NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 - DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Company was originally incorporated in 1988 in the state of Florida. In 2014, TPT Global, Inc., a Nevada corporation, merged with Ally Pharma US, Inc., a Florida corporation, ("Ally Pharma", formerly known as Gold Royalty Corporation) in a "reverse merger" wherein Ally Pharma issued 110,000,000 shares of common stock, or 80% ownership, to the owners of TPT Global, Inc. and Ally Pharma agreed to change its name to TPT Global Tech, Inc. (jointly referred to as "the Company" or "TPTG"). In 2014 the Company acquired all the assets of K Telecom and Wireless LLC ("K Telecom") and Global Telecom International LLC ("Global Telecom"). Effective January 31, 2015, TPTG completed its acquisition of 100% of the outstanding stock of Copperhead Digital Holdings, Inc. ("Copperhead Digital") and Subsidiaries, TruCom, LLC ("TruCom"), Nevada Utilities, Inc. ("Nevada Utilities") and CityNet Arizona, LLC ("CityNet"). In October 2015, the Company acquired the assets of Port2Port Inc. ("Port2Port") and Digithrive Inc. ("Digithrive"). See Note 2.

We generate revenues primarily through operating as a Competitive Local Exchange Carrier (CLEC) in Arizona and as a distributor of cell phones and telecommunications equipment.

Principles of Consolidation

Our accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of K Telecom and Global Telecom since September 2014, Copperhead Digital since February 2015, and Port2Port and Digithrive since October 2015. All intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation (see Notes 2 and 3 to these consolidated financial statements).

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue when a sales transaction closes and the product is accepted by the customer.

Share-based Compensation

The Company is required to measure and recognize compensation expense for all share-based payment awards (including stock options) made to employees and directors based on estimated fair value. Compensation expense for equity-classified awards is measured at the grant date based on the fair value of the award and is recognized as an expense in earnings over the requisite service period.

The Company records compensation expense related to non-employees that are awarded stock in conjunction with selling goods or services, and recognizes compensation expenses over the vesting period of such awards.

Income Taxes

We recognize deferred tax liabilities and assets based on the differences between the tax basis of assets and liabilities and their reported amounts in the consolidated financial statements that will result in taxable or deductible amounts in future years. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. All allowances against deferred income tax assets are recorded in whole or in part, when it is more likely than not those deferred income tax assets will not be realized.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The company considers all investments with a maturity date of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents. There are no cash equivalents as of December 31, 2015.

Accounts Receivable

We establish an allowance for potential uncollectible accounts receivable. All accounts receivable 60 days past due are considered uncollectible unless there are circumstances that support collectability. Those circumstances are documented. As of December 31, 2015 the allowance for uncollectible accounts receivable was zero.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with United States generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results will differ, and could differ materially from those estimates.

Recently Adopted Accounting Pronouncements

The Company continually assesses any new accounting pronouncements to determine their applicability to the Company. Where it is determined that a new accounting pronouncement affects the Company's financial reporting, the Company undertakes a study to determine the consequence of the change to its financial statements and assures that there are proper controls in place to ascertain that the Company's financials properly reflect the change.

Subsequent Events

In accordance with FASB ASC 855, Subsequent Events, the Company evaluated subsequent events through the April 14, 2016, the date the financial statements were available for issue.

NOTE 2 – ACQUISITIONS

In September 2014, TPT Global, Inc. merged with Ally Pharma in a "reverse merger" wherein Alley Pharma issued 110,000,000 shares of common stock, or 80% ownership, to the owners of TPT Global, Inc. and Alley Pharma agreed to change its name to TPT Global Tech, Inc. (jointly referred to as "the Company" or "TPTG"). In 2014 the Company acquired all the assets of K Telecom and Global Telecom. Effective January 31, 2015, TPTG completed its acquisition of 100% of the outstanding stock of Copperhead Digital and Subsidiaries, TruCom, Nevada Utilities and CityNet.

In October 2015, the Company acquired the assets of Port2Port, a wholesale telecommunications company, for 400,000 shares, as amended, of the Company's Series B Preferred Stock, $10,000 in cash and the commitment to spend $50,000 in funds to expand the wholesale network. Also in October 2015, the Company acquired the assets of Digithrive, a California company, for 250,000 shares of the Company's Series B Preferred Stock.

NOTE 3 – GOING CONCERN

Cash flows generated from operating activities were not enough to support all working capital requirements for the year ended December 31, 2015. Financing activities described below, have helped with working capital and other capital requirements. We incurred $1,382,024 in losses, and we used $414,719 in cash for operations for the year ended December 31, 2015.

In conjunction with the acquisition of Copperhead Digital, some of the previous controlling shareholders of Copperhead Digital agreed to certain financing arrangements as part of the acquisition which amounted to $796,377 in convertible debt being contributed to the Company. See Note 5. In October 2015, these financing arrangements were exchanged for common stock.

In order for us to continue as a going concern, we hope to obtain additional debt or equity financing, and look for companies with operations that we can acquire. There can be no assurance that we will be able to secure additional debt or equity financing, that we will be able to acquire cash flow positive operations, or that, if we are successful in any of those actions, those actions will produce adequate cash flow to enable us to meet all our future obligations. Most of our existing financing arrangements are short-term. If we are unable to obtain additional debt or equity financing, we may be required to significantly reduce or cease operations.

NOTE 4 – FIXED ASSETS

The acquisition of Copperhead Digital, effective January 31, 2015, (See Note 2), added significantly to the fixed assets of the Company. The net value assigned to fixed assets, based on an independent appraisal of the underlying fixed assets of Copperhead Digital, is approximately $13,100,000. This amount was recorded to fixed assets and will be depreciated over the estimated remaining life of the underlying fixed assets acquired in the acquisition of 20 years.

Fixed assets for the Company and related accumulated depreciation as of December 31, 2015 is as follows:

Fixed Assets	$ 16,153,981
Accumulated Depreciation	(3,395,647)
	$ 12,758,334

NOTE 5 – FINANCING ARRANGEMENTS

Summary of Debt as of December 31, 2015 is as follows:

	Debt
Promissory Notes (1)	$ 49,400
Bank Line of Credit, secured by assets of Company (2)	2,497,790
TOTAL	$ 2,547,190

(1) The Promissory Notes are loans made to the Company that do not bare interest and are being paid to the lenders as verbally agreed or as cash is available.

(2) The Bank Line of Credit, which is secured by all the assets of the Company, is due May 15, 2016, after the latest extension granted in August 2015. It bears a variable interest rate based on the 1 Month LIBOR plus 2.0% for amounts up to and including $1,250,000 or plus 3.5% for amounts above $1,250,000, is payable monthly, and is secured by funds deposited by a shareholder in addition to the assets of the Company. In relation to the security, the Company has an agreement, entered into with the acquisition of Copperhead Digital, with a specific shareholder whereby the Company will raise funds through debt or equity, and assume the security of the Bank Line of Credit. 1,000,000 shares of common stock of the Company have been reserved to accomplish raising the funds. Subsequent to December 31, 2015, the Bank Line of Credit was increased and funded to the Company by $100,000 to allow the company additional operating funds. In conjunction with this increase, the shareholder increased by $100,000 the collateralized funds deposited with the bank.

In conjunction with the acquisition of Copperhead Digital, the former shareholders of Copperhead Digital agreed to bring accounts payable current for which they would receive promissory notes. As such, they funded a total of $220,000 of Commercial Promissory Notes. The Commercial Promissory Notes did not bear interest, except under default which then would be at the lessor of 12% per annum or the maximum allowable rate under applicable law. Due dates were from December 16, 2016 to January 28, 2017. The Commercial Promissory Notes were convertible at $0.50 per share and were unsecured. In October 2015, all Commercial Promissory Notes were exchanged for 440,000 common shares.

The Convertible Promissory Notes of $250,000 were due to a shareholder, were due three years from the date of issuance, between May 16, 2018 and April 28, 2018, bear interest at 8% per annum, except under default which then would be at the lessor of 12% per annum or the maximum allowable rate under applicable law, and were convertible at $0.50 per share. The Convertible Promissory Notes were unsecured. In October 2015, all Convertible Promissory Notes were exchanged for 500,000 common shares.

In July and August 2015, the Company through a private offering issued Unsecured Commercial Promissory Notes to the former shareholders of Copperhead Digital for $326,377. The Unsecured Commercial Promissory Notes were due as the holder designated in writing, did not bear an interest rate, except under default which then would be at the lessor of 12% per annum or the maximum allowable rate under applicable law. The Unsecured Commercial Promissory Notes were convertible at $0.20 to $0.25 per share. In October 2015, all Unsecured Commercial Promissory Notes were exchanged for 1,496,899 common shares.

NOTE 6 - INCOME TAXES

We recognize deferred tax liabilities and assets for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in its financial statements or tax returns. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on the difference between the financial statement and tax basis of assets and liabilities using the enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which the differences are expected to reverse. The measurement of deferred tax assets is reduced, if necessary, by the amount of any tax benefits that are not expected to be realized based on available evidence.

Temporary differences between the financial statement and tax basis of our assets result primarily from differing depreciation, provision for doubtful accounts, net operating loss carry forwards and the recognition of certain expenses for financial statement purposes and not for tax purposes. These differences were not material for the year ended December 31, 2015 and primarily resulted from the net operating loss in the current year. Copperhead Digital has approximately $8,000,000 of net operating loss carry forwards, which expire in varying amounts, if unused. Because of the change in ownership of more than 50% of Copperhead Digital in accordance with Section 382 of the IRS Code, these net operating loss carry forwards may be limited to use in future periods.

We adopted the provision of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Interpretation No. 48, Accounting of Uncertainty in Income Taxes-An Interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109. Under FIN 48, we must recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by the taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. We measure the tax benefits recognized in the consolidated financial statements from such a position based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate resolution. The application of income tax law is inherently complex. Laws and regulation in this area are voluminous and are often ambiguous. As such, we are required to make many subjective assumptions and judgments regarding our income tax exposures. Interpretations of and guidance surrounding income tax law and regulation change over time and may result in changes to our subjective assumptions and judgments which can materially affect amounts recognized in our consolidated financial statements. The result of the assessment of our tax positions in accordance with FIN 48 did not have a material impact on our consolidated financial statements.

It is our policy to record costs associated with interest and penalties related to tax in the selling, general and administrative line of the consolidated statements of operations. The federal and state tax returns for Copperhead Digital have not been filed for the years ended December 2014 and 2013.
