Gooi Global, Inc.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(UNAUDITED)

1. ORGANIZATION

Gooi Global, Inc.(the "Company") was incorporated on August 28, 1986 pursuant to the laws of the State of Delaware. From 1986 until June 2005, the Company was a steel and ore smelting industry based in Warren Ohio, in active operation and in receivership. From 1993 until 2005 the Company was in receivership. It emerged out of bankruptcy in 2005 and retained its status with the state of Delaware as an active company. The Company restated its certificate of incorporation and changed its name to Ridgecrest Healthcare Group, Inc. on October 17, 2005. In October and November 2005, the Company acquired assets and stock from Healthcare Enterprises Group, PLC, a company based in the United Kingdom. One of those assets was Medical Development Specialists, a healthcare consulting company that had annual revenues of approximately $3,000,000 per year. Other assets included holdings in other public and private healthcare related companies in the US and UK.

During 2009 the Company decided to shift its focus from healthcare and related investing to technology development and management consulting. On September 24, 2009, the Company restated its certificate of incorporation with the State of Delaware and changed its name to Liberty Technologies, Inc. During 2009, the remainder of the healthcare assets were either sold off or exchanged for shares, with the Company retaining only a small portion of these assets so that it could focus on its new business. The Company entered the development stage (for accounting purposes) in January of 2009.

The Company merged with Capalyst, Inc., restated its certificate of incorporation and changed its name to DomiKnow, Inc. on December 18, 2012. As a result of the merger, the Company modified its business model from consulting to providing internet marketing and advertising services for small businesses. The Company exited the development stage (for accounting purposes) on January of 2012.

On August 30, 2014, the Company ceased its internet marketing and advertising services business operations due to insufficient working capital, current liabilities, and lack of prospects for additional funding. Accordingly, during and subsequent to the reporting period ended September 30, 2014, the Company has undertaken a number of strategic management and operational changes, including but not limited to adopting a new business model in which the Company will begin operating as a public Venture Capital entity.

On April 1. 2015 the company changed its name to Gooi Global, Inc. and is now trading under the symbol "GOOI".

On April 20, 2015, the company announced the formation of Gooi Mortgage, Inc. as an operating subsidiary in which Gooi Global, Inc. holds 88% of the equity. Gooi Mortgage, Inc. intends to provide mortgage fulfillment services to small and medium sized lenders.

On May 19, 2015, the company announced the formation of the wholly owned subsidiary, Bell Metrix (Previously Reported as Gooi Data, Inc.), Inc. which is a predictive analytics venture focused on marketing optimization results. The company has since been funding activities surrounding this venture.

2. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a "going concern" basis in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). The "going concern" basis of presentation assumes that the Company will continue its operations for the foreseeable future and will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. As of September 30, 2015, the Company has Shareholder's equity of $5,523,307. This includes $ 9,012,570 related to financing on the company's Series A Preferred Stock as described in section 3 below. This asset is a performance based asset and the company is in the process of terminating this performance based share issuance. Consequently, the adjusted Shareholder's equity would be (3,489,263) if the termination of the Preferred Series A shares been concluded to date. Management does expect these shares to be terminated and returned to Treasury within the 4th Quarter of 2015 and the corresponding adjustment to the company's accounts will be made at that time.

These financial statements do not include any adjustments that would be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Cash and cash equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid instruments with a maturity of three months or less at the time of issuance to be cash equivalents. Traditionally, the Company has considered its restricted cash as a cash equivalent. This restricted cash represents a private placement of 295,200 convertible Preferred Series A shares for $9,010,570 to nine qualified investors (the "Preferred Stock Investors"), pursuant to which the Preferred Stock Investors purchased a private placement of Units consisting of Preferred Shares (convertible into Common Shares) and Warrants to purchase Common Shares. The total Unit purchase was $9,012,570 (10,013.97 per Unit) and $9,012,570 is currently reflected in equity section of the Company's Balance Sheet as restricted cash. When converted into Common Shares the transaction equated to an average Common Share price of $0.3060 per share. Under the terms of the Unit Subscription Agreement (USA), the Preferred Stock Investor's cash and the Securities purchased (in certificate form) have been deposited in a restricted account with an Intermediary whereby an Account Management Agreement (AMA) between the Investors, the Company and the Intermediary governs the release of funds to the Company from the restricted account. As of September 30, 2015 the Company had $9,321,125 in cash and cash equivalents when the restricted cash is included. Although, pursuant to the private placement agreement, the Preferred Stock Investors may not request a return of capital without the agreement of the Company and the Company may not request to unwind or alter the transaction without agreement of the Investor, the Company now believes that this restricted cash is not a cash equivalent.

Therefore, as of September 30, 2015 the company has cash available of $308,555

If the restricted cash is included, as per previous financial statements, the Company would have had $ 9,321,125 cash on hand compared to $ $9,010,570 for the period ending September 30, 2014.

The company expects to unwind this transaction during the period ending December 31, 2015.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized when services and goods are contracted for, the service is provided or the title to the goods passes hands and collectability is reasonably assured.

Intangible assets and impairment

U.S. generally accepted accounting principles require that long-lived assets and intangibles to be held and used by the Company, be reviewed for possible impairment, whenever events or changes in circumstances indicated that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. If changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset that an entity expects to hold and use may not be recoverable, future cash flows expected to result from the use of the asset and its disposition must be estimated. If the undiscounted value of the future cash flows is less than the carrying amount of the asset, impairment is recognized. All intangible assets were effectively impaired to $0.00 in prior periods.

Fair Value Measurements

The Company follows FASB ASC 820, "Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures," for all financial instruments and non-financial instruments accounted for at fair value on a recurring basis. This accounting standard established a single definition of fair value and a framework for measuring fair value, sets out a fair value hierarchy to be used to classify the source of information used in fair value measurement and expands disclosures about fair value measurements required under other accounting pronouncements. It does not change existing guidance as to whether or not an instrument is carried at fair value. The Company defines fair value as the price that would be received from selling an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. When determining the fair value measurements for assets and liabilities, which are required to be recorded at fair value, the Company considers the principal or most advantageous market in which the Company would transact and the market-based risk measurements or assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, such as inherent risk, transfer restrictions and credit risk. The Company has adopted FASB ASC 825, "Financial Instruments", which allows companies to choose to measure eligible financial instruments and certain other items at fair value that are not required to be measured at fair value. The Company has not elected the fair value option for any eligible financial instruments.

As required by ASC 820, assets and liabilities are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

Amounts due to shareholders, directors, and officers in related parties is reflected in the balance sheets at carrying value, which approximates fair value due to its short-term nature.

Amounts invested in subsidiaries in return for securities are valued at their face value or their estimated exit value depending on the seniority of claims against company assets, either of which, when properly applied, is equivalent to fair value.

Foreign Currency Translation

The Company's functional currency is US Dollars. Foreign currency balances are translated into US dollars as follows:

Monetary assets and liabilities are translated at the period-end exchange rate. Non-monetary assets are translated at the rate of exchange in effect at their acquisition, unless such assets are carried at market or nominal value, in which case they are translated at the period-end exchange rate. Revenue and expense items are translated at the average exchange rate for the period. Foreign exchange gains and losses in the period are included in operations.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Basic and Diluted Net Income (Loss) Per Share

The Company computes net loss per share in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 260, "Earnings per Share". This topic requires presentation of both basic and diluted earnings per share ("EPS") on the face of the income statement. Basic loss per share is computed by dividing net loss available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the year. Diluted EPS gives effect to all dilutive potential common shares outstanding during the year including stock options, using the treasury stock method, and convertible preferred stock, using the if-converted method. In computing diluted EPS, the average stock price for the year is used in determining the number of shares assumed to be purchased from the exercise of stock options or warrants. Diluted EPS excludes all dilutive potential common shares if their effect is anti-dilutive.

Income taxes

The Company follows FASB ASC Topic 820, "Income Taxes" which requires the use of the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for future tax consequences attributable to temporary differences between the financial statements carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and loss carry forwards and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the year in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled.

Segment Reporting:

The company follows FASB Topic 280 relating to segment reporting. The guidance in this Subtopic requires that general-purpose financial statements include selected information reported on a single basis of segmentation. The method for determining what information to report is referred to as the management approach. The management approach is based on the way that management organizes the segments within the public entity for making operating decisions and assessing performance. Consequently, the segments are evident from the structure of the public entity's internal organization, and financial statement preparers should be able to provide the required information in a cost-effective and timely manner.

Recent accounting pronouncements

The Company adopts new pronouncements relating to generally accepted accounting principles applicable to the Company as they are issued, which may be in advance of their effective date. Management does not believe that any recently issued, but not yet effective, accounting standards if currently adopted would have a material effect on the accompanying financial statements.

4. UNDISCLOSED LIABILITIES

As a consequence of a change in management, the company recognized approximately $480,000 in previously undisclosed liabilities during the 3rd and 4th quarters of 2014. These included $158,000 due the IRS for Form 941 taxes and a number of other liabilities, mainly long term notes payable or leases that had matured. In addition, the company renegotiated approximately $535,000 in other liabilities that had matured into longer term obligations. It is anticipated that audits of the company's financial statements, recently initiated, for the periods of 2014 and 2015 will include a detailed list of those liabilities and their disposition.

Moreover, the $480,000 in undisclosed liabilities reflect a reduction in the total liabilities negotiated with creditors. During the first quarter, the company reached a settlement with Catwalk Capital, LLC, an advisor to the company in a previous transaction, to settle $491,880.31,in liabilities, of which $411,880.31 was previously undisclosed, in exchange for a $60,000 cash payment in 1,727,522 warrants to purchase common shares of the company at .25 per share to be issued and registered within a 5 year period. As part of its auditing process, the company intends to rely on guidance from Malone and Bailey on accounting for these previously undisclosed liabilities from 2013 and the first two quarters of 2014.

The company has discovered minimal additional undisclosed liabilities since the first quarter of 2015 and expects that the discovery process is complete and that the balance sheet for the period ending September 30, 2015 presented herein is a fair representation of the company's current financial condition.

Nevertheless, the Company has engaged Malone and Bailey as their auditors. As a consequence of the audit for the periods ending December 31, 2014, December 31, 2015, there may be a restatement of some items on the company's financial statements going forward.

5. INVESTMENTS

During the periods of this report the Company had no investments outside of advances to its Gooi Mortgage, Inc. subsidiary. $800,000 of these advances have subsequently been converted into Preferred Class C Stock shares in Gooi Mortgage, Inc. representing a capital contribution for which it will receive an 8% dividend. Additional advances in the amount of $364,211 have been made to Gooi Mortgage during the period that have yet to be converted into Preferred Stock and are subject to an MOU between Gooi Global, Inc. and Gooi Mortgage, Inc. Moreover, Gooi Global, Inc. holds 88% of the voting shares in Gooi Mortgage, Inc. through its holding of shares in Preferred Class A Stock. These are accounted for in their cash values in the financial reports contained herein. It is expected that the treatment of this investment will change in the reports for the period ending December 31, 2015 when released.

6. LITIGATION

On May 7, 2015, a Petition was filed In the Iowa District Court for Polk County on behalf of National Integrative Health, LLC and Jake Veile alleging breach of contract, negligent misrepresentation, amongst other claims in relation to a proposed business arrangement between the two companies and Jake Velie. The lawsuit is seeking performance by the company to alleged agreements between the parties that have not been made clear in the petition.

At this time, therefore, the company believes these claims to be without merit and has responded as such to the petition. As the plaintiff has requested a jury trial, however, there is adverse risk with the lawsuit. As of the date of this report, and given the early stage of this proceeding, the company is still assessing such risk, its potential financial ramifications, and its approach for accounting for said risks.

There is no other known legal action against the company at the time of this filing.

7. RELATED PARTY BALANCES AND TRANSACTIONS

The Company reports two types of related party balances and transactions. Amounts due to related parties represent advances made by directors, officers and shareholders. Amounts due to Gooi Global, Inc. primarily represent advances to or investments in the company's consolidated subsidiaries

Amounts Due Directors, Officers and Shareholders

Amounts due to related parties represent advances made by directors, officers and shareholders. Amounts in lieu of management fees have been accrued and converted into a note payable by the company with Brent Wilder its former President, this amount outstanding at December 31, 2012 is $50,000 which is accruing interest at a rate of 10% per annum. The note required payment of the outstanding principal and interest on or before February 28, 2011. The note is also convertible to common stock in the Company. As of December 31, 2012 should such conversion take place the conversion would result in the issuance of 50,000,000 shares of common stock to satisfy obligations of the note. The Company elected to perform a 10 for 1 reverse stock split in February 2013, and as such the resulting conversion on the note was adjusted to 5,000,000 accordingly. The Company understands that the note was sold to unrelated third parties in 2012. 54% of the conversion rights of the note were exercised by the note holders resulting in the issuance of 2,700,000 shares of common stock of the Company and resulting in a decrease in the amount of the debt by $27,000.

As part of its broader restructuring, Gooi Global, Inc. returned $362,799 in capital contributions to John Stokka in a promissory note in a stock purchase agreement for 16,889,854 shares and settlement of any severances or accrued owed owned directly by John Stokka or his family and settlement of any severances or accrued pay owed Mr. Stokka. For the period ending September 30, 2015, those shares had yet to be returned to Treasury. As of the date of this report, 14,887,285 shares have been returned to Treasury, with a balance of 2,002,569 to be returned. As of September 30, 2015, the amount outstanding on the promissory note to John Stokka was $ 215,007 which is reflected in Promissory Notes on the balance sheet. This promissory note carries no interest.

In a related transaction, the company agreed with K4, LLC to increase their line of credit from ONE MILLION DOLLARS to THREE MILLION DOLLARS at an interest rate of 6%. This extension was part of a broader private placement to provide an additional Equity Line of Credit Financing for over $5,000,000 at escalating share price targets, beginning at $1.25 per share. While the term sheet with investors was signed on February 27, 2015, there were a variety of open items to be resolved at the end of the quarter relating to the company's restructuring effort. Details of this private placement will be discussed below. Subsequent to the end of the period (October 30, 2015), as part of the agreement, the company issued NINE MILLION (9,000,000) common shares to K4 Enterprises, LLC. DESCRIPTION AND OVERVIEW OF THE BUSINESS

Our History

Gooi Global, Inc. (the "Company") was incorporated on August 28, 1986 pursuant to the laws of the State of Delaware. From 1986 until June 2005, the Company was a steel and ore smelting industry based in Warren Ohio, in active operation and in receivership. From 1993 until 2005 the Company was in receivership. It emerged out of bankruptcy in 2005 and retained its status with the state of Delaware as an active company. The Company rested its certificate of incorporation and changed its name to Ridgecrest Healthcare Group, Inc. on October 17, 2005. In October and November 2005, the Company acquired assets and stock from Healthcare Enterprises Group, PLC, a company based in the United Kingdom. One of those assets was Medical Development Specialists, a healthcare consulting company that had annual revenues of approximately $3,000,000 per year. Other assets included holdings in other public and private healthcare related companies in the US and UK.

During 2009, the Company decided to shift its focus from healthcare and related investing to technology development and management consulting. On September 24, 2009, the Company restated its certificate of incorporation with the State of Delaware and changed its name to Liberty Technologies, Inc. During 2009 the remainder of the healthcare assets were either sold off or exchanged for shares, the Company retaining only a small portion of these assets so that it could focus on its new business.

From 2009 to December of 2012, the Company engaged in business consulting and was actively seeking merger and acquisition opportunities.

In December of 2012, the Company merged with a private corporation Capalyst, Inc. d/b/a DomiKnow. As a result of the merger, the Company changed its name to Gooi Global, Inc. and the management and board of directors of the Company were replaced by the management and board of directors of Capalyst, Inc.

From the date of the merger until August 30th, 2014, the Company was engaged in the business of internet marketing and advertising. On August 30, 2014, the Company ceased its internet marketing and advertising services business operations due to insufficient working capital, current liabilities, and lack of prospects for additional funding. During and subsequent to September 30th reporting period, the Company has undertaken an internal strategic review of its business operations, has made several significant strategic, management and operational changes which are discussed in further detail below, including but not limited to altering its fundamental business plan to operate as an public Venture Capital Firm focused on the financial services industry.

Revenue for Period Ending September 30, 2015

In August of 2014 the company ceased operating its Digital Marketing and Big Data business unit. On December 19, 2014, the company formed an operating subsidiary to provide mortgage fulfillment services – Gooi Mortgage, Inc. The company has also changed its definition and strategic direction to become a public venture capital holding company focused on the financial services industry. The segments listed above segment the reporting of the holding company operations from that of its Gooi Mortgage subsidiary. All revenues for the period ending September 30, 2015 are attributable to the Gooi Mortgage, Inc. subsidiary.

Although revenue growth in the Gooi Mortgage, Inc. subsidiary is below initial expectation, their management believes that the launch has been delayed by market confusion surrounding the TILA –RESPA regulatory roll-out which was effective on October 1, 2015. In addition to the uncertainty caused by the delayed effective date of these regulations, their implementation has lengthened the selling cycle for the company's main fulfillment products further negatively impacting their revenue acquisition. Gooi Mortgage, Inc. management continues to believe that the market for their services is strong and that their customer acquisition pace will accelerate during the fourth quarter and through the first quarter of 2016.

The following is a discussion of certain expense categories:

Cost of Goods Sold

For the period ending September 30, 2015, the company incurred $219,704 in cost of goods sold. This reflected an increase in staffing in the company's Gooi Mortgage subsidiary in anticipation of significant future revenue growth and the training cycle required for processing employees.

Selling, General and Administrative

The Company experienced a substantial increase in selling general and administrative expenses for the periods covered from $147,000 in Q3 of 2014 to $717,655 in Q3 of 2015. This increase reflects the legacy costs from winding down the company's digital marketing business, the start-up costs of its newly formed mortgage fulfillment subsidiary – Gooi Mortgage, Inc., and the organization costs consequent to its repositioned strategy as a public venture capital entity. Moreover, the company expects expense growth to outpace revenue growth on a period to period comparative basis due to the rapid growth anticipated in the company's mortgage services subsidiary.

Amortization

In prior periods the Company recognized an impairment expense for substantially all of its intellectual property, and as a result, the Company does not have any amortizable assets on its balance sheet, and therefore recognizes no amortization.

Bad Debt

The Company did not experience any bad debt in Q3 of 2015.

Income Tax

No provision for income tax was made for Q3 of 2015 or Q3 of 2014 as the Company has extensive NOL carry-forwards and elects to discount such provision to zero.

Operations

The Company is currently operating as a result of the merger transaction which occurred on December 18, 2012 and is no longer in the development stage.

FINANCIAL POSITION, LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Cash and Accounts Receivable

As of September 30, 2015 the Company had $ 308,555 cash or cash equivalents on hand and $9,012,570 of restricted cash which it expects to will not be available to the company in the future as a consequence of the unwinding of an agreement with holders of Preferred Series A stock.

Liabilities

Total liabilities increased from $1,049,222 in Q3 of 2014 to $3,912,691 in Q3 of 2015. As reported in previous periods and repeated in the notes to the financial statements included herein, the company recognized significant previously undisclosed liabilities as a result of its discontinued operations. The increase in total liabilities reflect both the total amount of previously undisclosed liabilities as well as in increase in borrowing from a Line of Credit issued to the company by shareholder K4 Enterprises, LLC to reorganize the company as a public venture capital firm and launch its Gooi Mortgage, Inc. subsidiary.

Shareholder's Equity

Shareholder's equity decreased from $8,026,820 in Q3 of 2014 to $5,523,307 in Q3 of 2015. This decrease is a reflection of ongoing losses from the company's discontinued operations, the recognition of previously undisclosed liabilities, start-up expenses for Gooi Mortgage, Inc. and Bell Metrix, Inc., as well as reorganization expenses for Gooi Global, Inc.

As a result of its unwinding of previous agreements regarding the company's Series A Preferred Shares and their anticipated return to Treasury, the company expects that the $9,012,570 recorded as restricted cash to be cancelled in the period ending December 31, 2015, leaving the company with negative shareholder equity in the amount of (3,489,263) as of September 30, 2015.

Dividend

The payment of dividends to shareholders will depend on a number of factors such as earnings, GOOI's financial requirements and other factors that the Board of Directors considers relevant in the circumstances. The Company currently does not have the intention to pay dividends on the common or preferred shares. The Board of Directors will review this policy, from time to time, as circumstances change. To date GOOI has not declared or paid any dividends on any of its shares.

Transactions with related parties

The Company reports two types of related party balances and transactions. Amounts due to related parties represent advances made by directors, officers and shareholders. Amounts due to Gooi Global, Inc. primarily represent advances to or investments in the company's consolidated subsidiaries

Amounts Due Gooi Global, Inc.

During the period ending March 31, 2015, Gooi Global, Inc. contributed $600,000 of capital to Gooi Mortgage, Inc. in return for an 88% interest in the company through newly registered Gooi Mortgage, Inc. Preferred Series A shares and Preferred Series C shares, the latter of which carry an 8% dividend. Specifically, and according to the Gooi Mortgage, Inc. Board resolutions dated March 26, 2014, Gooi Mortgage has committed to issuing 333,334 shares of Preferred Series A stock to Gooi Global, Inc. as part of an agreement to capitalize the company including the $600,000 of capital the company has received. During the period, the company converted an additional $200,000 of Bridge Financing to Gooi Mortgage, Inc. bringing the total capital contributions by Gooi Global, Inc. to Gooi Mortgage, Inc. to $800,000.

Moreover, it is anticipated that once advances exceed $100,000 they will be converted into whole shares of Preferred Series C Stock of Gooi Mortgage in increments of $100,000. As of September 30, 2015, the amount of this Bridge Financing to Gooi Mortgage equals $364,211. These transactions with Gooi Global's Mortgage subsidiary are reflected on a net basis on the consolidated financial statements provided herein.

Amounts Due Related Parties – Directors, Officer and Shareholders

The Company reports two types of related party balances and transactions. Amounts due to related parties represent advances made by directors, officers and shareholders. Amounts due to Gooi Global, Inc. primarily represent advances to or investments in the company's consolidated subsidiaries

Amounts Due Directors, Officers and Shareholders

Amounts due to related parties represent advances made by directors, officers and shareholders. Amounts in lieu of management fees have been accrued and converted into a note payable by the company with Brent Wilder its former President, this amount outstanding at December 31, 2012 is $50,000 which is accruing interest at a rate of 10% per annum. The note required payment of the outstanding principal and interest on or before February 28, 2011. The note is also convertible to common stock in the Company. As of December 31, 2012 should such conversion take place the conversion would result in the issuance of 50,000,000 shares of common stock to satisfy obligations of the note. The Company elected to perform a 10 for 1 reverse stock split in February 2013, and as such the resulting conversion on the note was adjusted to 5,000,000 accordingly. The Company understands that the note was sold to unrelated third parties in 2012. 54% of the conversion rights of the note were exercised by the note holders resulting in the issuance of 2,700,000 shares of common stock of the Company and resulting in a decrease in the amount of the debt by $27,000.

As part of its broader, more recent, restructuring, Gooi Global, Inc. returned $362,799 in capital contributions to John Stokka in a promissory note in a stock purchase agreement for 16,889,854 shares and settlement of any severances or accrued owed owned directly by John Stokka or his family and settlement of any severances or accrued pay owed Mr. Stokka. As of the date of this report, 14,887,285 shares have been returned to Treasury, with a balance of 2,002,569 to be returned. As of September 30, 2015, the amount outstanding on the promissory note to John Stokka was $215,007 which is reflected in Promissory Notes on the balance sheet. This promissory note carries no interest.

In a related transaction, the company agreed with K4, LLC to increase their line of credit from ONE MILLION DOLLARS to THREE MILLION DOLLARS at an interest rate of 6%. This extension was part of a broader private placement to provide an additional Equity Line of Credit Financing for over $5,000,000 at escalating share price targets, beginning at $1.25 per share. While the term sheet with investors was signed on February 27, 2015, there were a variety of open items to be resolved at the end of the quarter relating to the company's restructuring effort. Details of this private placement will be discussed below. Nevertheless, as part of the agreement, the company expects to issue NINE MILLION (9,000,000) common shares to K4, LLC and return the 16,889,954 common shares held by former CEO John Stokka and family to treasury resulting in an immediate reduction in the outstanding shares in the company of 6,889,954 shares, representing over 28% of the outstanding shares. As of the date of the report, and subsequent to the end of the reporting period ending September 30, 2015, the company has issued NINE MILLION (9,000,000) common shares to K4 Enterprises, LLC and ONE MILLION (1,000,000) common shares to Mark White, CEO. Note: K4, LLC is an investment company controlled by Mike Kemery, Chairman of the Board.

RISK AND UNCERTAINTY FACTORS

History of operating losses and anticipate that we may see continued operating losses for the foreseeable future

The Company has incurred a net loss of $ 957,759 in the period ending September 30, 2015. It is foreseeable that the Company will continue to sustain operating losses as it continues to implement the strategic management and operational changes and repositions its business activities.

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on a myriad factors, but most importantly, is the ability and willingness of the Company's current shareholders to continue financing the operating expenses of the Company and the Company ability to raise additional investment capital.

We currently are not profitable. We cannot guarantee when we will operate profitably, if ever. Due to the continued operating losses, the Company discontinued its internet marketing and advertising operations and subsequently reorganized itself as a venture capital entity. While management believes that its revised business strategy and plans have adequate funding mechanisms in place to successfully execute them, there is no guarantee that the restructuring of the business will ultimately be profitable.

Moreover, the time necessary to achieve success for our business restructuring and revised strategies is uncertain. As a result, we cannot assure that we will ever generate significant revenue or achieve or operate profitability.

Legal Risks

On May 7, 2015, a Petition was filed In the Iowa District Court for Polk County on behalf of National Integrative Health, LLC and Jake Veile alleging breach of contract, negligent misrepresentation, amongst other claims in relation to a proposed business arrangement between the two companies and Jake Velie. The lawsuit is seeking performance by the company to alleged agreements between the parties that have not been made clear in the petition.

At this time, therefore, the company believes these claims to be without merit and has responded as such to the petition. As the plaintiff has requested a jury trial, however, there is adverse risk with the lawsuit. As of the date of this report, and given the early stage of this proceeding, the company is still assessing such risk, its potential financial ramifications, and its approach for accounting for said risks.

There is no other known legal action against the company at the time of this filing.

Seasonality and Susceptibility to Economic Trends

The Company does not engage in any business that is particularly susceptible to seasonality or economic trends.

Competition

The company has repositioned its business as a Venture Capital Entity. The company intends to make investments in pre-revenue companies with a deal size of between $500,000 and $5,000,000. This target deal size is an underserved niche by professional alternative investment firms, particularly in the company's geographic area. Most competition is in the form of individual investors and loosely organized firms. Consequently, the company's primary competition is fragmented.

The company's first investment, Gooi Mortgage, Inc., competes in a highly fragmented marketplace with a high degree of competition. Offsetting this this highly competitive environment is the fact that the target market for Gooi Mortgage, Inc. – small and medium sized financial institutions offering mortgages - is underserved and fragmented as well as the fact that the company is not dependent on suppliers.

Management

The Company currently has a small executive management group, which it believes is sufficient for its present size and operations. Although the Company's development to date has largely depended on, and in the future will continue to depend upon, the efforts of current executive management, the loss of any member of this group could have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Acquisitions

The Company will continue to seek key strategic acquisitions for companies in both the United States and in other jurisdictions. Historical financial results of these acquired companies may not be an indicator of future performance, therefore, it is possible that the Company may end up acquiring an operating company that becomes a financial burden to the Company. In this event it is possible that by acquiring an operating business, even in a wholly stock transaction that the Company becomes less financially viable than before the acquisition.

It is also possible, that an acquired Company may have significant legal and tax liabilities that were not made clear to the Company at the time of the transaction. While management exercises due care while performing due diligence on an acquired company (or target), it is possible that these liabilities may not be known to the Company until an enforcement action has begun. In this event, it is possible that the economic results of these actions may exceed the coverage of any indemnifications or escrow accounts created for these purposes.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid instruments with a maturity of three months or less at the time of issuance to be cash equivalents. Traditionally, the Company has considered its restricted cash as a cash equivalent. This restricted cash represents a private placement of 295,200 convertible Preferred Series A shares for $9,012,570 to nine qualified investors (the "Preferred Stock Investors"), pursuant to which the Preferred Stock Investors purchased a private placement of Units consisting of Preferred Shares (convertible into Common Shares) and Warrants to purchase Common Shares. The total Unit purchase was $9,012,570 (10,013.97 per Unit) and $9,012,570 is currently reflected in equity section of the Company's Balance Sheet as restricted cash. When converted into Common Shares the transaction equated to an average Common Share price of $0.3060 per share. Under the terms of the Unit Subscription Agreement (USA), the Preferred Stock Investor's cash and the Securities purchased (in certificate form) have been deposited in a restricted account with an Intermediary whereby an Account Management Agreement (AMA) between the Investors, the Company and the Intermediary governs the release of funds to the Company from the restricted account. As of September 30, 2015 the Company had $9,321,125 in cash and cash equivalents when the restricted cash is included. Although, pursuant to the private placement agreement, the Preferred Stock Investors may not request a return of capital without the agreement of the Company and the Company may not request to unwind or alter the transaction without agreement of the Investor, the Company now believes that this restricted cash is not a cash equivalent.

Therefore, as of September 30, 2015 the company has cash available of $308,555.

If the restricted cash is included, as per previous financial statements, the Company would have had $ 9,321,125 cash on hand compared to $9,010,570 for the period ending September 30, 2014.

The company expects to unwind this transaction during the period ending December 31, 2015.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized when services and goods are contracted for, the service is provided or the title to the goods passes hands and collectability is reasonably assured.

Intangible assets and impairment

U.S. generally accepted accounting principles require that long-lived assets and intangibles to be held and used by the Company, be reviewed for possible impairment, whenever events or changes in circumstances indicated that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. If changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset that an entity expects to hold and use may not be recoverable, future cash flows expected to result from the use of the asset and its disposition must be estimated. If the undiscounted value of the future cash flows is less than the carrying amount of the asset, impairment is recognized. All intangible assets were effectively impaired to $0.00 in prior periods.

Fair Value Measurements

The Company follows FASB ASC 820, "Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures," for all financial instruments and non-financial instruments accounted for at fair value on a recurring basis. This accounting standard established a single definition of fair value and a framework for measuring fair value, sets out a fair value hierarchy to be used to classify the source of information used in fair value measurement and expands disclosures about fair value measurements required under other accounting pronouncements. It does not change existing guidance as to whether or not an instrument is carried at fair value. The Company defines fair value as the price that would be received from selling an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. When determining the fair value measurements for assets and liabilities, which are required to be recorded at fair value, the Company considers the principal or most advantageous market in which the Company would transact and the market-based legal measurements or assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, such as inherent risk, transfer restrictions and credit risk. The Company has adopted FASB ASC 825, "Financial Instruments", which allows companies to choose to measure eligible financial instruments and certain other items at fair value that are not required to be measured at fair value. The Company has not elected the fair value option for any eligible financial instruments.

As required by ASC 820, assets and liabilities are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

Amounts due to shareholders, directors, and officers in related parties is reflected in the balance sheets at carrying value, which approximates fair value due to its short-term nature.

Amounts invested in subsidiaries in return for securities are valued at their face value or their estimated exit value depending on the seniority of claims against company assets, either of which, when properly applied, is equivalent to fair value.

Foreign Currency Translation

The Company's functional currency is US Dollars. Foreign currency balances are translated into US dollars as follows:

Monetary assets and liabilities are translated at the period-end exchange rate. Non-monetary assets are translated at the rate of exchange in effect at their acquisition, unless such assets are carried at market or nominal value, in which case they are translated at the period-end exchange rate. Revenue and expense items are translated at the average exchange rate for the period. Foreign exchange gains and losses in the period are included in operations.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Basic and Diluted Net Income (Loss) Per Share

The Company computes net loss per share in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 260, "Earnings per Share". This topic requires presentation of both basic and diluted earnings per share ("EPS") on the face of the income statement. Basic loss per share is computed by dividing net loss available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the year. Diluted EPS gives effect to all dilutive potential common shares outstanding during the year including stock options, using the treasury stock method, and convertible preferred stock, using the if-converted method. In computing diluted EPS, the average stock price for the year is used in determining the number of shares assumed to be purchased from the exercise of stock options or warrants. Diluted EPS excludes all dilutive potential common shares if their effect is anti-dilutive.

Income taxes

The Company follows FASB ASC Topic 820, "Income Taxes" which requires the use of the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for future tax consequences attributable to temporary differences between the financial statements carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and loss carry forwards and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the year in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled.

Segment Reporting

The company follows FASB Topic 280 relating to segment reporting. The guidance in this Subtopic requires that general-purpose financial statements include selected information reported on a single basis of segmentation. The method for determining what information to report is referred to as the management approach. The management approach is based on the way that management organizes the segments within the public entity for making operating decisions and assessing performance. Consequently, the segments are evident from the structure of the public entity's internal organization, and financial statement preparers should be able to provide the required information in a cost-effective and timely manner.

Recent accounting pronouncements

The Company adopts new pronouncements relating to generally accepted accounting principles applicable to the Company as they are issued, which may be in advance of their effective date. Management does not believe that any recently issued, but not yet effective, accounting standards if currently adopted would have a material effect on the accompanying financial statements.

December 18, 2012 Merger

On December 18, 2012 the Company was merged with Capalyst, Inc.,whereby the Company was the surviving entity and changed its name to DomiKnow, Inc.The merger resulted in the shareholders of record of Capalyst being issued control shares of 195,489,103 shares in consideration for the merger, and the Company's acquisition of 195,489,104 shares from the previous control shareholders (of the Company prior to the merger) in consideration for notes payable of $195,489.

OUTLOOK

On August 30, 2014, the Company was forced to cease operations due to lack of working capital, current liabilities, and lack of prospects for additional funding for its internet marketing and advertising business. At that time, management began an internal financial and strategic review of the Company's business operations and strategies. As a result of this review, management and the board of directors determined that the Company's prior lines of business were no longer viable and that it was necessary to revise the Company's fundamental business model and develop a new strategic direction.

Accordingly, during and subsequent to the reporting period ended September 30, 2015, the Company has undertaken a number of strategic management and operational changes, including but not limited to adopting a new business model in which the Company will act as a public venture capital firm and has made its first investment in a start-up mortgage fulfillment firm – Gooi Mortgage, Inc.

Legal Proceedings

On May 7, 2015, a Petition was filed In the Iowa District Court for Polk County on behalf of National Integrative Health, LLC and Jake Veile alleging breach of contract, negligent misrepresentation, amongst other claims in relation to a proposed business arrangement between the two companies and Jake Velie. The lawsuit is seeking performance by the company to alleged agreements between the parties that have not been made clear in the petition.

At this time, therefore, the company believes these claims to be without merit and has responded as such to the petition. As the plaintiff has requested a jury trial, however, there is adverse risk with the lawsuit. As of the date of this report, and given the early stage of this proceeding, the company is still assessing such risk, its potential financial ramifications, and its approach for accounting for said risks.

There is no other known legal action against the company at the time of this filing.
