NOTE 1 – Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Business

Radiant Creations Group, Inc. ("the Company") has created innovative technologies in skin protection and enhancement, which consist of various proprietary products including an anti-aging and revitalizing skin cream generally sold under the "Radiant Creations" label. The Company's principal business is the development and marketing of unique and proprietary scientific technologies and cosmetic and over-the-counter personal enhancement products and devices and currently sells its products exclusively over the internet to customers located globally.

NIT Enterprises, Inc. ("NITE") was incorporated in the state of Delaware on May 12, 2014 and is doing business in the State of Florida. As of February 29, 2016, NITE was majority owned by the Company and was formed to permit Radiant Creations Group to "spin-off" the Nucleotide ("NA") technology it holds.

On March 11, 2016, the Company executed a General Release and Separation Agreement with NIT Enterprises, Inc. (NITE) and other related and unrelated parties wherein the parties agreed to separate NIT Enterprises Inc. and The Radiant Creations Group, Inc. Terms of the Separation include: Transfer of certain debt and accrued interest from Radiant to NITE, assumption of certain accounts payables of Radiant by NITE, cancellation of all related employment contracts of the officers and directors of both entities and transfer of ownership of series A and series B preferred stock from Mr. Gary R. Smith, the former CEO, to Michael S. and Gary D. Alexander, the current CEO and CFO, respectively, in exchange for 50% of the 10,000,000 founder shares of NITE held by Radiant and cancellation of 500,000 shares of NITE common stock held by Michael S. Alexander, CEO of Radiant.

Non-controlling Interest in Consolidated Financial Statements

The Company held a controlling interest in NIT Enterprises, Inc. and reported amounts attributable to non-controlling interest as separate components of deficit and net loss through the fiscal year ending February 29, 2016. For the nine months ended November 30, 2016, the Company is no longer reporting its minority-interest in NITE in the financial statements as a result of the General Release and Separation Agreement consummated on March 11, 2016.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The Company's significant estimates include the valuation of stock-based compensation and derivative liabilities, estimates for future charge-backs, and allowance for slow moving or obsolete inventory.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with an original term of three months or less to be cash equivalents. As of November 30, 2016 and August 31, 2015, the Company had no cash equivalents.

Inventory

Inventory consists of finished goods and is valued at the lower of cost or market value. Cost is determined using the first in first out (FIFO) method. Provision for potentially obsolete or slow moving inventory is made based on management analysis or inventory levels and future sales forecasts.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost, net of depreciation provided by use of a straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, of five years. The Company reviews property and equipment for potential impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amounts of assets may not be recoverable.

Basic and diluted net loss per share

Basic loss per share is computed using the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during each period. Diluted loss per share includes the dilutive effects of common stock equivalents on an "as if converted" basis. As of November 30, 2016, the number of potentially dilutive shares consisted of 1,536,267 shares underlying convertible debt as well as options to acquire 30,440 shares. For the nine months ended November 30, 2016 and 2015, potential dilutive securities had an anti-dilutive effect and were not included in the calculation of diluted net loss per common share.

Related parties

The Company follows subtopic ASC 850, Related Party Disclosure, for the identification of related parties and disclosure of related party transactions.

Revenue Recognition

The Company follows guidance under ASC 605, Revenue Recognition, in determining when to report income from operations. The Company recognizes revenues when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, the price is fixed or determinable, and collection of the resulting receivable is reasonably assured. Revenue recognized by the Company normally occurs upon shipment of our product to the customer.

Cost of Revenue

Amounts recorded as cost of revenue relate to direct expenses incurred in order to fulfill orders of our products. Such costs are recorded as incurred. Our cost of revenue consists primarily of the cost of product; refunds and chargebacks; processing fees; and the cost of product samples.

Cash flows reporting

The Company follows ASC 230, Statement of Cash Flows, for cash flows reporting, classifies cash receipts and payments according to whether they stem from operating, investing, or financing activities and provides definitions of each category, and uses the indirect or reconciliation method ("Indirect method") as defined by ASC 230, Statement of Cash Flows, to report net cash flow from operating activities by adjusting net loss to reconcile it to net cash flows from operating activities by removing the effects of (a) all deferrals of past operating cash receipts and payments and all accruals of expected future operating cash receipts and payments and (b) all items that are included in net loss that do not affect operating cash receipts and payments.

Share-based Expense

ASC 718, Compensation – Stock Compensation, prescribes accounting and reporting standards for all share-based payment transactions in which employee services are acquired. Transactions include incurring liabilities, or issuing or offering to issue shares, options, and other equity instruments such as employee stock ownership plans and stock appreciation rights. Share-based payments to employees, including grants of employee stock options, are recognized as compensation expense in the financial statements based on their fair values. That expense is recognized over the period during which an employee is required to provide services in exchange for the award, known as the requisite service period (usually the vesting period).

The Company accounts for stock-based compensation issued to non-employees and consultants in accordance with the provisions of ASC 505-50, Equity – Based Payments to Non-Employees. Measurement of share-based payment transactions with non-employees is based on the fair value of whichever is more reliably measurable: (a) the goods or services received; or (b) the equity instruments issued. The fair value of the share-based payment transaction is determined at the earlier of performance commitment date or performance completion date.

Share-based expense for the nine months ended November 30, 2016 and 2015 was $421,549 and $652,861, respectively.

Income Taxes

The Company utilizes the asset and liability method to measure and record deferred income tax assets and liabilities. Deferred tax assets and liabilities reflect the future income tax effects of temporary differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases and are measured using enacted tax rates that apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized.

The Company follows the provisions of Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, which clarified the accounting for uncertainties in tax positions and required that the Company recognizes in its financial statements the impact of an uncertain tax position, if that position has more likely than not chance of not being sustained on audit, based on technical merits of that position.

The Company is subject to the United States federal and state income tax examinations by the tax authorities for the 2015, 2014, and 2013 tax years.

Recently issued accounting pronouncements

In August 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) No. 2016-15 Statement of Cash Flows (Topic 230): Classification of Certain Cash Receipts and Cash Payments. The amendments in this ASU introduce clarifications to the presentation of certain cash receipts and cash payments in the statement of cash flows. The primary updates include additions and clarifications of the classification of cash flows related to certain debt repayment activities, contingent consideration payments related to business combinations, proceeds from insurance policies, distributions from equity method investees and cash flows related to securitized receivables. This update is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2017, including interim periods within those fiscal years. Early adoption of this ASU is permitted, including in interim periods. The ASU requires retrospective application to all prior periods presented upon adoption. The Company intends to adopt the ASU for the fiscal year ending February 28, 2018.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). This update requires organizations to recognize lease assets and lease liabilities on the balance sheet and also disclose key information about leasing arrangements. This ASU is effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after December 15, 2018, and interim periods within those annual periods. Earlier application is permitted for all entities as of the beginning of an interim or annual period. Management is currently evaluating the overall effect adoption of this ASU will have on our financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows. We currently believe the adoption of this ASU will not have a significant effect on our Consolidated Balance Sheets.

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606) and subsequent clarifications. ASU No. 2014-09 replaced almost all existing revenue recognition guidance, including industry-specific guidance, upon its effective date. The standard’s core principle is for a company to recognize revenue when it transfers goods or services to customers in amounts that reflect the consideration to which the company expects to be entitled. A company may also need to use more judgment and make more estimates when recognizing revenue, which could result in additional disclosures. ASU 2014-09 also provides guidance for transactions that were not addressed comprehensively in previous guidance, such as the recognition of breakage income from the sale of gift cards. The standard permits the use of either the retrospective or cumulative effect transition method. On August 12, 2015, the FASB issued an Accounting Standards Update (ASU) deferring the effective date of the new revenue recognition standard by one year to annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017. The guidance is effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those years, beginning after December 15, 2017. Early application is permitted only as of annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2016, including interim reporting periods within that reporting period. We plan to adopt this ASU in the fiscal year ending February 28, 2017 and utilize a cumulative effect of applying this ASU recognized at the date of initial application. While we are still in the process of evaluating the effect that these ASU's may have on our financial statements, we do not currently expect a material effect on our financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

NOTE 2 – Going Concern

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the basis of accounting principles applicable to a "going concern", which assume that the Company will continue in operation for at least one year and will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of operations.

Several conditions and events cast substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The Company has a working capital deficit of $2,650,254 as of November 30, 2016 and has incurred net losses since inception. The Company's future capital requirements will depend on numerous factors including, but not limited to, executing its marketing and business plans and the pursuit of business opportunities. These factors raise substantial doubt regarding the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

These financial statements do not include any adjustments to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

NOTE 3 – Non-controlling Interest

ITEM 6 - DESCRIBE THE ISSUER'S BUSINESS, PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

The Radiant Creations Group, Inc., formerly known as Nova Mining Corporation (the "Company") was incorporated in Nevada on December 29, 2005. From inception, the Company's principal business activity was the acquisition and exploration of mineral resources. On June 20, 2013, following a change of control and subsequent acquisition of an exclusive license agreement, certain assets and processes to innovative technologies in skin protection and enhancement, which consist of various proprietary products including an anti-aging and revitalizing skin creme generally under the "Radiant Creations" label, the Company changed its principal business to the development and marketing of unique and proprietary scientific technologies and cosmetic and over-the-counter personal enhancement products and devices.

CURRENT MARKETING PLAN

Radiant's product marketing plan is based on a 4-part strategy for year 2016. Our strategy is designed to maximize cash inflow from the existing revenues while increasing growth through engaging additional marketing affiliate partners, acquiring additional investment capital infusion and new product development.

The steps are as follows:

1. Current Trial Sale Marketing Program: Our current trial sale marketing program is an on-line continuity model that requires an initial high level of investment capital inflow in order to achieve an extremely high level of gross revenue outflow upon reaching the 3rd billing cycle.

Our customers receive the product on the first trial order at a competitive $4.95 trial price (the shipping costs). Radiant engages a professional marketing company that acquires the customers at a flat rate acquisition fee, priced $45-$50 per customer. If the customer chooses to keep the initial product then they are charged the remaining full price of $89.98 continuing on a monthly basis until the customer chooses to cancel the subscription offer.

The explosive profitability comes into play when the customer is repeatedly retained. The longer one can retain the customer the more profitable the sale becomes as a result of the "one time" (initial) customer acquisition cost. Industry averages for a customer retained longer than three billing cycles is considered an extremely good customer. Additional factors that keep customer retention levels high include good Company/Customer communications, timely customer service response time for customers inquiring about the products and most importantly, an effective product with impressive packaging, which Radiant has achieved.

2. Ad Exchange Marking Group: Management initially engaged Ad Exchange Group (Ad Exchange) as they presented an easy program entry concept including a secondary partnership with an ancillary wrinkle removing eye serum product. The majority of on-line trial sale marketing campaigns are sold in two-part steps. In our program, Revivasol is Step 1 and the wrinkle removing eye serum product is Step 2. Currently, Radiant's Eye Serum product to be paired with Revivasol is underdevelopment and is expected to be completed by mid-summer. Working with Ad Exchange Group, we were able to partner with the ancillary product that allowed us to put Revivasol into the hands of the consumer and create a strong reoccurring revenue stream for Radiant Creations.

Using Ad Exchange Group, Radiant is currently running approximately 300 new customer sales per week (traffic). Company sales with Ad Exchange Group began in early February, 2016. Initial and reoccurring sales and the continual customer retention has produced over $100,000 gross revenue per month through the month of May, 2016.

Thereafter, this model based on one Radiant product (Revivasol) will continue to grow organically for six months before plateauing at a level of above $150,000 gross revenue per month or $450,000 gross revenue per quarter. Although confident in our ability to expand the Revivasol revenue stream using the Ad Exchange Group platform Management prefers to diversify its risk by engaging a secondary marking company and expanding its affiliate marketing strategy.

3. "NEW" Marketing Group: In order to diversify the Company marketing risk and further expand our affiliate marketing revenue stream, Management has undertaken a strategic partnership with NEW Marketing Group. NEW offers a successful trial sale marketing platform similar to that of Ad Exchange Group which requires Radiant to utilize a two-step product marketing model. Therefore, Radiant has engaged its manufacture AIG Technologies to formulate a fresh and unique wrinkle removing eye serum.

NEW has been in the online marketing industry for several years and has built a strong affiliate marketing system that allows customers like Radiant to reach numbers as high as 5,000 new customers per week. With the completion of our step-2 product by early to mid-summer, 2016, Radiant will begin running new customer traffic through the NEW's platform in addition to existing traffic we continue to run with Ad Exchange Group. Management intends to initially run an additional 700 new sales per week increasing to 900-1200 new sales thereafter. These new sales numbers will produce gross revenue approaching $1,000,000 per quarter through the Jumleberry platform alone.

4. Additional Ad-on Products: With the completion of the Company's 2-step products and engaging the NEW marketing program, Management intends to add two additional ancillary products to both the Ad Exchange Group and the NEW marketing platforms. The products will include Revivasol SPF-15 and Revivasol Spot Remover. Minimal set-up costs are required for both affiliate marketers as these products will be added onto the existing website sales pages with no additional customer acquisition costs incurred. The products will not be sold as part of the trial sale but as a one-time purchase for customers that desire these products as an up-sell item. Management anticipates these additional sales will produce in excess of $250,000 in gross revenue per quarter with a extremely high profit margins as a result of not requiring additional customer acquisition costs or marketing expenses other than website up-grades.

Conclusion and Investment Capital Requirements: The key factors to accomplishing Managements goals are already completed. The completed tasks include; achieving initial revenue utilizing Ad Exchange Marketing Group, prepayment of product costs expenses for up to 14,000 additional units of Revivasol formula to be manufactured, establishing a successful and effective customer service system, engagement of NEW Marketing Group as affiliate marketing partner, completed formulas for Revivasol SPF-15 and Revivasol Spot Remover and access to sufficient merchant processing capacity to sustain increase gross revenue.

Fulfillment: Our Fulfillment services provide real time tracking capability, which allows Radiant Creations to fulfill most orders within 24 hours. As such, we are able to guarantee timely, accurate shipments at great rates. Regardless of quantity, time frame, or weight Radiant Creations will process orders efficiently. The knowledgeable Fulfillment Center Staff works from early in the morning to late at night every day making sure each and every order ships timely and successfully.

COMPETITION

The skin care and online marketing businesses are characterized by vigorous competition throughout the world. Brand recognition, quality, performance and price have a significant impact on consumers' choices among competing products and brands. We compete against a number of companies, some of which have substantially greater resources than we do.

Our principal competitors consist of large, well-known, multinational manufacturers and distributors of skin care products, most of which market and sell their products under multiple brand names. We also face competition from a number of independent brands, as well as some retailers that have developed their own beauty brands.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

We have incurred no research and development expenditures to date.
