AC Partners, Inc. (herein sometimes called the "Company" or the "Issuer"). The Company was incorporated in the State of Nevada on November 8, 2000 under the name of "The King Thomason Group." The original business plan of the Company was to design and sell Insurance and financial services and products for niche markets. The Company was not successful in implementing its business mode on a large- scale basis, and pursued alternative business opportunities and potential acquisition partners. On October 10, 2008 the Company filed a Certificate of Amendment with the Secretary of State changing the name to "Hardwired Interactive, Inc."

On November 3, 2011, the majority stockholders of the Company entered into an agreement whereby the majority stockholders of In4, Ltd. a Hungarian company acquired a majority interest in the Company. Upon Closing, November 11, 2017, the Company's business model was changed to the development of Web 3.0 technologies based on natural language processing and semantic analysis. Subsequently, on January 17, 2012, the Company filed a certificate of amendment with the Secretary of State of Nevada changing the name of the Company to "Iglue, Inc."

Has the issuer or any of its predecessors ever been in bankruptcy, receivership, or any similar proceeding in the past five years?
