6. Describe the Issuer's Business, Products and Services.

a. A description of the issuer's business operations.

The Company owns and operates the assets, with the exception of the real estate, of Gregory Palm Farms, LLC. The operations were acquired in a stock transaction for 10,500,000 shares of California Style Palms, Inc. Common Stock on September 30, 2013.

Gregory Palm Farms, LLC.'s goal is to produce the very best palms suitable for the Southern California area. We are fourth generation farmers who live to grow our own products and love what we do. We pride ourselves in the fact that all of our palm trees are California grown and are therefore, more suitable to the environments we market. Our family owns and operates two farms in California, and have set up our central location in Orange, Orange County. In Orange, we are able to operate the business, and show a large variety of our field grown stock without having to travel the distance to our growing grounds.

The Pauma Valley farm is our largest growing location of palms, and these palms can weather conditions down to 20 degrees and handle snow from Mt. Palomar a few weeks out of the year. With these varying temperatures, we can supply cold, hardy palm trees to the Northwestern and Southeast states.

The assets acquired include:

- Farms in Orange County, California, and Pauma Valley, California.
- Equipment and buildings for farm operations, shipping and crane services
- Inventory including -
  Canary Island Date Palms
  Queen Palms and King Palms
  Triange Palms
  Large Sago Palms
  Washingtonia Date Palms
- Retail and wholesale operations

Gregory Palm Farms, LLC ("Gregory Palm Farms"), located in Orange, California, is a fourth generation palm tree farm. Gregory Palm Farms is family owned and operated. Mr. Burl Gregory, our President and Chairman, owns and operates Gregory Palm Farms. Gregory Palm Farms has farms in Orange County and Pauma Valley in California .

With the completion of the acquisition of Gregory Palm Farms, the Company intends to continue operations in the growing and sale of palm trees, but plans to use 87 acres of nonfarming acreage to begin the construction of a solar farm on the property. Management intends to augment the revenue of the palm tree farm with revenue from the sale of solar produced electricity and the sale of carbon credits.

Management of the Company intends to acquire additional palm trees farms, though no such acquisitions have been entered into as of June 30, 2015. Management has identified several acquisition targets.

b. The Issuer's primary and secondary SIC Codes:

Primary SIC Code: 800 - Forestry

Secondary SIC Code: N/A

c. The issuer's fiscal year end date: December 31st.

d. Principal products or services and their markets:

Gregory Palm Farms offers 19 varieties of palm trees for sale for decorative purposes. The palm trees are grown at one of two locations and can be delivered and replanted in California, Nevada, Arizona and Hawaii.

The Company intends use non-productive areas of the farms to develop solar produced electricity in the California area, upon the completion of a proposed solar farm(s).

While the company focuses its current marketing efforts in the southwest United States (California, Arizona and Nevada) and Hawaii, the market for decorative and ornamental palms in the United States reaches throughout the south and southeast with major market opportunities including Florida and Texas.

The ornamental and decorative palm farming and sales business is characterized by fragmented smaller operators serving largely local markets. These smaller operations tend to be family owned and operated, often through several generations. Competition also tends to be fragmented based , largely geographically centered on the farming location. For commercial sales, the key marketing considerations in the industry are varieties of palms, availability and price as suppliers complete to fulfill commercial landscape jobs. These industry dynamics lend themselves to a strategy of consolidation.

7. Describe the Issuer's Facilities.
