NOTE 1 - GENERAL OGANIZATION, NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Presentation

This presentation is made in U.S. Dollars.

The Company's investment in Key Technologies Pvt. Ltd. is presented as an equity investment at cost.

History

U.S. Wireless Online, Inc. (UWRL) was formed as a Nevada corporation on May 4, 1998, originally as Llebpmac, Inc. UWRL went public, filing a prospectus on October 18, 2000. UWRL changed its name to Cach Foods, Inc. on November 1, 2000 with the intent to engage in the export and distribution of snack food products for resale in Asian markets.

On May 12, 2003, the Company entered an agreement and plan of reorganization with US Wireless Online, Inc. The agreement closed on May 19, 2003. As a result of this series of transactions, shares of Cach Foods common stock were exchanged for all of the issued and outstanding shares of US Wireless Online, Inc. making US Wireless Online, Inc. a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cach Foods. Pursuant to the Agreement, the former officers and directors of Cach Foods resigned and were replaced and the Company changed its name from Cach Foods, Inc. to US Wireless Online, Inc.

US Wireless Online incorporated in 2000 to offer high-speed, low cost Internet access to small and medium sized businesses. The Company made several strategic acquisitions which closed after December 31, 2004.

The Company was administratively abandoned and reinstated in March 2010 through a court appointed guardian - custodian.

On May 14, 2010, the company announced that it had completed its merger with Go Green Electronic Recycling, a US based recycling company as recycling industry takes a main stage in the North American consciousness. This transaction was rescinded in 2011.

In 2013, the Company entered into a Share Exchange Agreement with Key Techno Labs Private Limited ("KTLP"), www.Keytechnolabs.com, an India-based IT company. The Company will acquire 100 percent ownership in KTLP in exchange, and in consideration of, 25,000,000 (twenty five million) shares of the Company's common stock. This stock is being held in escrow and may be used to purchase the Key Tech stock held by the Company in the event Key Tech shall determine to repurchase the Key Tech stock.

In 2014 and 2015, the Company owned and controlled PointZeoFX, a foreign exchange trading service. PointZeroFx offered individuals and brokers a first-class investment services and a total access to major financial markets. PointZeroFX ceased operations in 2015 after its service company filed Chapter 7 bankruptcy and PointZeroFX was not able to continue operations. The assets and liabilities related to PointZeroFX were written off in 2015.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING PRACTICES

Accounting policies and procedures are listed below. The company has adopted December 31 as a year end.

Accounting Basis

We have prepared the consolidated financial statements according to generally accepted accounting Principles (GAAP).

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less as cash equivalents. As of December 31, 2015 the company had no cash or cash equivalent balances in excess of the federally insured amounts. The Company's policy is to invest excess funds in only well capitalized financial institutions.

Fixed Assets
Fixed assets are carried at cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method of depreciation over the assets' estimated useful lives. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred; major renewals and improvements are capitalized. When items of fixed assets are sold or retired, the related cost and accumulated depreciation is removed from the accounts and any gain or loss is included in income.

Earnings per Share
The Company adopted the provisions of SFAS No. 128, "Earnings per Share." SFAS No. 128 requires the presentation of basic and diluted earnings per share ("EPS"). Basic EPS is computed by dividing income available to common stockholders by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted EPS includes the potential dilution that could occur if options or other contracts to issue common stock were exercised or converted. The Company has not issued any options or warrants or similar securities since inception.

Stock Based Compensation
As permitted by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 148, "Accounting for Stock- Based Compensation--Transition and Disclosure", which amended SFAS 123 ("SFAS 123"), "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation", the Company has elected to continue to follow the intrinsic value method.

Stock Based Compensation: As permitted by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 148, "Accounting for Stock- Based Compensation--Transition and Disclosure", which amended SFAS 123 ("SFAS 123"), "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation", the Company has elected to continue to follow the intrinsic value method in accounting for its stock-based employee compensation arrangements as defined by Accounting Principles Board Opinion ("APB") No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees", and related Interpretations including "Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretations No. 44, Accounting for Certain Transactions Involving Stock Compensation", and interpretation of APB No. 25. At December 31, 2015 the Company has not formed a Stock Option Plan and has not issued any options.

Dividends
The Company has adopted a policy regarding the payment of dividends. Dividends may be paid to shareholders once all divisions are fully operational and profitable. The Board may also pay dividends to counter any short selling or undermining of the entity.

Income Taxes
The provision for income taxes is the total of the current taxes payable and the net of the change in the deferred income taxes. Provision is made for the deferred income taxes where differences exist between the period in which transactions affect current taxable income and the period in which they enter into the determination of net income in the financial statements.

Advertising
Advertising is expensed when incurred.

Use of Estimates
The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Goodwill
Goodwill is created when we acquire a business. It is calculated by deducting the fair value of the net assets acquired from the consideration given and represents the value of factors that contribute to greater earning power, such as a good reputation, customer loyalty. The management assess goodwill of individual subsidiaries for impairment in the fourth quarter of every year, and when circumstances indicate that goodwill might be impaired.

NOTE 3 - GOING CONCERN

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. The Company’s continuation as a going concern is dependent on its ability to meet its obligations, to obtain additional financing as may be required and ultimately to attain profitability. These financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

NOTE 4 - RECENTLY ISSUED ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

Management does not believe that any recently issued but not yet adopted accounting standards will have a material effect on the Company's results of operations or on the reported amounts of its assets and liabilities upon adoption.

NOTE 5 - SHAREHOLDERS' EQUITY

No new stock was issued in 2015.

Common Stock:

As of December 31, 2015 the Company has 124,065,205 shares of common stock issued and outstanding.

Preferred Stock:

As of December 31, 2015, the Company has 1,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock issued and outstanding.

NOTE 6 – EQUITY INVESTMENTS

In 2014 and 2015, the Company owned and controlled PointZeoFX, a foreign exchange trading service. PointZeroFX ceased operations in 2015. The assets and liabilities related to PointZeroFX were written off in 2015.

This resulted in a decrease in long term equity investments and a decrease in liabilities.

The remaining long term equity investment is the Company's ownership of Key Technolabs Pvt. Ltd. (Key Tech). Key Tech was acquired for 25 million pre-split shares of the Company's Common Stock. This stock is being held in escrow and may be used to purchase the Key Tech stock held by the Company in the event Key Tech shall determine to repurchase the Key Tech stock.

As of fiscal year ended 2015, Key Tech reported the following:

Assets	$67,250	Liabilities	$24,250
Revenues	$36,250

NOTE 7 - PROVISION FOR INCOME TAXES

The Company provides for income taxes under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes. SFAS No. 109 requires the use of an asset and liability approach in accounting for income taxes. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recorded based on the differences between the financial statements and tax bases of assets and liabilities and the tax rates in effect when these differences are expected to reverse.

SFAS No. 109 requires the reduction of deferred tax assets by a valuation allowance if, based on the weight of available evidence, it is more likely than not that some or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized.

The provision for income taxes is comprised of the net changes in deferred taxes less the valuation account plus the current taxes payable.
