6) Describe the Issuer's Business, Products and Services.

A. A description of the issuer's business operations:

Promithian Global Ventures, Inc. is a development stage mining company.

Promithian Global Ventures, Inc. is currently testing the "Main Zone" silver copper vein on the historic Warburton property in the southern Yukon, Canada. The intrusion related quartz-carbonate vein hosts high grades of silver and copper as well as lesser amounts of zinc, and antimony. A sample of the "Main Zone" has returned values of 6,656 g/t silver (194.6 oz/ton) and 15.66% copper. Intrusion related silver copper veins are excellent targets for high grade, small scale, underground mines. Promithian Global is carrying out bulk sampling work on the "Main Zone" in order to determine the most efficient "Narrow Vein Mining" method that could be used to exploit the vein.

As of December 31, 2015 the company has no revenues. The Company pays its' financial obligations through new investments in the company, or by Officers loans. The Issuers officers and directors have been providing their time at no cost as well as providing the company's office at no cost. The company is actively pursuing new funding opportunities.
