The complaint was filed on August 21, 2012 in the District Court, Clark County, Nevada, Case No. A-12-667160-C. The complaint is for breach of promissory note contracts, breach of implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, unjust enrichment, misrepresentation and fraud, and attorney fees.

The Company, Delmar Janovec, and the Plaintiffs through their counsels entered into preliminary discussions for a settlement of these complaints in late January 2015. As the Agreement reflected a compromise and settlement of the Parties' respective claims, no parties were deemed to have prevailed in regard to the claims or to have been a prevailing party.

Plaintiff agreed to accept the sum of $225,000.00 (Settlement Amount) as a compromised payment in full satisfaction of all sums due pursuant to the various Promissory Notes and all of its claims against the Company and other Defendants. The referenced payments have been made pursuant to the settlement agreement and prior to the filing of this report.

Delmar Janovec, individually, agreed to a Confession of Judgment and agreed to be individually liable for a portion of the Judgment Amount in the amount of $400,000.00. The Confession of Judgments will only be filed if the parties are in default on the terms of the Settlement Agreement entered into between the Parties, and after written notice of default is received and not cured within 10 days. Upon payment in full of the Settlement Amount, all stock held by the Plaintiff in CannaGrow Holdings, Inc. and Lucky 7's Inc. will be returned to the respective companies.
