5. Basis of presentation

In the opinion of management, the accompanying balance sheets and related interim statements of income, cash flows, and stockholders' equity include all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring items, necessary for their fair presentation in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the Unites States of America (U.S. GAAP). Preparing financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue, and expenses. Actual results and outcomes may differ from management's estimates and assumptions.

Principal of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Italian Food & Beverage Corp. (the Company) and its subsidiaries the Italian Food & Beverage Corp. a Nevada Corporation and its subsidiaries the Just Wine S.P.A., an Italian corporation holding a 75% majority interest in Just Wine Far East Pte Ltd., a Singapore corporation, a 95% majority interest in Just Wine Gmbh, an Austrian corporation and a 95% majority interest in Just Wine Kft, a Hungarian corporation referred to as the European subsidiaries in our consolidated statements. The Company has organized a new Singapore corporation called IFBC SG PTE, LTD which hasn't started activity yet. Accordingly, the investment and organization costs are consolidated with IFBC-DEL. All material inter-company accounts and transactions have been eliminated. European activity has been converted from Euros to U.S. Dollars

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

The Company does not have significant collection history with its customers. However, where the Company is aware of circumstances that may impair a specific customer's ability to pay, the Company will reduce the receivable to net realizable value by recording an appropriate allowance. At December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2014 no allowance for doubtful accounts was required. At September 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015 no allowance for doubtful accounts was required.

Revenue Recognition

Revenues are recognized as services are performed and deliveries are made in accordance with the terms of customer contracts. Costs directly related to the development and data collection services, which include but are not limited to subcontractors, domain acquisition, and other costs directly related, are included in the cost of goods sold. Retail sales are recognized when products are shipped.

Recent Accounting Guidance Not Yet Adopted

The Company has evaluated the recent accounting pronouncements through ASU 2015- 02 and believes that none of them will have a material effect on the company's financial statements.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an original maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents. There were no cash equivalents September 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015.

Advertising Cost

Advertising and marketing costs are expensed as incurred. For the period ended September 30, 2016 and the year ended December 31, 2015 advertising expense were $56 and $28,611.

Income Taxes

The provision for income taxes is the total of the current taxes payable and the net of the change in the deferred income taxes. Provision is made for the deferred income taxes where differences exist between the period in which transactions affect current taxable income and the period in which they enter into the determination of net income in the financial statements.

Stock-Based Compensation

The Company accounts for its stock based compensation based upon provisions in ASC Topic 718 Compensation-Stock Compensation. The Company utilizes the fair value of the stock issued as the measure of the value of services obtained to record the stock issued for compensation.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

The Company regularly reviews long-lived assets for indicators of impairment. Management's judgments regarding the existence of impairment indicators are based on performance. Future events could cause management to conclude that impairment indicators exist and that the value of long-lived assets is impaired. When events or circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable, the fair value of the asset is compared to its carrying value. Impairment losses are measured as the amount by which the carrying value of an asset exceeds its estimated fair value.

Intangible Assets

The Company has capitalized the purchase/development cost of its revenue producing web-sites and application. The Company amortized these assets over their estimated useful lives beginning January 1, 2014. A summary of assets follows: On August 28, 2014, the company received $25,000 for a 25% interest in the web-site CanDoBetter. The net depreciated value of the web-site was $27,000 at the time of sale.

Loss per Common Share

Basic loss per share is computed by dividing the net loss by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. Basic loss per share also excludes any dilutive effect of warrants. Diluted net loss per share includes the issuance of Class B preferred shares that are each convertible to 100 common shares and does not include warrants, as they are anti-dilutive. include warrants, as they are anti-dilutive.

GOING CONCERN

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the company will continue as a going concern. The Company commenced operations in the first quarter of 2003. Since inception, it has incurred losses and negative cash flows from operations. The Company has been dependent upon external financing, including private sales of securities and borrowings from its CEO to fund operations. The Company has reported operating loss of $401,044 for the period ended September 30, 2016 and an operating loss of $455,165 for the year ended December 31, 2015 from consolidated revenues of $660,823 and $864,616 from the same periods respectively. The Company has an inception to date accumulated deficit of $6,902,044. Of the accumulated deficit, $4,059,978 was for non-cash transaction wherein stock was issued for services or interest on settlement of debt and $1,007,306 was the result of restructuring its subsidiaries. This raises doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from this uncertainty.

Management has substantially increased the Company's profitability and cash flow with the acquisition of the Italian Food & Beverage Corp (IFBC-NV) and its European subsidiaries.

Management continues to seek additional debt or equity funding. There is no assurance that its efforts will be successful, or that the Company will be able to obtain additional debt or equity financing on terms acceptable to the Company. Failure to raise needed funds on satisfactory terms could have a material adverse impact on the Company's business, operating results or financial condition.
