A. Description of the Issuer's Business Operations

In October 2013, the Company purchased a Nevada corporation known as CMK Gaming International, Inc. ("CMK Nevada"). In return for restricted common stock of the Company, CMK Nevada sold 100% of its stock to the Company and became the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary. CMK Nevada owns and operates three retail gaming centers, commonly called "pachinko parlors," in Japan. These gaming centers offer customers the opportunity to play arcade style games called pachinko and win nominal prizes.

Pachinko is played on machines that are similar to a vertical pinball machine. Gambling on pachinko is illegal in Japan, balls and tokens won cannot be exchanged for cash or other monetary consideration in the pachinko parlor, but instead are exchanged for prizes consisting of the types of goods found in convenience stores, such as snacks, drinks and candy, or special prizes consisting of decorative cards embedded with a small piece of gold or silver or silver or gold pendants. These special prizes are generally exchanged for cash with an independent prize buyer outside the pachinko parlor.

The Company, through its wholly-owned subsidiary planned to expand its operations into the U.S. and intended to open a pachinko parlor in Salt Lake City, Utah during the second quarter of 2014. The Company's pachinko parlor location had been built and was in the process of being fitted by the construction company.

Due to licensing of the Pachinko Parlor in Salt Lake City, Utah and the building facility in late 2015, the company's board of directors determined to terminate the relationship with its Japanese operations, and the stock issued for this acquisition will be returned and the purchase rescinded. The board will cancel 103,336 shares of 103,336 shares of the stock that was issued for the acquisition and will remain in the treasury.

The Company will remain to develop a Pachinko Game for the Interactive Video Market.

Prior to 2013, the Company was operated as a development stage company for 2011 and part of 2012. In May 2012 the majority interest of the Company was purchased by Riverside Development Management, Inc., which is a private corporation engaged in oil and gas exploration and drilling. The Company's intent was to pursue oil-drilling projects throughout the United States. In the second quarter of 2012, the company was engaged in a project located in Wyoming, which involved a potential partnership with a turbine energy company, a water treatment plant that will deploy their most recent technology to treat and purify water on the drill site and the State of Wyoming. By the end of 2012, the project turned out to be uneconomical and the Company wrote off all costs associated with the deal. In 2013, the Company reverted to a development stage company in an effort to acquire a business, which would be in the best interest of the shareholders. Management spent most of the first quarter of 2013 reviewing potential businesses.
