Diverse Media Group, Inc. ("the Company" "DVME") originally incorporated under the name "Immortal Investments, Inc." in August of 2000 under the laws of the State of Delaware. In 2004 a resolution was passed changing the name to Diverse Media Group, Inc. Most of the Company's activities were transacted through Diverse Talent Group, Inc., its wholly owned subsidiary until January 1, 2013 at which time the Company formed a business trust, Master Strategic Group which then incorporated in the state of Florida on January 9, 2014. Most of the Company's activities are now consulting services through Master Strategic Group, Inc. as of January 1, 2013.

Diverse Talent Group, Inc. incorporated under the laws of the State of California on March 14, 2000. The Company provides employment placement services for writers, actors, producers, directors and other talent. The clients are placed into movies, television and commercials.

Starting from the second quarter of 2010 through January of 2012, heavy losses were sustained by Diverse Talent Group, Inc. due to employee theft and embezzlement. The embezzlement and theft were not discovered until December of 2011 which resulted in its discontinuation by January of 2012. Losses are not as of yet totally accounted for and are estimated to be approximately two million dollars.

Due to the heavy losses incurred by employee theft and embezzlement, it was felt that Diverse Talent Group's reputation was irreparably damaged and in December of 2012 the Board of Directors voted to initiate new operations in the field of entertainment consulting under a new subsidiary operation to be named, Master Strategic Group. 2013 was a transitional year as Diverse Media Group shifted its operations, which were damaged by employee theft and embezzlement, from licensed talent agency activities to unlicensed entertainment consultant activities.

7) Describe the Issuer's Facilities

The goal of this section is to provide a potential investor with a clear understanding of all assets, properties or facilities owned, used or leased by the issuer.

In responding to this item, please clearly describe the assets, properties or facilities of the issuer, give the location of the principal plants and other property of the issuer and describe the condition of the properties. If the issuer does not have complete ownership or control of the property (for example, if others also own the property or if there is a mortgage on the property), describe the limitations on the ownership.

If the issuer leases any assets, properties or facilities, clearly describe them as above and the terms of their leases.

The development and management offices of approximately 2000 sq feet are situated at 9911 W. Pico Blvd. Suite 350W, Los Angeles, CA, 90035.

Diverse Media Group, Inc.
Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2013

Nature of Operations

Diverse Media Group, Inc. ("the Company" "DVME") originally incorporated under the name "Immortal Investments, Inc." in August of 2000 under the laws of the State of Delaware. In 2004 a resolution was passed changing the name to Diverse Media Group, Inc. Most of the Company's activities were transacted through Diverse Talent Group, Inc., its wholly owned subsidiary until January 1, 2013 at which time the Company formed a business trust, Master Strategic Group which then incorporated in the state of Florida on January 9, 2014. Most of the Company's activities are now consulting services through Master Strategic Group, Inc. as of January 1, 2013.

Diverse Talent Group, Inc. incorporated under the laws of the State of California on March 14, 2000. The Company provides employment placement services for writers, actors, producers, directors and other talent. The clients are placed into movies, television and commercials.

Starting from the second quarter of 2010 through January of 2012, heavy losses were sustained by Diverse Talent Group, Inc. due to employee theft and embezzlement. The embezzlement and theft were not discovered until December of 2011 which resulted in its discontinuation by January of 2012. Losses are not as of yet totally accounted for and are estimated to be approximately two million dollars.

Due to the heavy losses incurred by employee theft and embezzlement, it was felt that Diverse Talent Group's reputation was irreparably damaged and in December of 2012 the Board of Directors voted to initiate new operations in the field of entertainment consulting under a new subsidiary operation to be named, Master Strategic Group.

2013 was a transitional year as Diverse Media Group shifted its operations, which were damaged by employee theft and embezzlement, from licensed talent agency activities to unlicensed entertainment consultant activities.

Stock

In August 2009 another amendment was filed authorizing preferred shares at par value $.00001. This included 100 million shares of Series A, 10 million shares of Series B and 20 million shares of Series C. At the balance sheet date 90,000 shares of Series A and 505,925 shares of Series B preferred stock were issued and outstanding. Participating rights and other designations pertaining to preferred stock have not yet been determined.

In January 2010, the Company filed another certificate of amendment increasing the total number of common shares authorized to 21 billion shares and setting the par value to $.00001 per share. Par value of preferred shares was also set to $.00001 per share.

A 15:1 stock split was instituted for all shares issued as of April 20, 2009.

GOING CONCERN

The Company has suffered continued losses from operations and, at December 31, 2013, has a deficiency in stockholders' equity. These factors raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

This summary of significant accounting policies of Diverse Media Group, Inc. (the Company) is presented to assist in understanding the Company's financial statements. The financial statements and notes are representations of the Company's management, who is responsible for their integrity and objectivity. These accounting policies conform to generally accepted accounting principles and have been consistently applied in the preparation of the financial statements.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized when the Company' services are performed. The Company is paid directly by the clients.

Cash Equivalents and Concentrations of Cash

The Company considers all short-term debt securities with maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to significant concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash. The Company's cash is deposited with a single financial institution. Cash and certificates of deposit at banks are insured by the FDIC up to $100,000. At times, the balances in these accounts and trust accounts may be in excess of federally insured limits.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Pursuant to SFAS No. 107, "Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments," the Company is required to estimate the fair value of all financial instruments included on its balance sheet. At December 31, 2013 financial instruments consisted of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable. The Company considers the items in the financial statements to approximate their fair value due to the relatively short period of time between origination of instruments and their expected realization.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are carried at cost. Depreciation of property and equipment is provided using the declining balance method for financial reporting purposes at rates based on the following estimated useful lives:

	Years
Machinery and equipment	5-7
Furniture and fixtures	5-7

Expenditures for major renewals and betterments that extend the useful life of property and equipment are capitalized. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to expenses as incurred.

Provision for Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with statements of Financial Accounting Standards No.1 09.

Under SFAS 109, deferred tax assets may be recognized for temporary differences that will result in deductible amounts in future periods and for loss carry forwards. A valuation allowance is recognized if, based on the weight of available evidence, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred assets will not be realized.

A detail of the Company's deferred tax asset are:

	Dec 31,13
Federal and state net operating loss carry forwards	$4,128,905)
Valuation allowance	(4,128,905)

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

DEBT

The Company is in default on several outstanding bank loans totaling approximately $925,000. The Company ceased payments on these loans in March 2009 and on the maturity date in May 2009 the bank increased the interest rate of the loans to a range between 10.25 and 12.27 per annum. As of the financial statement date, no arrangement has been made to resolve these debts.

One promissory note for $125,000 due to a private party provides that the note holder may, at his option, elect to have part or all of any tendered payment converted to common stock at par value.

INTANGIBLE ASSETS

In 2007 DVME acquired intellectual property consisting of television shows and rights in exchange of shares of common stock. The Company has estimated the value of these rights at approximately $112,000. No independent appraisal or valuation of this property has been performed. To date, activity pertaining to the property has not commenced and accordingly, no amortization has been recorded.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The primary shareholder of the Company received no salary for the year ending December 31, 2013. As of December 31, 2013 the Company owes the primary shareholder $1,433,263 from various loans provided over the past seven years. Interest is provided at 6 per annum.
