ITEM 6. DESCRIBE THE ISSUER'S BUSINESS, PRODUCTS AND SERVICES.

A. DESCRIPTION OF ISSUER'S BUSINESS OPERATIONS.

The company was originally founded in 2003 as a Visual Effects production service boutique - providing VFX consultation, art production and management services to the video game, film and television industries. The company has produced visual effects seen by audiences around the world and its award winning artists and staff have worked on some of the highest profile television shows aired in recent history. Since May of 2010 the company has expanded itself into the business of producing training materials for visual effects and game production artists while also developing its own intellectual property in the form of TV shows, Films, Games and more. With more than 250 training products and several production tools retailing through its sub-division Liberty3d.com it has experienced strong steady growth with revenues doubling each year. Sensing strong demand for new, fresh stories of characters immersed in diverse and rich, expansive universes - the company has been working towards the goal of producing its own IP for delivery to audiences world-wide. It intends to do this by capitalizing on shifts in media distribution and display devices technology aiming to position itself aggressively using a first mover advantage strategy.

As of September 23, 2015, the company sold all of its previous assets and holdings. On September 20, 2015, the company purchased 127 episodes of " On The Mike" with Mike Sherman, a TV show that includes , but is not limited to, celebrity interviews, music concerts, and exclusive behind the scenes events. Some of the celebrities interviewed were as follows;

Kim Kardashian
Justin Bieber
Flo Rida
