CACHE CAPITAL CORPORATION
[A Development Stage Company]
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2012 and 2011

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization – Cache Capital Corporation was incorporated in the State of Utah on September 26, 2006. Its stated primary purpose of business is to make short term loans and to factor accounts receivable, invoices, and other items.

Development Stage Company - The Company has not yet generated significant revenues from their planned principal operations and is considered a development stage company as defined in Accounting Standards Codification Topic 270. The Company has, at the present time, not paid any dividends and any dividends that may be paid in the future will depend upon the financial requirements of the Company and other relevant factors.

Revenue Recognition - The Company utilizes the accrual method of accounting whereby revenue is recognized when earned. Revenue is generated from interest received on loans receivable.

Income Taxes - The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with ASC Topic No. 740, "Income Taxes." This standard requires the Company to provide a net deferred tax asset or liability equal to the expected future tax benefit or expense of temporary reporting differences between book and tax accounting and any available operating loss or tax credit carryforwards.

The Company adopted the provisions of ACS Topic 740, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, on January 1, 2007. As a result of the implementation of ASC Topic 740, the Company recognized approximately no increase in the liability for unrecognized tax benefits.

The Company has no tax positions at December 31, 2012 and 2011 for which the ultimate deductibility is highly certain but for which there is uncertainty about the timing of such deductibility.

The Company recognizes interest accrued related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest expense and penalties in operating expenses. During the years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011, the Company recognized no interest and penalties. The Company had no accruals for interest and penalties at December 31, 2012 and December 31, 2011. All tax years starting with 2008 are open for examination.

Basis of Accounting – The Company's activities are accounted for using the accrual basis of accounting as required under generally accepted accounting principles. Income is recognized when earned and expenses are recognized when incurred.

Cash and Cash Equivalents – The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Loss Per Share – The computation of loss per share is based on the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period presented in accordance with Accounting Standard Codification No. 260, "Earnings Per Share" [See Note 3].

Accounting Estimates – The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimated by management.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments – The Company estimates that the fair value of all financial instruments at December 31, 2012 does not differ materially from the aggregate carrying values of its financial instruments recorded in the accompanying balance sheet.

Recently Enacted Accounting Standards – The Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) established the Accounting Standards Codification (“Codification” or “ASC”) as the source of authoritative accounting principles recognized by FASB to be applied by nongovernmental entities in the preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States (“GAAP”). Rules and interpretive releases of the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) issued under authority of federal securities laws are also sources of GAAP for SEC registrants. Existing GAAP was not intended to be changed as a result of the Codification, and accordingly the change did not impact our financial statements. The ASC does change the way the guidance is organized and presented.

Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) No. 2009-2 through ASU No. 2011 - 12 which contain technical corrections to existing guidance or affect guidance to specialized industries or entities were recently issued. These updates have no current applicability to the Company or their effect on the financial statements would not have been significant.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2012 and 2011

NOTE 2 - STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY

At December 31, 2012 there are no shares of preferred stock issued or outstanding.

On October 4, 2006, the Company issued 2,700,000 shares of common stock (initial organization) for $2,700, or $.001 per share.

On October 5, 2006, the Company issued 620,000 shares of common stock for $31,000, or $.05 per share.

On June 25, 2007, the Company issued 500,000 shares of common stock for $125,000, or $.25 per share.

NOTE 3 - LOSS PER SHARE

The following data show the amounts used in computing loss per share:

	For the Year ended December 31, 2012	For the Year ended December 31, 2011
Loss from continuing operations available to common shareholders (numerator)	$ (23,253)	$ (23,592)
Weighted average number of common shares outstanding used in loss per share during the period (denominator)	3,820,000	3,820,000

Dilutive loss per share was not presented, as the Company had no common equivalent shares for all periods presented that would affect the computation of diluted loss per share.

[A Development Stage Company]

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2012 and 2011

NOTE 4 - INCOME TAXES

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with ACS Topic No. 740, "Income Taxes". ACS No. 740 requires the Company to provide a net deferred tax asset/liability equal to the expected future tax benefit/expense of temporary reporting differences between book and tax accounting methods and any available operating loss or tax credit carryforwards. The Company has available at December 31, 2012 an operating loss carryforward of approximately $129,409, which may be applied against future taxable income and which expires in various years through 2032.

The amount of and ultimate realization of the benefits from the operating loss carryforwards for income tax purposes is dependent, in part, upon the tax laws in effect, the future earnings of the Company, and other future events, the effects of which cannot be determined. Because of the uncertainty surrounding the realization of the loss carryforwards, the Company has established a valuation allowance equal to the tax effect of the loss carryforwards. The net deferred tax assets are approximately $24,900 and $20,400 as of December 31, 2012 and 2011 with an offsetting valuation allowance of the same amount. The change in the valuation allowance during the period ended December 31, 2012 is approximately $4,500.

NOTE 5 – GOING CONCERN

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, which contemplate continuation of the Company as a going concern. However, the Company has only recently commenced its planned operations and has incurred losses since inception. These factors raise substantial doubt about the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern. In this regard, management is proposing to raise additional funds not provided by operations through loans and/or common stock. There is no assurance that the Company will be successful in raising this additional capital or in achieving profitable operations. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of these uncertainties.

NOTE 6 – COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Building Lease Agreement – In October 2012, the Company resigned a lease for operating space, which expires October 2013. The lease calls for monthly payment of $630.00. Lease expense for the year ended December 31, 2012 is $8,344. The future minimum lease payment are as follows:
