For the year ended December 31, 2015 the Company had no stock transactions.

For the three months ended March 31, 2016 the Company had no stock transactions.

Financial Statement Presentation

The acquisition was treated as a reverse merger whereby the acquired company is treated as the acquiring company for accounting purposes.

An Exploration Stage Company

The Company is an Exploration Stage Company since it is engaged in the search for mineral deposits, which are not in the development or productions stage. As an exploration stage company the Company will present, since inception, results on its statements of operations, stockholders' equity and cash flows.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all short-term debt securities purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. There was cash paid during the year 2015 for interest of $472.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are carried at cost. Maintenance, repairs and renewals are expensed as incurred. Depreciation of property and equipment is provided for over their estimated useful lives, which range from five, seven and ten years, using the straight-line method.

Lease Acquisition Costs

Lease acquisition cost of $281,050 at March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015, primarily includes costs incurred to build and improve the road on the leased land. Since mining has not commenced, no amortization expense has been recognized for the periods presented. Amortization will be recorded using the units-of-production method when mining begins.

Environmental Liabilities
The Company is subject to a variety of federal and state environmental regulations and agencies. The Company will only accrue liabilities for environmental claims and damages when it is probable and the costs are estimable.

Use of Estimates
The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Concentration of Credit Risk
The Company places its cash in financial institutions which are insured by FDIC. At times, such cash may be in excess of the FDIC insurance limits.

NOTE 2 – INCOME TAXES

The Company accounts for income taxes under principals, which requires the Company to recognize deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been recognized in the Company's financial statements or tax returns. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on the difference between the financial statement carrying amounts and tax basis of the assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates. The Company has no significant differences between book and tax accounting. At March 31, 2016, the Company had an estimated tax loss carry-forward of approximately $3,400,000. Due to uncertainties as to future profitability the value of the net operating loss carry forward is fully reserved.

If not used, the carryforwards will expire are follows:

Year 2024 $174,630	Year 2030 $161,122
Year 2025 516,401	Year 2031 335,842

Year 2028 425,014	Year 2035 75,588
Year 2029 541,860
	Total $3,414,030

Years open to IRS examination are 2015, 2014, 2013, 2012 as of the date of these financials.

NOTE 3 – MINERAL LEASE

As of the date of this financial statement the Board of Directors have signed a 5 year lease with an option to renew for an additional 5 years. The royalty payment will be 3% of net smelter returns. The lease is 60,000 per year. The first year was paid to the owner of the property, Leland Minerals LLC and has been reflected in prepaid expenses. There is an agreement to apply royalty payments towards the lease payment in subsequent years. The lease guarantees Sidney Resources the exclusive rights and options to lease the Lucky Ben Mine Group Properties and mineral rights located within the Warren Mine District of Idaho. The lease is being amortized over 60 months. Amortization for the three months ended March 31, 2016 was $3,000 and accumulated amortization was $15,000 at March 31, 2016 and $12,000 at December 31, 2015.

NOTE 4 – RELATED PARTIES
