SUBJECT: LETTERS WITH RESPECT TO ADEQUATE CURRENT INFORMATION

To Whom It May Concern:

The following letter represents my legal opinion with respect to current information of WHAM, Inc. (the "Issuer"). I am US resident and a citizen of the United States of America and authorized to practice in the State of Florida, the District of Columbia, and the United States District Court for both the Southern and Middle Districts along with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and I have not been prohibited from practice thereunder.

OTC Markets Group may rely on this letter in determining whether the Issuer has made adequate current information publicly available within the meaning of Rule 144(c)(2) under the Securities Act of 1933 and the full permission, complete permission, and rights to publish the letter through the OTC Disclosure and News Service (the "Publication"). However, no person or entity, other than OTC Markets Group may rely on this letter.

I have examined the Financial Reports from year ending December 2013 – year ending September 2015 (final quarter of 2015 was not available at the time of this opinion) including notes to the reports, the Information and Disclosure Report dated on November 5, 2015, Corporate By Laws, and the Restated and Amended Articles of Incorporation dated December 20, 2005 and November 32, 2011 respectively, (the "Information") listed in the Publication as well as such questions of law as I considered necessary and/or appropriate for purposes of rendering this letter. Furthermore, I have met with Chief Executive Officer, Chief Operations Officer, Chief Visionary Officer and Secretary of Board of Directors of the Issuer on September 25, 2015, November 24, 2015, December 21, 2015, and December 28, 2015 to review and discuss the Information as published in the Publication. To the best of my knowledge, the management and the directors of the Issuer, all shareholders, and I are not currently under investigation by any federal or state regulatory authority for any violation of federal or states securities laws. Upon review, the number of shares outstanding are 100,196,032 were determined by reviewing the Information and Disclosure Statement and in speaking with the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Operations Officer, Chief Visionary Officer and Secretary of Board of Directors.

It is my opinion, the Information constitutes adequate current public information concerning the Securities and the Issuer and is available within the meaning of Rule 144(c)(2) under the Securities Act, includes all of the information that a broker-dealer would be required to obtain from the Issuer to publish a quotation for the Securities under Rule 15c2-11 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and complies as to form with the OTC Markets Group's Guidelines for Providing Adequate Current Information, which are located on the Internet at www.otcmarkets.com.

Furthermore, Alan Uecke, CPA (the "Accountant") prepared the financial statements contained in the Information. The financial statements are not audited. However, the Accountant who prepared the financial statements is a certified public accountant as stated by the Accountant. Also, Interwest Transfer Company, Inc. is the Issuer's Transfer Agent and has been confirmed to be registered with the SEC. Finally, I believe all the sources used to be reliable in the drafting of this letter.

Should you have any questions, please direct them to my office.

Sincerely,

Senen Garcia, Esq.
