Telemedicine Products

CompuMed, Inc. Diagnostic Telemedicine Solutions provide patients with the highest level of clinical care at reduced costs. Our telecardiology and teleradiology solutions provide direct access to U.S. Board-Certified specialists through cloud-based technology and integrated medical devices. The company services over 1,000 clinical settings. We have established a large network for remote electronic processing of electrocardiograms (“ECGs”), echocardiograms (“Echos”), ultrasound studies and X-rays. CompuMed has created an electronic telemedicine infrastructure to link clinical diagnostic equipment data collected at the patient’s point of care with top specialists. We also provide real-time access to specialists for consultations. The equipment that we rent and sell consist primarily of 12-lead ECG and ultrasound devices. CompuMed also provides mobile imaging services, including the administration of radiology and cardiology diagnostic exams. We are providing single lead ECG interpretations for the consumer market through a handheld device. One of our innovations is the workflow technology being used to manage the inflow of data to our servers, and the routing of that data to specialists through technology such as Picture Archiving and Communication Systems (PACS).

Our services are available twenty-four hours a day, seven days per week. We have expertise in electronic workflow, diagnostic imaging and analysis. Additionally, we contract with certain partners to develop diagnostic systems, which support our telemedicine workflow. We provide these solutions to our customers either through sale, rental and lease to own arrangements. The value proposition for our clients is top clinical care at a lower cost, while minimizing risk.

Chief Financial Officer

Quarterly update and letter from CompuMed, Inc. leadership team:

Dear CompuMed Shareholders,

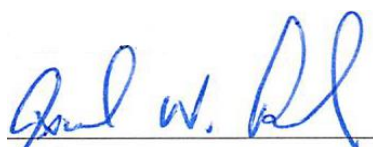

We are glad to report continued sales momentum. Revenue for the quarter increased 37% compared to the same period last year. Over the first 6 months of fiscal 2018 revenue gained 32% compared to 2017. Through the latter half of the year, however, we would like to remind shareholders that CompuMed's revenue growth will face more challenging comparisons since much of our growth from last year occurred in the 2nd half.

While we do not provide guidance in terms of profit margin, we are pleased with CompuMed's achievement of profitability. Though we are optimistic about CompuMed's recent results and near-term future, CompuMed is still a small company and there can be no assurances that we will be able to continue to operate at a profitable level in the future.

During the quarter, CompuMed began a process of purchasing a significant number of EKG devices located in correctional facilities and under a service contract. There was minimal impact on this quarter's financial results, and we will provide more clarity in our third quarter letter.

On April 12, 2018, following the end of the quarter, CompuMed issued a press release announcing the redemption of both our Series A and Series B preferred stock. While we have not yet heard from all of these shareholders, we anticipate that this redemption of shares will absorb approximately ½ of the $100,000 share buy-back authorization approved by CompuMed's Board of Directors. Additionally, after this quarter, the Note-B Stockholder's Equity section will no longer reference these shares. Any remaining shares not redeemed will result in a footnote disclosing this potential redemption liability which could occur in future periods.

Thank you for your continued support of the Company.

David W. Pointer, Chairman

NOTES TO CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note A- Basis of Presentation and Accounting Policies

The accompanying unaudited condensed financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for financial information. Accordingly, they do not include all the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. For further information, refer to the financial statements for the year ended September 30, 2013 and the notes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report posted at www.otcmarkets.com.

On March 25, 2011, the Company filed a Form-15 with the SEC to deregister its common stock and suspend its reporting obligations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). The Company believes that the deregistering its common stock will reduce significant expenses associated with regulatory compliance and that will be able to reallocate our resources towards improving growth and profitability. Our stock is currently traded on the OTC Pink operated by OTCMarkets.

Note B: Stockholder's Equity

CLASS A $3.50 CUMULATIVE CONVERTIBLE VOTING PREFERRED STOCK:

The holders of Class A Preferred Stock are entitled to receive, when and as declared by the Board of Directors, dividends at an annual rate of $0.35 per share, payable quarterly. Dividends are cumulative from the date of issuance. Every two (2) shares of the Class A Preferred Stock are presently convertible, subject to adjustment, into one (1) share of Common Stock. In the event of any liquidation, the holders of the Class A Preferred Stock are entitled to receive $2.00 in cash per share plus accumulated and unpaid dividends out of assets available for distribution to stockholders, prior to any distribution to holders of Common Stock or any other stock ranking junior to the Class A Preferred Stock. The Class A Preferred Stock may be redeemed by the Company, upon 30-days' written notice, at a redemption price of $3.85 per share. Class A Preferred Stock stockholders have the right to convert their shares into Common Stock during such 30-day period. Shares of Class A Preferred Stock have one vote each. Shares of Class A Preferred Stock vote along with shares of Common Stock and shares of Class B Preferred Stock as a single class on all matters presented to the stockholders for action except as follows: Without the affirmative vote of the holder of a majority of the Class A Preferred Stock then outstanding, voting as a separate class, the Company may not (i) amend, alter or repeal any of the preferences or rights of the Class A Preferred Stock, (ii) authorize any reclassification of the Class A Preferred Stock, (iii) increase the authorized number of shares of Class A Preferred Stock or (iv) create any class or series of shares ranking prior to the Class A Preferred Stock as to dividends or upon liquidation. A total of 4,200 shares of Common Stock are currently issuable upon conversion of the remaining 8,400 shares of the Class A Preferred Stock.

CLASS B $3.50 CONVERTIBLE VOTING PREFERRED STOCK:

In August 1994, the Company issued 52,333 shares of Class B $3.50 Convertible Preferred Stock ("Class B Preferred Stock") in connection with the acquisition of certain property. The holders of Class B Preferred Stock are entitled to receive dividends only, when and as declared by the Board of Directors. Each share of Class B Preferred Stock is convertible, subject to adjustment, into ten (10) shares of Common Stock. In the event of any liquidation, the holders of the Class B Preferred Stock are entitled to receive $3.50 in cash per share plus accumulated and unpaid dividends out of assets available for distribution to stockholders, prior to any distribution to holders of Common Stock or any other stock ranking junior to the Class B Preferred Stock. Each share of Class B Preferred Stock may be redeemed by the Company, upon 30-days' written notice, at a redemption price of $3.85 per share. Class B Preferred Stock stockholders have the right to convert their shares into Common Stock during this 30-day period.

Shares of Class B Preferred Stock are entitled to one vote each. Shares of Class B Preferred Stock vote as a single class on all matters presented to the stockholders for action except as follows: Without the affirmative vote of the holder of a majority of the Class B Preferred Stock then outstanding, voting as a separate class, the Company may not (i) amend, alter or repeal any of the preferences or rights of the Class B Preferred Stock, (ii) authorize any reclassification of the Class B Preferred Stock, (iii) increase the authorized number of shares of Class B Preferred Stock or (iv) create any class or series of shares ranking prior to the Class B Preferred Stock as to dividends or upon liquidation. A total of 3,000 shares of Common Stock are currently issuable upon conversion of the remaining 300 shares of Class B Preferred Stock.

CLASS D VOTING PREFERRED STOCK:

On March 14, 2007, the Company closed a private placement of its securities to an institutional investor pursuant to the Securities Purchase Agreement. The Company sold to the investor 4,167 Units at a price of $480 per Unit resulting in total proceeds of $2,000,000. Each Unit consisted of one (1) share of the Company's Class D Preferred Stock as well as 1,000 Common Stock Purchase Warrants with an exercise price of $0.30 per share. Pursuant to the Agreement, the Company issued all 4,167 shares of the authorized Class D Preferred Stock. Each share of Class D Preferred Stock is convertible at any time into 2,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The holder of each issued and outstanding share of Class D Preferred Stock will be entitled to receive a dividend in respect of each such share at the rate per share of $9.60 per annum, payable on each of the first, second, third, and fourth anniversaries of March 12, 2007, commencing March 12, 2008. Dividend payments to each holder will be made in shares of the Company's common stock valued at the average Market Price over 20 trading days, as defined in the Certificate of Designation. In the event the dividends may not lawfully be paid by the issuance of the Company's common stock and may be lawfully paid in cash, the dividends will be paid in cash. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding-up, either voluntarily or involuntarily, the holders of shares of the Class D Preferred Stock then issued and outstanding will be entitled to be paid out of the Company's assets available for distribution to its stockholders, whether from capital, surplus or earnings, before any payment shall be made to the holders of shares of the Company's common stock or upon any other series of the Company's Preferred Stock with a liquidation preference subordinate to the liquidation preference of Class D Preferred Stock, an amount per share equal to $480 plus the dollar amount equal to all unpaid and accrued dividends and interest thereon. In addition, a merger or consolidation with or into any other corporation, or a sale, lease, exchange, or transfer of all or any part of the Company's assets will be deemed a liquidation event unless no assets are distributed in respect of any class of the Company's capital stock in connection with, or as a result of, such merger or consolidation. The Class D Preferred Stock has the same voting rights as the Company's common stock except that each share of Class D Preferred Stock is entitled to 2,000 votes for vote allowed a share of the Company's common stock, however such amount will be proportionally adjusted in the event of a reverse or forward split of the Company's common stock.

Note C- Stock-Based Compensation

The Company accounts for stock options in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 718 using the modified prospective method. Under this method, compensation cost recognized includes: (a) compensation cost for all share-based payments granted prior to, but not yet vested as of October 1, 2006, based on the grant-date fair value estimated in accordance with guidance issued by the FASB amortized over the options' vesting period, and (b) compensation cost for all share-based payments granted subsequent to October 1, 2006, based on the grant-date fair value estimated in accordance with guidance issued by the FASB amortized over the options' vesting period.

Note D- Earnings Per Share

The Company reports its earnings (loss) per share in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 260. Basic earnings per share is calculated using the net earnings divided by the weighted average common shares outstanding. Shares from the assumed conversion of outstanding warrants, options and the effect of the conversion of the Class A Preferred Stock and Class B Preferred Stock are omitted from the computations of diluted loss per share because the effect would be anti-dilutive.

Note E- Fair Value

The Company measures its financial assets and liabilities at fair value. Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability (i.e., exit price) in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Additionally, the Company is required to provide disclosure and categorize assets and liabilities measured at fair value into one of three different levels depending on the assumptions (i.e., inputs) used in the valuation. Level I provides the most reliable measure of fair value while Level III generally requires significant management judgment. Financial assets and liabilities are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input significant to the fair value measurement. The fair value hierarchy is defined as follows:

Level Input	Input Definition:
Level I	Inputs are adjusted, quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets at the measurement date
Level II	Inputs, other than quoted prices included in Level 1, that are observable for the asset or liability through collaboration with market data or measurement
Level III	Unobservable inputs that reflect management's best estimate of what market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date.

The following table summarizes fair value measurements by level at March 31, 2018 for assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis:

	Level I	Level II	Level III	Total
Cash and cash equivalents	$396,405	$ -	$ -	$396,405
Total assets	$396,405	$ -	$ -	$396,405

For certain of the Company's financial instruments, including accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to their short maturities.

Note G- Commitments and Contingencies

The Company has capital leases for machinery and equipment that expires between now and 2018. On January 1, 2016, the Company entered into a new lease in the existing office location expiring on February 28, 2017. Under the new lease, the Company occupies 2,318 square feet of space at $3,462 per month. Although not yet completed, we anticipate renewing the office space rental agreement through February 28, 2019 for a slight increase of the current monthly amount.

Fiscal Year Ending	Capital Lease	Operating Leases
2018	12,779	37,690
2019	25,557	19,734
2020	24,280	-

Safe Harbor for Forward -Looking Statements

This report contains forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, statements concerning our possible or assumed future results of operations. These statements are preceded by, followed by or include the words "believes," "could," "expects," "intends," "anticipates," or similar expressions. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in the forward-looking statements for many reasons including, but not limited to, product and service demand and acceptance, changes in technology, ability to raise capital, the availability of appropriate acquisition candidates and/or business partnerships, economic conditions, the impact of competition and pricing, capacity and supply constraints or difficulties, government regulation and other risks described in our annual report files with the OTC Pink operated by OTCMarkets. Although we believe the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, they relate only to events as of the date on which the statements are made, and our future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements may not meet these expectations. We do not intend to update any of the forward-looking statements after the date of this document to conform these statements to actual results or to changes in our expectations, except as required by law.

Statements contained in this report, such as statements about revenue, operations, and earnings growth and other financial results are forward-looking statements pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All such forward-looking statements including statements concerning the Company's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions are based largely on management's expectations and are subject to and qualified by risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such statements. These statements are subject to uncertainties and risks including, without limitation, product and service demand and acceptance, changes in technology, ability to raise capital, the availability of appropriate acquisition candidates and/or business partnerships, economic conditions, the impact of competition and pricing, capacity and supply constraints or difficulties, government regulation and other risks identified in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission and OTCPink operated by OTCMarkets. These cautionary statements expressly qualify all such forward-looking statements. The Company expressly disclaims any obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements to reflect events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based after the date hereof, except as required by law.

Results of Operations for The Quarter Ended March 31, 2018 Compared To Quarter Ended March 31, 2017

CompuMed finished the Second quarter FY 2018 with $47,756 in net profit compared to a net loss of $14,304 in the same quarter a year ago. The Company had an operating profit of $50,250 for the First Quarter 2018 compared to an operating loss of $12,097 for the same quarter of 2017.

Total Revenue for the Second quarter of 2018 increased by 37% to $805,483 from $587,283 for the same quarter of fiscal 2017 and for the six months end March 31 2018 revenue increased by 32% to $1,461,373 from $1,110,135 for the same period of 2017. The increase in revenue for the current quarter to the same period of 2017 is primarily due to increase in diagnostic study interpretation services.

Cost of Goods for the second quarter ended 2018 increased by 38% to $390,180 from $283,622 for the same quarter of fiscal 2017 and for the six months end March 31, 2018 Cost of goods increased by 32% to $731,896 from $554,189 for the same period of 2017. The increase for the current quarter compared to same period of 2017 is primarily related to the increase in physician interpretation variable costs directly related to the diagnostic study interpretations revenue.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses for the second quarter ended 2018 increased by 18% to $345,336 from $293,238 for the same quarter of fiscal 2017 and for the six month ended March 31, 2018 expenses increased by 14% to $603,687 from $527,664 for the same period of 2017. The increase for the quarter primarily related to software development costs and other costs associated with investment in technology.

Financial Condition, Liquidity and Capital Resources

Operations

At March 31, 2018, we had $396,405 in cash compared to a balance of $252,556 at September 30, 2017, a net increase of $143,849.

Cash used in investing activities was $60,111 for the six months ended March 31, 2018. This was primarily for purchase of new EKG devices for long term customers to update their current fleet of devices.

Net cash raised through financing activities was $58,477 for the six months ended March 31, 2018; mainly from line of credit and additional capital lease entered during the quarter.

The Company anticipates that its cash flow from operations and available cash will be sufficient to meet its anticipated financial needs for at least the next 12 months assuming that no significant downturn in its business occurs. There can be no guarantee that the Company will achieve this result, however, resulting in the Company needing to raise additional capital in the future or draw down on its available credit line. Such sources of financing might not be available on reasonable terms or at all. Failure to raise capital when needed could adversely impact the Company's business, operating results and liquidity. Additionally, the Company may find it desirable to raise additional equity capital to accelerate its strategic objectives. However, there can be no guarantees that the Company will be able to do so or that such capital will be available. If additional funds were raised through the issuance of equity securities, the percentage of ownership of existing stockholders would be reduced. Furthermore, these equity securities might have rights, preferences or privileges senior to the Company's Common Stock. The Company's Common stock is currently quoted on OTC Pink operated by OTC Markets, which may make it more difficult to raise funds through the issuance of equity securities. These additional sources of financing may not be available on acceptable terms, if at all. Additionally, we are exploring joint ventures, acquisitions and other forms of strategic transactions, which might cause us to require additional capital. The Company plans to make use of its existing credit facility for such transactions. However, there is no guarantee that the Company will be able to enter in such a transaction or that it would be at terms consistent with the available credit facility.

Capital Commitments

Our primary capital resource commitments at March 31, 2018 consist of capital and operating lease commitments, primarily for ECG equipment and our corporate office facility.

Financing Activities

During the quarter CompuMed accessed its available line-of-credit for $50,000.

Material Trends and Uncertainties

The telemedicine business is very competitive, and we rely significantly on certain contracts with individual state governments. While we have a good track record of renewing contracts, many customers reserve the rights to cancel such contracts under a broad base of options. We experience some declines of customer usage of our services at various times for a variety of reasons. A loss of some of these contracts could be material for the Company. Additionally, it is possible that competitive pressures may force us to lower our prices, which could adversely affect our overall revenues as well as our gross profits.

We are also vulnerable to potential state government budget constraints. The Company receives significant revenues from state correctional contracts and any significant decreases in the amounts allocated to the annual healthcare budgets in various state governments could adversely affect us.

Many policies relating to telemedicine regulatory and licensing oversight are evolving often on a state-by-state basis. We might be forced to change or cease offering certain services if some of the regulatory or licensing landscape changes. This could have a material effect on our business.

If our revenues should be impacted materially by some of these negative trends, we might have to draw on our credit line or seek equity capital to meet short-term liquidity needs. Both of those events might be dilutive to our shareholders. Additionally, we might not meet all of the conditions and criteria to affect a drawdown on the credit facility or to be able to secure suitable equity funding from an investor. In such an event, the Company might be forced to significantly reduce its operations or abandon some or all of its activities.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

None.

Critical Accounting Policies

Our discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of operations, including the discussion on liquidity and capital resources, are based upon our financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The preparation of these financial statements requires us to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, and related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. On an ongoing basis, we re-evaluate our estimates and judgments, particularly those related to the determination of the estimated recoverable amounts of trade accounts receivable, impairment of long-lived assets and deferred tax valuation allowance. We believe the following critical accounting policies require our more significant judgment and estimates used in the preparation of the financial statements:

We maintain an allowance for doubtful accounts for estimated losses that may arise if any of our customers are unable to make required payments. Management specifically analyzes the age of customer balances, historical bad debt experience, customer credit-worthiness, and changes in customer payment terms when making estimates of the collectability of our trade accounts receivable balances. If we determine that the financial conditions of any of our customers deteriorated, whether due to customer specific or general economic issues, increases in the allowance may be made. Accounts receivable are written off when all collection attempts have failed.

We review our long-lived assets and certain identifiable intangibles for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset or asset group may not be recoverable. Recoverability of long-lived and amortizable intangible assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to the future operating cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If these assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized is measured by the amount by which the carrying value of the assets exceeds their fair value.

Revenue is recognized as the following criteria have been met: (1) persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, (2) the product has been delivered or the services have been rendered, (3) the fee is fixed or determinable, and (4) collectability of the fee is reasonably assured. Cardiology Services are comprised of primarily ECG processing/overreads, Echo/ultrasound interpretations, and rental fees. ECG services and diagnostic interpretations revenue is recognized monthly on a per-usage basis after the services are performed. Equipment rental revenue is recognized monthly over the terms of the customer's agreement. Medical device and supplies sales revenue is recognized upon shipment of the products and passage of title to the customer.

Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method. Under this method, to the extent that we believe that the deferred tax asset is not likely to be recovered, a valuation allowance is provided. In making this determination, we consider estimated future taxable income and taxable timing differences expected to reverse in the future. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

Other Information

On February 22nd CompuMed issued a press release regarding an asset transaction. Given that this transaction will take several months to complete the results and financial impact of the transaction will be reflected in our third fiscal quarter ended June 30th, 2018 financial statements.

Subsequent Events

On April 12, 2018 announced that it is redeeming the 8,400 outstanding shares of its Class A $3.50 Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock and the 300 outstanding shares of its Class B $3.50 Convertible Preferred Stock.

The Company mailed redemption notices to holders of record of each of these two classes of preferred stock. If holders of record transferred shares to other persons without notice to the Company, the Company requests that both the transferor and the transferee contact the Company as soon as possible. All holders (whether of record or otherwise) will be required to provide either the original stock certificate or an affidavit of loss or damage to same to receive redemption payments.

The effective date of redemption is May 15, 2018.

Series A Preferred Shares

The redemption rights of the Company are set forth in the Certificate of Designation of the Class A $3.50 Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock dated August 10, 1992. The redemption price, as set forth in the Certificate of Designations, is $3.85 per share.

CompuMed paid dividends on the Class A shares through 2011. Class A stockholders are entitled to annual dividends of $0.35 per share thereafter. Since dividends are payable quarterly, dividends for seven and one quarter years have accumulated but not yet been paid. Each Series A share is therefore entitled to a dividend payment of $2.54, or 7.25 times $0.35.

Each Class A share is being redeemed for $6.39, or the sum of the redemption price of $3.85 and $2.54 for accumulated but unpaid dividends.

Class A shares are convertible into common stock. The Certificate of Designations provides that each Class A share is convertible into 5 commons shares. However, this figure was reduced to 0.50 common shares effective October 7, 1994 as the result of a ten for one reverse stock split. Given the current share price, such a conversion would not make sense and the Company does not anticipate that anyone will ask to convert.

The Company anticipates paying $53,676 for the 8,400 outstanding shares of Class A $3.50 Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock.

Series B Preferred Shares:

The redemption rights of the Company are set forth in the Certificate of Designation of the Class B $3.50 Convertible Preferred Stock dated October 17, 1994. The redemption price, as set forth in the Certificate of Designations, is $3.85 per share.

Class B shares do not accrue cumulative dividends and no dividend payments are in arrears.

Class B shares are convertible into common stock. The Certificate of Designations provides that each Class B share is convertible into 10 commons shares. At the current share price of around 11 cents per share, such a conversion would not make sense and the Company does not anticipate that anyone will ask to convert.

The Company anticipates paying $1,155 for the 300 outstanding shares of Class B $3.50 Convertible Preferred Stock.
