The Corporation owns an interest in an oil and gas lease in Duval County, Texas on which drilling is planned and has become engaged in the business of digital currency (see Note 2(b) of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements attached). However, the Corporation does intend to again become more actively engaged in the oil and gas industry in the near future.

The Corporation became engaged in the digital currency industry through its subsidiary, BitcoinzUSA.com. During the first quarter of 2014 Bitcoinzusa.com purchased two ATM machines to process deposits and withdrawals of bitcoins in exchange for a fee on each transaction. At present the two machines have not been placed into operation as the Company waits for regulations to be enacted governing the operation of these facilities. Also, the company acquired during the first quarter of 2014 proprietary software from West Coast Robotics under a prior agreement. When installed the software prevents the hacking of bitcoin accounts. The marketing of the software by the Company has been declined due to the slowdown in the digital currency business due to the decline in the price of bitcoins.

   A Cease and Desist Order was issued on October 27, 2011 by the Alabama Securities Commission against the Corporation under Administrative Order Number CD-2010-0046, which was the result of a Complaint filed against the Loma Novia Joint Venture, a Texas joint venture, of which the Corporation was previously the Joint Venture Manager. The order was to prevent the sale of unregistered securities in the State of Alabama. Unbeknown to the Corporation an employee/officer of a subsidiary of Nueces Valley Resources, who was a merger partner with the Corporation in 2009, had contacted a resident in Alabama with the intent to sell an interest in the Joint Venture. The Corporation had resigned as the Joint Venture Manager at the time of the Complaint and denied any connection to this complaint through its counsel; however, the counsel retired in April 2011 and did not notify the Corporation of the pending Final Notice thereby preventing the Corporation from filing a petition to be removed from the Complaint. He resulting Cease and Desist Order carried no penalties. Since the Corporation is not in the business to sell unregistered securities (interests in oil and gas leases) to parties who are not qualified the Order has no effect on the ongoing business of the Corporation.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE PERIOD ENDING March 31, 20176

Note 1 – Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Organization and Line of Business

Bayside Corporation. (the "Company") was incorporated in the state of Nevada on October 17, 1984 originally as Two-B Company, a clothing wholesaler. In April of 1999 the Company changed its name to American Terra Vehicles Corp. after completing a reverse merger and became active as a developer and distributor of all-terrain vehicles. In August of 2008 the Company changed its name to Bayside Petroleum Company, Inc., in anticipation of its new business plan in the oil and gas industry. In January, 2011 the Company again changed its name to Bayside Corporation. The Company was re-domiciled on November 14, 2012 as a Wyoming corporation.

Basis of Presentation/Going Concern

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, which contemplate continuation of the Company as a going concern. The Company had no material assets and a negative retained deficit while operating as American Terra Vehicles. These conditions raised substantial doubt as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern at that time. It should be noted that since entering into the oil and gas business the Company has acquired significant oil and gas properties. These financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty. These financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts, or amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Reverse Stock Split

In May of 2008 the company effectuated a 20 to 1 reverse stock split reducing the shares outstanding from 7,940,000 shares to 397,000 shares. In June 2008, 200,000 shares were cancelled.

In June, 2011 the company effectuated a 250:1 reverse stock split for its common shares reducing the outstanding shares from 2,559,304,974 to 10,237,630 shares.

Share Cancellation

On October 19, 2015 a share certificate in the amount of 700,000,000 shares in the name of Darren Toomer was cancelled. Also, the total shares issued and outstanding were corrected by reducing the number by 27,000,000 which was incorrectly included due to a previous miscalculation.

Merger

Effective September 22, 2009 the Company merged with Nueces Valley Resources, Inc., a closely held Dallas, Texas, based corporation. The Company acquired all the assets of Nueces Valley Resources in exchange for 27,351,500 shares of Common Stock and 27,352 shares of Preferred Stock. However, subsequently this transaction was rescinded, effective as of the date of the merger.

Stock Based Compensation

SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation," establishes and encourages the use of the fair value based method of accounting for stock-based compensation arrangements under which compensation cost is determined using the fair value of stock-based compensation determined as of the date of grant and is recognized over the periods in which the related services are rendered. For stock based compensation the Company recognizes an expense in accordance with SFAS No. 123 and values the equity securities based on the fair value of the security on the date of grant. For stock-based awards the value is based on the market value for the stock on the date of grant. Stock option awards are valued using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting periods. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

For certain of the Company's financial instruments, including cash and cash equivalents, other current assets, accounts payable, accrued interest and due to related party, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to their short maturities.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Company defines cash equivalents as all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less, plus all certificates of deposit.

A Certificates of Deposit in the amount of $50,000 is pledged to a Letter of Credit issued by the American National Bank of Texas to secure the financial security required by the Texas Railroad Commission for future plugging of wells in Texas and on behalf of Stonegate Operators, Inc., the company operating on behalf of the Corporation. The Texas Railroad Commission called the Letter of Credit under the agreement. Two Certificate of Deposits in the amount of $60,000 and $20,000 are pledged to Letters of Credit in like amounts to Bank of Texas to secure the financial responsibility required by the Mississippi State Oil & Gas Board for future plugging of wells in Mississippi on behalf of Rockland Oil Company, the company operating on behalf of the Corporation. The Mississippi Oil & Gas board released the $60,000 Letter of Credit and called the $20,000 Letter of Credit.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments, which potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk, consist of cash and cash equivalents and accounts receivables. The Company places its cash with high quality financial institutions and at times may exceed the FDIC $250,000 insurance limit. The Company extends credit based on an evaluation of the customer's financial condition, generally without collateral. Exposure to losses on receivables is principally dependent on each customer's financial condition. The Company monitors its exposure for credit losses and maintains allowances for anticipated losses, as required.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

SFAS No. 144 requires that long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale, including those of discontinued operations, be measured at the lower of carrying amount or fair value less cost to sell, whether reported in continuing operations or in discontinued operations. SFAS No. 144 broadens the reporting of discontinued operations to include all components of an entity with operations that can be distinguished from the rest of the entity and that will be eliminated from the ongoing operations of the entity in a disposal transaction. SFAS No. 144 also establishes a "primary-asset" approach to determine the cash flow estimation period for a group of assets and liabilities that represents the unit of accounting for a long-lived asset to be held and used.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with SFAS No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes." Deferred taxes are provided on the liability method whereby deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible temporary differences, and deferred tax liabilities are recognized for taxable temporary differences. Temporary differences are the differences between the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax bases. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will be realized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are adjusted for the effects of changes in tax laws and rates on the date of enactment.

Earnings (Loss) Per Share

The Company reports earnings (loss) per share in accordance with SFAS No. 128, "Earnings per Share." Basic earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing income (loss) available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares available. Diluted earnings (loss) per share is computed similar to basic earnings (loss) per share except that the denominator is increased to include the number of additional common shares that would have been outstanding if the potential common shares had been issued and if the additional common shares were dilutive. Diluted earnings (loss) per share have not been presented since the effect of the assumed conversion of options and warrants to purchase common shares would have an anti-dilutive effect.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

In December 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 141(R), Business Combinations (FAS 141(R)). This Statement provides greater consistency in the accounting and financial reporting of business combinations. It requires the acquiring entity in a business combination to recognize all assets acquired and liabilities assumed in the transaction, establishes the acquisition-date fair value as the measurement objective for all assets acquired and liabilities assumed, and requires the acquirer to disclose the nature and financial effect of the business combination. FAS 141(R) is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008. We will adopt FAS 141(R) no later than the first quarter of fiscal 2010 and are currently assessing the impact the adoption will have on our financial position and results of operations.

In December 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 160. Noncontrolling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements (FAS 160). This Statement amends Accounting Research Bulletin No. 51, Consolidated Financial Statements, to establish accounting and reporting standards for the noncontrolling interest in a subsidiary and for the deconsolidation of a subsidiary. FAS 160 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008. We will adopt FAS 160 no later than the first quarter of fiscal 2010 and are currently assessing the impact the adoption will have on our financial position and results of operations.

In February 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 159, The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities, which permits entities to choose to measure at fair value eligible financial instruments and certain other items that are not currently required to be measured at fair value. The standard requires that unrealized gains and losses on items for which the fair value option has been elected be reported in earnings at each subsequent reporting date. SFAS No. 159 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. We will adopt SFAS No. 159 no later than the first quarter of fiscal 2009. We are currently assessing the impact the adoption of SFAS No. 159 will have on our financial position and results of operations.

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 158, Employers' Accounting for Defined Benefit Pension and Other Postretirement Plans, an amendment of FASB Statements No. 87, 88, 106, and 132(R). SFAS No. 158 requires company plan sponsors to display the net over- or under-funded position of a defined benefit postretirement plan as an asset or liability, with any unrecognized prior service costs, transition obligations or actuarial gains/losses reported as a component of other comprehensive income in shareholders' equity. SFAS No. 158 is effective for fiscal years ending after December 15, 2006. We adopted the recognition provisions of SFAS No. 158 as of the end of fiscal 2007. The adoption of SFAS No. 158 did not have an effect on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 157, Fair Value Measurements. SFAS No. 157 establishes a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles, clarifies the definition of fair value and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. SFAS No. 157 does not require any new fair value measurements. However, the application of SFAS No. 157 may change current practice for some entities. SFAS No. 157 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, and interim periods within those fiscal years. We will adopt SFAS No. 157 in the first quarter of fis*cal 2009. We are currently assessing the impact that the adoption of SFAS No. 157 will have on our financial* position and results of operations.

In July 2006, the FASB issued Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes — an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109 (FIN 48). This interpretation clarifies the application of SFAS No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes, by defining a criterion that an individual tax position must meet for any part of the benefit of that position to be recognized in an enterprise's financial statements and also provides guidance on measurement, derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition. FIN 48 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006, but earlier adoption is permitted. The Company is in the process of evaluating the impact of the application of the Interpretation to its financial statements.

Note 2 – (a) Convertible Notes Payable

The Company was obligated to a private individual for $50,000 at December 31, 2007 which originated September 13, 2005. During the year ended December 31, 2008, the noteholder converted the note into 25,000,000 shares of common stock valued at $.002.

On August 1, 2008 the Company executed a Management Services Agreement with DZ Energy, LLC whereby the Company would furnish the services of Gordon H. Johnson as the Chairman and the CEO of the Company. The agreement was for a period of three (3) years, terminating on July 31, 2011 unless extended. The agreement also provided that DZ Energy, LLC would be paid the sum of $15,000 per month for the services provided, and that any part of this sum not paid would be accrued. Further, the agreement provided that the accrued sum could be converted into shares of Common stock of the Company upon the election of DZ Energy, LLC at a conversion rate approved by the Board of Directors. The note fully matured in the amount of $484,300 and was paid in full with the conversion into shares of Common Stock of the Company.

On August 15, 2010 the Company issued a Promissory Note in the amount of $451,000 to cover costs of services provided for the Company and the acquisition of oil and gas leases. These amounts were paid by DZ Energy, LLC and/or its affiliate companies. The note fully matured and was paid with the conversion into shares of Common Stock of the Company.

On August 1, 2011 the Company renewed the Management Services Agreement with DZ Energy, LLC, which provided for the payment of $15,000 per month for the services provided. The term of the Agreement is three (3) years and a Note was issued in the amount of $540,000 covering the total to be paid under the Agreement. The remaining balance of the Promissory Note as of August 1, 2014 was transferred to the Leasu Trust, the Managing Member of DZ Energy, LLC. The Promissory Note has been partially paid through the issue of shares of Common Stock on various occasions as follows:

	Month of Issue	Amount of Conversion	Number of Shares Issued
1)	September 2012	$180,000	9 million shares

Note 6 - Income taxes

Income taxes are accounted for in accordance with SFAS 109, Accounting for Income Taxes, using the asset and liability method. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases and tax credit carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the year in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

The Company has a net loss carryforward equal to approximately $50,000. The deferred tax asset related to this carryforward has been reserved in full due to the fact that it is more likely than not that the Company will realize this asset.
