5. Par Value and Description of the Security

General

The Company is authorized to issue 200,000,000 shares of common stock, $0.001 par value.

Common Stock

As of March 29, 2019, there are 51,810,502 common shares issued and 51,015,155 common shares outstanding.

The Company’s Articles of Incorporation authorize the issuance of 200,000,000 shares of common stock. Each record holder of common stock is entitled to one vote for each share held on all matters properly submitted to the stockholders for their vote. In the election of directors, a plurality of the votes cast shall elect. In all other matters, the action shall be approved if the number of votes cast in favor of the action exceeds the number of votes cast in opposition to the action.

Holders of outstanding shares of common stock have no preemptive, conversion or redemptive rights. All of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock are, and all unissued shares when offered and sold will be, duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid, and nonassessable. To the extent that additional shares of the Company's common stock are issued, the relative interests of the then existing stockholders may be diluted.

Liquidation Rights

Upon liquidation or dissolution, each outstanding common share will be entitled to share equally in the assets of the Company legally available for distribution to shareholders after the payment of all debts and other liabilities.

Dividend Rights

There are no limitations or restrictions upon the rights of the board of directors to declare dividends out of any funds legally available therefore. The Company has not paid dividends to date and it is not anticipated that any dividends will be paid in the foreseeable future. The board of directors initially may follow a policy of retaining earnings, if any, to finance the future growth of the Company. Accordingly, future dividends, if any, will depend upon, among other considerations, the Company's need for working capital and its financial conditions at the time.

Voting Rights

Holders of our common stock are entitled to voting rights of one hundred percent. Holders may cast one vote for each share held at all shareholders meetings for all purposes.

Other Rights

Shares of our common stock are not redeemable, have no conversion rights and carry no preemptive or other rights to subscribe to or purchase additional shares of our common stock in the event of a subsequent offering.

Our bylaws allow action to be taken by written consent rather than at a meeting of stockholders with the consent of the holders of a majority of shares entitled to vote.

Dividends

Holders of our common stock are entitled to receive such dividends as may be declared by its board of directors after the spin-off has been completed. The Company does not anticipate that it will declare any dividends. All profit will be used for continuing operations.

B) Business of Company

- 1) The Company's Primary SIC code is 8011 – Offices and Clinics of Medical Doctors
- 2) The Company is currently conducting telemedicine operations, including efforts to advertise and increase telemedicine knowledge and acceptance.
- 3) The Company has never been a shell company.
- 4) The Company does not currently have a parent, subsidiary, or affiliate.
- 5) Telemedicine requires both a State-issued Medicaid license and a telemedicine parity law in order to guarantee appropriate payment from the insurance providers of our patients. The Company is currently petitioning for Congress to set a national telemedicine parity law, which will greatly expand the potential market.
- 6) The Company does not currently incur any research and development costs.
- 7) There are no environmental laws that effect our business.
- 8) The Company employs 1 full time employee responsible for all aspects of the operation. Additional employees or independent contractors are obtained as required.

9. The Nature of Products or Services Offered

- 1) Principal products or services, and their markets – The Company is currently engaged in a mass education operation to increase consumer knowledge about the uses and benefits of telemedicine. The Company is regularly touring PTA meeting, football jamborees, school meetings, and other school gatherings throughout rural areas to teach parents and students about telemedicine. Increasing the general knowledge of the benefits and workings of telemedicine is integral to our ability to succeed in the future. Additionally, the Company is actively pursuing a State issued Medicare and Medicaid license. Once this has been accomplished, the Company will be providing Connect-a-Doc kits to schools and will bill patient's insurance for care provided. The Company markets its services within Florida and Georgia. Once these markets have been successfully captured, we will proceed to expand to other states limited only by the capital available to support our expansion.
- 2) Distribution methods of the products or services – The sales model for the Company is to provide Connect-a-Doc kits to schools for no cost. We will bill insurance providers, Medicare and Medicaid for services provided to patients.
- 3) Status of any publicly announced new product or service – We are currently marketing our services and increasing public awareness of our products and services.
- 4) Competitive business conditions, the Company's competitive position in the industry, and methods of competition – Competitors include TelaDoc, Doctor on Demand, MD Live and AmWell. These companies provide a wide range of telemedicine services, often including pediatric care. To date, the Company is the only company providing telemedicine to schools at no cost to the schools. By focusing on this niche, the Company intends to capture significant market share.
- 5) Sources and availability of raw materials and the names of principal suppliers - The Connect-a-Doc kit is made from items that are purchased wholesale from various retail outlets.
- 6) Dependence on one or a few major customers – The Company intends to have a large variety of customers and is not dependent on any one customer for its continued operation.

- 7) Patents, trademarks, licenses, franchises, concessions, royalty agreements or labor contracts, including their duration – The Company does not, at this time, have any patents or trademarks.
- 8) The need for any government approval of principal products or services and the status of any requested government approvals - Telemedicine requires both a State-issued Medicaid license and a telemedicine parity law in order to guarantee appropriate payment from the insurance providers of our patients. We are currently petitioning for Congress to set a national telemedicine parity law, which will greatly expand our potential market.

16. Management's Discussion and Analysis

Plan of Operation.

The Company currently operates out of its executive offices, located at 8269 Burgos Ct., Orlando, FL 32836. The Company is currently engaged in a mass education operation to increase consumer knowledge about the uses and benefits of telemedicine. The Company is regularly touring PTA meeting, football jamborees, school meetings, and other school gatherings throughout rural areas to teach parents and students about telemedicine. Increasing the general knowledge of the benefits and workings of telemedicine is integral to our ability to succeed in the future. Additionally, the Company is actively pursuing a State issued Medicare and Medicaid license.

The Company may experience problems, delays, expenses and difficulties, many of which are beyond the Company's control. These include, but are not limited to, unanticipated problems relating to additional costs and expenses that may exceed current estimates and competition.

While we believe that our cash on hand and cash generated from operations will be sufficient to conduct operations through December 31, 2019, we recognize that our ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on our ability to generate profitable operations and no assurance can be given that we will be able to accomplish such endeavor.

There is no anticipated purchase or sale of significant equipment and no anticipated significant change in the number of employees.

Trends and Uncertainties.

There are no other known trends, events or uncertainties that have, or are reasonably likely to have, a material impact on our short term or long-term liquidity. Sources of liquidity will come from sales of our services. There are no material commitments for capital expenditure currently. There are no trends, events or uncertainties that have had or are reasonably expected to have a material impact on the net sales or revenues or income from continuing operations. There are no other known causes for any material changes from period to period in one or more-line items of our financial statements.

The Company sold its operating assets and liabilities to Tim Shannon, the Company's president, on January of 2016. The Company was approved for a symbol and name change by FINRA in February of 2016. Our common stock is traded on the OTC Pink market under the trading symbol TVMD.

Capital and Source of Liquidity.

Year Ended December 31, 2018 and 2017

The board of directors has no immediate offering plans in place and shall determine the amount and type of financing as our financial situation dictates. For the year ended December 31, 2018, we had a net loss of $61,363. We had the following adjustments to reconcile net loss to net cash used in operating activities: We had an increase of $287 due to depreciation, an increase of $1,122 due to interest added to shareholder loans and an increase of $1,140 due to interest added to notes payable. We had the following change in assets and liabilities: We had an increase in liabilities of $17,500 due to accrued expenses and a decrease of $11,834 due to the increase in the cash in the attorney trust account. As a result, we had net cash used in operating activities of $53,148 for the year ended December 31, 2018.

For the year ended December 31, 2017, we had a net loss of $90,111. We had the following adjustments to reconcile net loss to net cash used in operating activities: We had an increase of $287 due to depreciation and an increase of $1,500 due to interest added to shareholder loans. We had the following change in assets and liabilities: We had an increase in liabilities of $60,000 due to accrued expenses. As a result, we had net cash used in operating activities of $28,324 for the year ended December 31, 2017.

For the year ended December 31, 2018, we spent $1,764 on the purchase of treasury stock and received $5,000 from the sale of common stock and $116,059 in exchange for notes payable resulting in net cash used in financing activities of $1,574 for the year ended December 31, 2018.

For the year ended December 31, 2017, we spent $18,574 on the repayment of shareholder advances and received $17,000 from the sale of common stock resulting in net cash used in financing activities of $1,574 for the year ended December 31, 2017.

Results of Operations.

For the year ended December 31, 2018, we spent $60,505 on general and administrative expenses. We spent $2,262 on interest expense and received $1,404 from the sale of supplies. As a result, we had net loss of $60,506 for the year ended December 31, 2018.

For the year ended December 31, 2017, we spent $88,611 on general and administrative expenses. We spent $1,500 on interest expense. As a result, we had net loss of $90,111 for the year ended December 31, 2017.

The $28,748, or 31% decrease in the net loss for the year ended December 31, 2018 compared to the year ended December 31, 2017 is primarily due to a reduction in general and administrative expenses during the year ended December 31, 2018. During the year ended December 31, 2018, our general and administrative expenses decreased by $28,106, or 31% from the year ended December 31, 2017.

Our expenses during 2018 were primarily expenses involved in general operating expenses and expenses involved in developing the Telemedicine business.

Material Commitments for Capital Expenditures

No material commitments for capital expenditures have been made at this time.

Significant Elements of Income or Loss Outside of Continuing Operations

None

Seasonal Aspects that had a Material Effect on the Financial Condition or Results of Operation

Due to the nature of the Company's business plan, in which our telemedicine services are provided to schools, the demand and use of our services depends entirely on school schedules.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We do not maintain any off-balance sheet arrangements, transactions, obligations or other relationships with unconsolidated entities that would be expected to have a material current or future effect upon our financial condition or results of operations.

17. Issuance History

1. In December 2017, the Company issued 1,700,000 restricted common shares to its directors for a cash payment of $17,500 at a stock price of $.01 per common share. 1,000,000 shares to Dr. Benitez, 500,000 shares to Tim Shannon and 200,000 shares to Ken Scott.
