There is an SEC complaint filed against Luke Zouvas. According to the SEC's complaint against Zouvas, Robb, Larson, Schiprett and Jorgenson, filed on April 25, 2016 in federal court, Larson obtained controlling shares of Crown from Zwebner and, although Larson controlled Crown and acted as its de facto chief financial officer, his name did not appear in any of Crown's filings with the Commission. With the assistance of Luke C. Zouvas, an attorney based in San Diego who served as Crown's general counsel, Larson transferred free-trading Crown shares from Zwebner's nominees - purported shareholders in Crown's IPO - to Larson's nominees, including Jorgenson and Schiprett.

To the best of Counsel's knowledge, after inquiry of management and the majority of the directors of the Issuer, neither Counsel, nor the Issuer, nor any 5% or more holders of the Securities is currently under investigation by any federal or state regulatory authority for any violation of federal or state securities laws.

The undersigned is licensed in the State of California and resides in that state. Counsel is a United States resident and has been retained by the Issuer for the purpose of rendering this Letter and related matters.

Counsel has relied on information obtained from public officials, officers of the Issuer, and other sources. Counsel has no reason to believe that the records, certificates, or other documents of the Issuer (that we have reviewed) are not accurate, authentic, or reliable. The opinion expressed above is subject to the following assumptions, exceptions and qualifications:

(a) We have assumed that (i) all information in all documents reviewed by us is true and correct, (ii) all signatures on all documents reviewed by us are genuine, (iii) all documents submitted to us as originals are true and complete, (iv) all documents submitted to us as copies are true and complete copies of the originals thereof, and (v) each natural person signing any document reviewed by us had the legal capacity to do so.

(b) We have made no independent investigation as to the accuracy or completeness of any factual matters contained in the records, documents and certificates that we have reviewed in connection with the foregoing opinion.

(c) We are admitted to practice law in the State of California. The opinion expressed above is limited to the federal laws of the United States of America and the laws of the state of Colorado. No other opinion is expressed regarding the law of other jurisdictions, choice of law, or conflict of law and this Letter does not rely on the work of other counsel.

(d) Counsel is permitted to practice before the SEC and has not been prohibited from practice thereunder.

We express no opinion as to any matter other than as expressly set forth above, and no opinion on any other matter may be inferred or implied from this Letter. The opinions expressed herein are given as of the date of this Letter, and we disclaim any obligation to advise you of any change in any matter set forth herein.

Very Truly Yours,

Luke C. Zouvas
