During July, 2015, the Company’s listing was transferred from the TSX Venture Exchange to the NEX under the symbol FFC.H.

The Company’s head office and principal address is suite 202 – 837 West Hastings Street, Vancouver, BC, V6C 3N6 and its registered and records office is suite 2900 – 595 Burrard Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, V7X 1J5.

These unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared by management on a going concern basis which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future. The Company has not generated any revenue and has incurred ongoing losses to date. These uncertainties may cast significant doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. A number of alternatives are being evaluated with the objective of funding ongoing activities and obtaining additional working capital. The continuing operations of the Company are dependent upon its ability to continue to raise adequate financing and to commence profitable operations in the future and repay its liabilities arising from normal business operations as they become due.

These unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue in existence.

Fair value estimates of financial instruments are made at a specific point in time, based on relevant information about financial markets and specific financial instruments. As these estimates are subjective in nature, involving uncertainties and matters of significant judgment, they cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions can significantly affect estimated fair values.

The carrying value of cash, receivables, trade payables and loans approximate their fair value because of the short-term nature of these instruments.

The following is an analysis of the Company's financial instruments measured at fair value:

	As at July 31, 2015
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Cash	$ 5,696	$ -	$ -

9. FINANCIAL RISK AND CAPITAL MANAGEMENT (cont'd)

Financial risk factors (cont'd)

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss associated with counterparty's inability to fulfill its payment obligations. The Company's credit risk is primarily attributable to cash and receivables. The Company's primary exposure to credit risk is on its cash held in bank accounts. Cash is deposited in bank accounts held with one major bank in Canada. There is a concentration of credit risk, which is managed by using a major bank that is a high credit quality financial institution as determined by rating agencies. Management believes that the credit risk concentration with respect to financial instruments included in receivables is low because instruments are due primarily from government agencies and cash is held with reputable Canadian financial institutions.

Liquidity risk

The Company's approach to managing liquidity risk is to ensure that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet liabilities when they come due. As at July 31, 2015, the Company had a cash balance of $5,696 (January 31, 2015 - $4,712) to settle current liabilities of $675,402 (January 31, 2015 - $651,277). To maintain liquidity, the Company is continually investigating financing opportunities. There can be no assurance these efforts will be successful in the future. All of the Company's financial liabilities are subject to normal trade terms. Liquidity risk is assessed as high.

Market risk

Market risk is the risk of loss that may arise from changes in market factors such as interest rates, foreign exchange rates, and commodity and equity prices. These fluctuations may be significant.

a) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Company is not exposed to interest rate risk on its cash balances as these instruments roll over daily.

b) Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that the fair values of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because they are denominated in currencies that differ from the respective functional currency. The Company is not currently exposed to significant foreign currency risk. The fluctuations in foreign exchange gains or losses are nominal.

9. FINANCIAL RISK AND CAPITAL MANAGEMENT (cont'd)

Capital management

The Company's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Company's ability to continue as a going concern in order to pursue the acquisition and development of exploration and evaluation assets and to maintain a flexible capital structure which optimizes the costs of capital at an acceptable risk. In the management of capital, the Company includes the components of shareholders' equity.

The Company manages the capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may attempt to issue new shares, issue debt, acquire or dispose of assets or adjust the amount of cash and investments.

In order to facilitate the management of its capital requirements, the Company prepares annual expenditure budgets that are updated as necessary depending on various factors, including successful capital deployment and general industry conditions. The annual and updated budgets are approved by the Board of Directors.

The Company currently is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements. There were no changes in the Company's approach to capital management from January 31, 2015.
