SEC Amendments

1. Larry Sands' consideration is not irrelevant, due to the fact that said shares were obtained from a private shareholder, not the company; making it a private transaction.

2. JAX Capital Growth – Irrelevant information for same reason as above, shares were purchased from a private shareholder, not the company; making it a private transaction.

3. The DTC chill has been removed as of March 17th, 2016. Please see link: OTC Markets News on HIPH

4. The $30,000 in notes to the previous CEO, has been purchased and retired by the current CEO.

5. The $850,000 note was settled and retired at $160,000, all this in December 2015. Please see link: Debt Retirement PR

6. In October 2015, a note for $250,000 had begun to be issued, of which $97,000 was advanced. The approximate balance of $160,000 was used toward retirement of the note mentioned in #5.
