831 as at February 28, 2015 compared to shareholder equity of $5,283,745 as at August 31, 2014.

7.1 Share Capital

The Corporation is authorized to issue an unlimited number of voting common shares, an unlimited number of non-voting first preferred shares and an unlimited number of non-voting second preferred shares. As of February 28, 2015, the Corporation had 170,389,292 common shares issued and outstanding, 89,542,066 warrants and 764,000 broker warrants outstanding. As of February 28, 2015, the Corporation had 11,992,342 stock options outstanding (of which 11,017,342 have vested), each entitling the holder to acquire one common share. The Corporation therefore had 272,687,700 common shares outstanding on a fully diluted basis as of February 28, 2015. As of the Report Date the Corporation has 11,992,342 stock options outstanding of which 11,367,342 have vested.

As at the Report Date, the Corporation has 170,389,292 common shares issued and outstanding of which 9,506,672 are restricted from trading until April 13, 2015 as to 6,840,000 and until June 24, 2015 as to 2,666,672. Please refer to Note 5 of the Interim Financial Statements for further information on the Corporation's share capital.

Please refer to the second paragraph of Section 1.1 – Overview – Financial Condition, Performance and Cash Flows for additional information concerning the private placements conducted during the six months ended February 28, 2015.

7.2 Warrants

As of February 28, 2015 and August 31, 2014, the Corporation had 89,542,066 warrants outstanding.

	Number	Weighted Average Exercise Price

The basis of valuation of the warrants issued during the six months ended February 28, 2014 is set out in Notes 5(b)(i) and (ii) of the Interim Financial Statements.

The basis of valuation of the stock options vested during the six months ended February 28, 2014 is set out in Note 6(i) of the Interim Financial Statements.

The basis of valuation of the stock options granted and/or vested during the six months ended February 28, 2015 is set out in Notes 6(iii) and (iv) of the Interim Financial Statements.

8. BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

As of January 21, 2015, the directors of the Corporation are Kevin Cinq-Mars, Patrick Cronin, Vishal Gupta, Ron LeClair and Alan Stephens (the "Board of Directors"). Effective as of January 21, 2015, Michael Churchill resigned as a director and withdrew his nomination for re-election from the meeting of shareholders held on January 21, 2015.

Mr. Gupta was appointed as President and CEO on November 12, 2015, replacing Mr. Chad Williams who was the Corporation's Interim President and CEO since May 12, 2014. Mr. Williams had served as such following Mr. Patrick Cronin serving as Interim President and CEO since April 7, 2014 and as Interim CEO since October 7, 2013. Mr. Michael Churchill served as President from February 8, 2013 through April 7, 2014 and Mr. Martin Shefsky served as CEO from February 8, 2013 through October 7, 2013.

9. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ESTIMATES AND CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES INCLUDING INITIAL ADOPTION

The Corporation's critical accounting policies and changes in accounting policies including initial adoption are set out in Note 2 to the Interim Financial Statements.

10. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS

10.1 Credit Risk Management

The Corporation's credit risk is primarily attributable to cash and cash equivalents and amounts receivable. The Corporation has no significant concentration of credit risk arising from operations. Cash is held with select major Canadian and US banks and cash equivalents consists of bankers' acceptances which have been invested with reputable financial institutions and government of Canada treasury bills, from which management believes the risk of loss to be remote. Management believes that the credit risk concentration with respect to financial instruments amounts receivable is remote. As at February 28, 2015, no amounts receivable are considered impaired or past due.

10.2 Liquidity Risk

Please see the third paragraph of Note 1 to the Interim Financial Statements regarding enhanced liquidity risk to which the Corporation is currently subject.

As of February 28, 2015, the Corporation had a cash and cash equivalents balance of $13,038 (August 31, 2014 - $104,281) to settle current amounts payable and other liabilities of $133,877 (August 31, 2014 - $217,957). All of the Corporation's financial liabilities have contractual maturities of less than 30 days and are subject to normal trade terms.

10.3 Market Risk

10.3.1 Interest Rate Risk

The Corporation has cash balances and no interest bearing debt. The Corporation's current policy is to invest excess cash in investment grade short-term deposit certificates issued by its banking institutions and fixed income instruments issued by the government of Canada. The Corporation monitors the investments it makes and is satisfied with the credit ratings of its banks.

10.3.2 Price Risk

The Corporation is exposed to price risk with respect to commodity and equity prices. Commodity price risk is defined as the potential adverse impact on earnings and economic value due to commodity price movements and volatilities. Equity price risk is defined as the potential adverse impact on the Corporation's earnings due to movements in individual equity prices or general movements in the level of the stock market. The Corporation closely monitors commodity prices, individual equity movements and the stock market to determine the appropriate course of action to be taken by the Corporation.

10.3.3 Foreign Currency Risk

The Canadian Dollar is the functional currency of California Gold Mining Inc. and Washmax (Weston) Ltd. The functional currency of California Gold Mines (US) Inc. and Fremont Gold Mining LLC is the US Dollar. The Corporation funds certain operations, exploration and administrative expenses in the United States using US Dollar currency converted from its Canadian Dollar bank accounts held in Canada. The Corporation also maintains US Dollar bank accounts in Canada and Canadian Dollar bank accounts in the United States. As a result, the Corporation is subject to gains and losses due to fluctuations in the exchange rate between US Dollar and Canadian Dollar.

10.3.4 Sensitivity Analysis

The sensitivity analysis shown in the notes below may differ materially from actual results. Based on management's knowledge and experience of the financial markets, the Corporation believes the following movements are "reasonably possible" over a twelve month period:

(i) The Corporation has no interest bearing debts and receives low interest rates on its cash and cash equivalents balances. As such, the Corporation does not have significant interest rate risk.

(ii) The Corporation holds balances in foreign currencies which could give rise to exposure to foreign exchange risk. Sensitivity to a plus or minus 10% change in the foreign exchange rate against the functional currencies would have affected the reported loss and comprehensive loss by approximately $26,501.

10.3.5 Fair Value of Financial Assets and Liabilities

The book values of the cash and cash equivalents, amounts receivable, and amounts payable and other liabilities approximate their respective fair values due to the short-term nature of these instruments.

11. RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The Corporation's principal activity is mineral exploration and development. Companies in this industry are subject to many and varied kinds of risks, including but not limited to, environmental, decisions and policies of governmental authorities, metal prices, political and general economic conditions. Although the Corporation has taken steps to verify the title to its mineral interests, in accordance with industry standards for the current stage of exploration of such properties, these procedures do not guarantee the Corporation's title. Title may be subject to unregistered prior agreements or transfers and title may be affected by undetected defects. The Corporation is dependent on the cooperation of surface rights holders to provide timely access to the Dingman Property. The Corporation has had ongoing disputes with the surface rights owners of the Dingman Property and cooperation of the surface rights owners in facilitating access to the Dingman Property for the Corporation cannot be assured. The Corporation has no significant source of operating cash flow and no revenues from operations. The PEA on the Dingman Property indicated that at a base gold price of US$1,500/oz or less, the Dingman Project was not expected to be economically feasible. The Fremont Property has no mineral resources and neither the Fremont Property nor the Dingman Property has any mineral reserves (both as defined by NI 43-101). The Corporation has limited financial resources. Substantial expenditures are required to be made by the Corporation to establish ore reserves. The Fremont Property and Dingman Property interests owned by the Corporation are in the exploration stage only, are without known bodies of commercial mineralization and have no ongoing mining operations. Mineral exploration involves a high degree of risk and few properties, which are explored, are ultimately developed into producing mines. Exploration of the Corporation's properties may not result in any discoveries of commercial bodies of mineralization. If the Corporation's efforts do not result in any discovery of commercial mineralization, the Corporation will be forced to look for other exploration projects or cease operations. The Corporation is subject to the laws and regulations relating to environmental matters in all jurisdictions in which it operates, including provisions relating to permitting, property reclamation, discharge of hazardous material and other matters. These laws and regulations may change at any time prior to the granting of necessary approvals. The support of local politicians and/or communities may be required to obtain necessary permits and approvals and such support cannot be assured. The Corporation may also be held liable should environmental problems be discovered that were caused by former owners and operators of its properties and properties in which it has previously had an interest. The Corporation conducts its mineral exploration activities in compliance with applicable environmental protection legislation. The Corporation is not aware of any existing environmental problems related to any of its current properties that may result in material liability to the Corporation. Since acquiring the Fremont Property, the Corporation continues to be exposed to risks similar to those when developing the Dingman Property. However, the Fremont Property is located in California, United States, which has different, and in many cases more stringent, environmental and permitting requirements than Ontario, Canada. The Corporation's ability to complete exploration work within planned budgets and using financial resources on hand will be affected by movements in the Canadian Dollar-US Dollar exchange rate. While the Corporation expects to incorporate aspects of the historic work (including resource estimates, engineering and metallurgical studies, environmental studies, etc.) done in the late 1980's and early 1990's, there is no guarantee that this historic work will be validated or will remain valid under today's current regulatory requirements or that the project will be permitted in a timely and economically viable period of time. Martin Shefsky has given notice that he intends to appeal the court order dismissing the litigation commenced by him against the Corporation.

12. CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

These statements are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from those implied by the forward-looking statements. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date the statements were made, and readers are advised to consider such forward-looking statements in light of the risks as set forth herein.

This Management's Discussion and Analysis contains "forward-looking statements, within the meaning of applicable Canadian Securities legislation", that involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Forward looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements with respect to the future price of gold, the estimation of mineral reserves and resources, the realization of mineral estimates, the timing and amount of estimated future production, costs of production, capital expenditures, costs and timing of the development of new deposits, success of exploration activities, permitting time lines, currency exchange rate fluctuations, requirements for additional capital, government regulation of mining operations, environmental risks, unanticipated reclamation expenses, title disputes or claims, limitations on insurance coverage and timing and possible outcome of pending litigation. Often, but not always, forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of words such as "plans", "expects", or "does not expect", "is expected", "budget", "scheduled", "estimates", "forecasts", "intends", "anticipates", or "does not anticipate", or "believes", or variations of such words and phrases or state that certain actions, events or results "may", "could", "would", or "might" be taken, occur or be achieved. Forward-looking statements are based on the opinions and estimates of management as of the date such statements are made, and they involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, level of activity, performance or achievements of the Corporation to be materially different from any other future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. Such factors include, among others: risks relating to the integration of acquisitions, the actual results of current exploration activities; conclusions of economic evaluations; changes in project parameters as plans continue to be refined; failure of equipment or processes to operate as anticipated; accidents, labour disputes, disputes concerning property access rights, and other risks of the mining industry; delays in or inability to obtain governmental approvals or financing; and fluctuations in metal prices and foreign exchange rates. Although the Corporation has attempted to identify important factors that could cause actual actions, events or results to differ materially from those described in forward-looking statements, there may be other factors that cause actions, events or results not to be anticipated, estimated or intended. There can be no assurance that forward-looking statements will prove to be accurate, as actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. The Corporation undertakes no obligation to update forward-looking statements if circumstances or management's estimates or opinions should change. Accordingly, readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward looking statements.
