NOTE 1 — ORGANIZATION AND MANAGEMENT’S PLANS

Organization

SC Holdings Corporation (“SC Holdings” or the “Company”) was incorporated in the state of Nevada on July 15, 2002, under the name, Meadows Springs, Inc. Effective November 14, 2005; the domicile of the issuer was moved to Delaware by means of a merger. Effective April 15, 2009, the issuer changed its name to Evolution Fuels, Inc. Effective October 16, 2012 the domicile of the issuer was moved to Colorado by means of a merger. The name was changed to SC Holdings Corporation on June 20, 2014.

On September 28, 2012 the Company entered into a share exchange agreement with Gemberry Investment Holding Group, LTD (“Gemberry”), whereby the Company issued 5,000,000,000 shares of its common stock to Gemberry in exchange for 100% of the issued and outstanding membership units of SC Holdings, LLC, a Texas limited liability corporation. Consequently, the Company changed officers and its business focus, and there was a change of control of the Company. Effective October 16, 2012 the domicile of the issuer was moved to Colorado by means of a merger.

NOTE 2 — SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements and related notes have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles that are generally accepted in the United States of America (“US GAAP”). The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company at June 30, 2015.

Development Stage Company

The Company is a development stage company as defined by the FASB Accounting Standards Code (“ASC”) 915-10 “Development Stage Entities”. The Company is now devoting substantially all of its efforts on establishing the manufacturing process, business and operations for its planned products.

Principles of Consolidation

SC Holdings’ consolidated financial statements include the accounts of SC Holdings and its wholly and majority owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Stock-Based Compensation

The Company accounts for stock-based compensation to employees and consultants in accordance with FASB ASC 718. Stock-based compensation to employees is measured at the grant date, based on the fair value of the award, and is recognized as expense over the requisite employee service period. The Company accounts for stock-based compensation to other than employees in accordance with FASB ASC 505-50. Equity instruments issued to other than employees are valued at the earlier of a commitment date or upon completion of the services, based on the fair value of the equity instruments and is recognized as expense over the service period.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements as well as the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Fiscal year end

The Company elected December 31 as its fiscal year ending date.

Income taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes pursuant to the asset and liability method under SFAS No. 109,

Accounting for Income Taxes, which requires deferred income tax assets and liabilities to be computed annually for temporary differences between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities that will result in taxable or deductible amounts in the future based on enacted laws and rates applicable to the periods in which the temporary differences are expected to affect taxable income. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amounts expected to be realized.

Basic and Diluted Net Loss per Share

Basic and diluted net loss per share calculations are calculated on the basis of the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the year. Diluted loss per share calculations includes the dilutive effect of common stock. Basic and diluted net loss per share is the same due to the absence of common stock equivalents.

NOTE 3 — RELATED PARTY ADVANCES

During the six months period ended June 30, 2015 a related party advanced the Company $17,900. The advance is non-interest bearing and is due on demand

NOTE 4— Equity

On January 9, 2015 the Company issued 9,377,300 shares of common stock for service with a value of $1,125,276. The value is for a one year consulting contract and is being amortized over one year.
