NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(September 30, 2015 and December 31, 2014)

NOTE 1. GENERAL ORGANIZATION AND BUSINESS

Direct Equity International, Inc. (the Company) was organized in the state of New York as International Telescript in 1987 and became inactive in 1988. On October 15, 1997 International Telescript was acquired by Interstate Care Systems, a Nevada Corporation, through a reverse merger. With the change of control the Company was re-domiciled in Nevada and the name was changed to Healthcare Management Resources, Inc. to better reflect the nature of its business. On March 15, 1999, the Company did a 1:9 reverse stock split and changed its name to Triad Industries, Inc. On May 4, 2006 the Company changed its name to the current Direct Equity International, Inc. On February 10, 2014 the Company organized a Utah corporation known as Cyberworld Studios, Inc. which is a wholly-owned subsidiary.

The Company develops and markets application software for business and provides a variety of services to software development companies.

NOTE 2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Financial Statement Presentation

The balance sheet presentation herein includes all assets and liabilities at historical cost. No costs for any past project development have been capitalized, and the Company over the past approximate three years has focused on the development of its resource industry structured financing and streaming business.

The Company has on occasion issued shares of its common stock in exchange for certain services from the Company's Officers & Directors, business consultants and vendors. The stock has been issued at the fair-valued-based method. The cost of these services has been expensed in the period when the services were performed. No costs of services that were paid with stock have been capitalized.

Accounting Basis

These financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Fiscal Year

The Company operates on a December 31 fiscal year end.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, cash equivalents include all highly liquid investments with maturity of three months or less.

Revenue Recognition

Revenues from services are recognized when there is persuasive evidence of an arrangement, the fee is fixed or determinable, services have been rendered, payment has been contractually earned, and it is reasonably assured that the related receivable or unbilled revenue is collectable.

Advertising

Advertising and marketing costs are expensed as incurred. Marketing expense totaled zero and $5,110 for the period ended September 30, 2015 and the year ended December 31, 2014 respectively.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, requires disclosing fair value to the extent practicable for financial instruments that are recognized or unrecognized in the balance sheet. Fair value of financial instruments is the amount at which the instruments could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties. The Company considers the carrying amounts of cash, certificates of deposit, accounts receivable, accounts payable, notes payable, related party and other payables, customer deposits, and short term loans approximate their fair values because of the short period of time between the origination of such instruments and their expected realization. The Company considers the carrying amount of notes payable to approximate their fair values based on the interest rates of the instruments and the current market rate of interest.

Dividends

The Company has not yet adopted any policy regarding payment of dividends. No dividends have been paid during the periods reported.

Income Taxes

The provision for income taxes is the total of the current taxes payable and the net of the change in the deferred income taxes. Provision is made for the deferred income taxes where differences exist between the period in which transactions affect current taxable income and the period in which they enter into the determination of net income in the financial statements.

Earnings (Loss) per Share

The basic earnings (loss) per share is calculated by dividing the Company's net income available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares during the year. The diluted earnings (loss) per share is calculated by dividing the Company's net income (loss) available to common shareholders by the diluted weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year. The diluted weighted average number of shares outstanding is the basic weighted number of shares adjusted as of the first of the year for any potentially dilutive debt or equity.

The Company has issued 50,000,000 shares of preferred stock which can be converted on demand by the holder to 500,000,000 common shares and has included those share instruments as if converted in its computation of the diluted loss per share.

Stock Based Compensation

The Company has on occasion issued equity and equity linked instruments to non-employees in lieu of cash to various vendors for the receipt of goods and services and, in certain circumstances the settlement of short-term loan arrangements. The applicable GAAP guidance establishes that share-based payment transactions with nonemployees shall be measured at the fair value of the consideration received or the fair value of the equity instruments issued, whichever is more reliably measurable.

All stock issuances for compensation with the exception 20,000,000 shares of common stock valued at $20,000 were issued prior to December 31, 2014

Recent Accounting Guidance

The Company has evaluated the recent accounting pronouncements through ASU 2015-16 and has applied implementation of ASU 2014-10 by eliminating reference to itself as a development stage entity and inception-to-date reporting. The Company believes that none of the other pronouncements will have a material effect on the company's financial statements.

NOTE 3. GOING CONCERN

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern which contemplates the realization of assets and the liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of business. As of September 30, 2015, the Company has accumulated a loss of $243,266. The Company is dependent upon raising additional capital and without realization of such it would be unlikely for the Company to continue as a going concern. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from this uncertainty.

Management plans to continue to seek funding from its shareholders and other qualified investors to pursue its business plan. .

NOTE 4. NOTES PAYABLE AND OPERATIONAL LOANS--RELATED PARTY

Certain officers of the corporation have provided short term non-interest bearing operational loans to the company to finance day-to-day operations.

During the year ended December 31, 2014, the Company converted a $60,000 interest bearing operational note into common stock with $5,209 accrued interest outstanding. A second interest bearing operational note of $65,000 remains outstanding with interest accruing. A summary of operational loans and notes payable for the reported periods follows:

	September 30, 2015	December 31, 2014

NOTE 5. STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY

Preferred Stock

The Company is authorized to issue 50,000,000 preferred shares at a par value of $0.001 with each preferred share having 10 votes and convertible to ten (10) common shares upon demand.

As of December 31, 2013 the Company has 50,000,000 preferred shares issued and outstanding.

Common Stock

The Company is authorized to issue 900,000,000 common shares at a par value of $0.001 per share. On March 15, 1999, the Company executed a 1:9 reverse stock split the results of the stock split has been retroactively applied to these statements.

As of December 31, 2013, the Company has a total of 408,450,994 shares of common stock issued and outstanding.

During the third quarter of 2014 the Company issued 20,000,000 common shares to settle $20,000 note payable balance and has note issued additional shares since.

During the third quarter of 2015, the Company was authorized to write-off $192,736 of its accounts and operation loans payable to contributed capital.

NOTE 6. ASSETS

During the year ended December 31, 2014 the Company purchased office equipment valued at $1,206 and is using straight line depreciation with a five year useful life as follows:

	September 30, 2015	December 31, 2014
Office Equipment	$ 1,206	$ 1,206
Less: Accumulated Depreciation	(360)	(180)
Net Equipment	$ 846	$ 1,026

NOTE 7. PROVISION FOR INCOME TAXES

The Company provides for income taxes under ASC 740 "Income Taxes" which requires the use of an asset and liability approach in accounting for income taxes. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recorded based on the differences between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities and the tax rates in effect currently.

The standard requires the reduction of deferred tax assets by a valuation allowance if, based on the weight of available evidence, it is more likely than not that some or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. In the Company's opinion, it is uncertain whether they will generate sufficient taxable income in the future to fully utilize the net deferred tax asset. Accordingly, a valuation allowance equal to the deferred tax asset has been recorded. The total deferred tax asset is $85,143 which is calculated by multiplying a 35% estimated tax rate by the cumulative NOL of $243,266. The total valuation allowance is a comparable $85,143.

Details for the quarter ended September 30, 2015 and the year ended December 31, 2014 follow:

	September 30, 2015	December 31, 2014
Deferred Tax Asset	$ 4,565	$ 53,780
Valuation Allowance	(4,565)	(53,780)
Current Taxes Payable	-	-
Income Tax Expense	$ -	$ -

Below is a chart showing the estimated federal net operating losses and the years in which they will expire.

Year	Amount	Expiration
