WEALTHCRAFT SYSTEMS, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2015 AND 2014

NOTE 1 – NATURE OF OPERATIONS

WealthCraft Systems, Inc. (the "Company") was organized on October 29, 1992 under the laws of the State of Nevada. On November 13, 2007, WealthCraft Systems, Inc. ("WealthCraft") completed the transactions contemplated by that certain Exchange Agreement, dated as of October 19, 2007, by and among WealthCraft, certain shareholders of WealthCraft, WealthCraft Systems Ltd., a private limited company organized under the laws of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China ("WealthCraft HK") and the shareholders of WealthCraft HK (the "Exchange Agreement"). Accordingly, WealthCraft acquired all of the issued and outstanding shares of stock of WealthCraft HK, in exchange for the issuance in the aggregate of 7,000,000 shares of common stock of WealthCraft, which shares represent 70% of the issued and outstanding capital stock of WealthCraft after the consummation of the Exchange Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

On September 18, 2012 the Company sold WealthCraft HK to an Australian publicly held company in exchange for approximately $75,000 and 2,000,000 shares of their common stock. Subsequent to this date the Company has had no operations and only incurred administrative expenses.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Method of Accounting

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting which is in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) and, accordingly, reflect all significant receivables, payables, and other liabilities.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make certain estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Significant estimates include collectability of accounts receivable, accounts payable, sales returns and recoverability of long-term assets.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, delivery has occurred, the fee is fixed or determinable, and collectability is probable. Revenue generally is recognized net of allowances for returns and any taxes collected from customers and subsequently remitted to governmental authorities.

Cost of Sales

Cost of sales includes: inventory, commission, trade shows, retail display allowance, cost associated with the delivery and travel expenses.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid investments available for current use with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Accounts Receivable

Receivables are recorded when billed or accrued and represent claims against third parties that will be settled in cash. The carrying value of receivables, net of the allowance for doubtful accounts, if any, represents their estimated net realizable value. The allowance for doubtful accounts, if any, is estimated based on historical collection trends, type of customer, the age of outstanding receivables and existing economic conditions. If events or changes in circumstances indicate that specific receivable balances may be impaired, further consideration is given to the collectability of those balances and the allowance is adjusted accordingly. Past due receivable balances are written-off when internal collection efforts have been unsuccessful in collecting the amount due.

Fair Value Measurements

For certain of the Company's financial instruments, including cash and equivalents, restricted cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable, accrued liabilities and short-term debt, the carrying amounts approximate their fair values due to their short maturities. ASC Topic 820, "Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures," requires disclosure of the fair value of financial instruments held by the Company. ASC Topic 825, "Financial Instruments," defines fair value, and establishes a three-level valuation hierarchy for disclosures of fair value measurement that enhances disclosure requirements for fair value measures. The carrying amounts reported in the consolidated balance sheets for receivables and current liabilities each qualify as financial instruments and are a reasonable estimate of their fair values because of the short period of time between the origination of such instruments and their expected realization and their current market rate of interest. The three levels of valuation hierarchy are defined as follows:

Level 1 inputs to the valuation methodology are quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.

Level 2 inputs to the valuation methodology include quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets, and inputs that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly, for substantially the full term of the financial instrument.

Level 3 inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The Company analyzes all financial instruments with features of both liabilities and equity under ASC 480, "Distinguishing Liabilities from Equity," and ASC 815.

As of December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Company did not identify any assets and liabilities that are required to be presented on the balance sheet at fair value.

Income Taxes

The Company adopted the provisions of Interpretation ("FIN") No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes—an Interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109" (ASC 740). ASC 740 prescribes a new threshold for determining when an income tax benefit can be recognized, which is a higher threshold than the one imposed for claiming deductions on income tax returns. The adoption of ASC 740 did not have any impact on the Company's financial statements. The Company's federal and state income tax returns are subject to possible examination by the taxing authorities until the expiration of the related statutes of limitations on those tax returns. In general, the federal and state income tax returns have a three year statute of limitations. The Company would recognize accrued interest and penalties associated with uncertain tax provisions, if any, as part of the income tax provision.

At December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Company had not taken any significant uncertain tax positions on its tax returns for 2015 and prior years or in computing its tax provision for 2015.

NOTE 3 – ACCOUNTS PAYABLE AND ACCRUED EXPENSES

Accounts payable and accrued expenses consist of accrued interest and penalties assessed by the Internal Revenue service related to late filing of returns for the year 2009. The Company at this time is appealing the penalties and interest but has made a full accrual for the current amounts due.

NOTE 4 – STOCKHOLDERS' DEFICIT

The Company has 25,000,000 shares of common stock authorized and 13,673,060 shares issued at a par value of $0.001 per share as of December 31, 2015 and 2014. There were no stock transactions during the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014.

NOTE 5 - GOING CONCERN

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern, which contemplates continuity of operations, realization of assets, and liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of business.

As reflected in the accompanying financial statements, the Company had an accumulated deficit at December 31, 2015 of $7,615,883 and no annual revenues. These factors, among others, raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

Management intends to raise additional funds by way of a public or private offering as well as sell the entity to an interested buyer. While the Company believes in the viability of this strategy its ability to raise funds or sell the Company there can be no assurances to that effect.

The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern.

NOTE 6 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

In preparing these financial statements, the Company has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through January 12, 2016, the date the financial statements were available for use.
