Report on Business

1. Provide a general overview and discussion of the development of the Issuer's business and operations over the previous month. Where the Issuer was inactive disclose this fact.

   Orca Touchscreen's business is the design, production, sale, distribution, service and refurbishment of touchscreen devices, including smartphones and tablets. The Company is working with partners in developing countries to establish semi knock down (SKD) assembly factories to produce smartphones, tablets and other touchscreen devices for sale in that country's growing market. "SKD" means "semi-knock down" and refers to an assembly method whereby kits of partially-assembled components are imported and assembled into finished products. Orca's business involves establishing joint ventures in which SKD kits are imported and assembled by a local workforce in a developing country for sale, distribution, service and refurbishment into the emerging market of smartphone and tablet users in that developing country.

   Generally, in the past month, the Issuer: (a) continued to work towards a definitive joint venture agreement regarding Sollen-Mobile, SA ("Sollen Guatemala") and its smartphone SKD assembly factory in Guatemala; (b) continued to work towards a letter of intent with Solucel, S.A. of Guatemala regarding the distribution of touchscreen devices in Central America; and (c) continued to negotiate with potential joint venture partners to establish a smartphone SKD assembly factory in Southeast Asia and in Central America.

2. Provide a general overview and discussion of the activities of management.

   See Item 1. As well, during the month of October 2015, CEO GwanJe (Frank) Woo and other members of the Issuer's management team met with (a) potential SKD joint venture partners in Southeast Asia; (b) potential SKD joint venture partners in Argentina, Guatemala, Mexico and Uruguay, Philippines, Cambodia and Myanmar; (c) with Solucel, S.A. in Guatemala regarding proposed product distribution throughout Central America.

3. Describe and provide details of any new products or services developed or offered. For resource companies, provide details of new drilling, exploration or production programs and acquisitions of any new properties and attach any mineral or oil and gas or other reports required under Ontario securities law.
