We are providing this letter in connection with your audits of the balance sheets of Redux Holdings, Inc., (the "Company") as of December 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013, and the related statements of operations, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for each of the two years in the periods ended December 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013 for the purpose of expressing an opinion as to whether the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position, results of operations, stockholders' equity and cash flows of Redux Holdings, Inc. in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. We confirm that we are responsible for the fair presentation in the financial statements of financial position, results of operations, and cash flows in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. We are also responsible for adopting sound accounting policies, establishing and maintaining internal control, and preventing and detecting fraud.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that they would be viewed by a reasonable investor as having significantly altered the "total mix" of information made available. An item that is monetarily small in amount could be considered material as a result of qualitative factors.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, as of November 6, 2015, the following representations made to you during your audit.

1) The financial statements referred to above are fairly presented in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, and include all disclosures necessary for such fair presentation and disclosures required to be included therein by the laws and regulations to which the Company is subject.
2) We have made available to you all—
   a) Financial records and related data, including the names of all related parties and all relationships and transactions with related parties.
3) There have been no communications from the SEC or other regulatory agencies concerning noncompliance with, or deficiencies in, financial reporting practices.
4) There are no material transactions recorded in the accounting records underlying the financial statements.
5) We believe that there are no financial statement misstatements.
6) We acknowledge our responsibility for the design and implementation of programs and controls to prevent and detect fraud.
7) We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud affecting the Company involving:
   a) Management,
   b) Employees who have significant roles in internal control, over financial reporting, or
   c) Others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.
8) We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the Company's financial statements received in communications from employees, former employees, analysts, regulators, or others.

9) The Company has no plans or intentions that may materially affect the carrying value or classification of assets and liabilities.

10) The following items do not apply to the financial statements:

    a) Related-party relationships or transactions, including sales, purchases, loans, transfers, leasing arrangements, guarantees, and amounts receivable from or payable to related parties.

    b) Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the company is contingently liable.

    c) Significant estimates and material concentrations known to management that are required to be disclosed in accordance with FASB Accounting Standards Codification 275, Risks and Uncertainties

11) There are no:

    a) Violations or possible violations of laws or regulations whose effect should be considered for disclosure in the financial statements or as a basis for recording a loss contingency.

    b) We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, or assessments or unasserted claims or assessments that are required to be accrued or disclosed in the financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP, and we have not consulted a lawyer concerning litigation, claims, or assessments.

    c) Other liabilities or gain or loss contingencies that are required to be accrued or disclosed by FASB Accounting Standards Codification 450, Contingencies.

    d) Side agreements or other arrangements (either written or oral) that have not been disclosed to you.

12) The Company has satisfactory title to all owned assets, and there are no liens or encumbrances on such assets nor has any asset been pledged as collateral.

13) The Company has complied with all aspects of contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance.

14) The Company has appropriately reconciled its general ledger accounts to their related supporting information. All related reconciling items considered to be material were identified and included on the reconciliations and were appropriately adjusted in the financial statements. All intracompany (and intercompany) accounts have been eliminated or appropriately measured and considered for disclosure in the financial statements.

    The Company does not owe the PCAOB outstanding past-due accounting support fees.

No events have occurred subsequent to the balance sheet date and through the date of this letter that would require adjustment to, or disclosure in, the financial statements.
