Issuance History

List below any events, in chronological order, that resulted in changes in total shares outstanding by the issuer in the past two fiscal years and any interim period. The list shall include all offerings of equity securities, including debt convertible into equity securities, whether private or public, and all shares or any other securities or options to acquire such securities issued for services, describing (1) the securities, (2) the persons or entities to whom such securities were issued and (3) the services provided by such persons or entities. The list shall indicate:

On March 28, 2011 and March 29, 2011, we issued 3,541,665 shares of our common stock to five individuals for a purchase price of $.12 per share and 500,000 shares to one individual at a purchase price of $.10 per share. These issuances of shares qualified for exemption under Regulation S of the Securities Act of 1933 because the securities were issued to a non US citizen without direct selling efforts in the United States.

On March 28, 2011 and March 29, 2011 we issued 181,000 shares of our common stock to four individuals as payment for amounts owed to each of them by our subsidiary for services rendered by such individuals. These issuances of shares qualified for exemption under Regulation S of the Securities Act of 1933 because the securities were issued to a non US citizen without direct selling efforts in the United States.

On April 1, 2011, we issued 867,604 shares of our common stock to two individuals, of which 416,666 were issued for a purchase price of $.12 per share and 450,938 were issued for a purchase price of $.08 per share. These issuances to one of investors qualified for exemption under Regulation S of the Securities Act of 1933 because the securities were issued to a non US citizen without direct selling efforts in the United States and the issuance to the other investor qualified for exemption under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act since the issuances did not involve a public offering. The issuances were not a public offering as defined in Section 4(2) because the offer and sale was made to an insubstantial number of persons and because of the manner of the offering. These issuances were done with no general solicitation or advertising by the Company. Based on an analysis of the above factors, the Company has met the requirements to qualify for exemption under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act for these issuances.

On April 12, 2011 we issued 5,686,479 shares to Centurion in connection with the execution of the Investment Agreement. We also issued 2,727,272 shares to the placement agent in connection with the Investment Agreement. These issuances of shares qualified for exemption under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act since the issuances did not involve a public offering. The issuances were not a public offering as defined in Section 4(2) because the offer and sale was made to an insubstantial number of persons and because of the manner of the offering. These issuances were done with no general solicitation or advertising by the Company. Based on an analysis of the above factors, the Company has met the requirements to qualify for exemption under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act for these issuances.

In April 2011 we issued 1,250,000 shares of our common stock to one investor for a purchase price of $.12 per share. These issuances of shares qualified for exemption under Regulation S of the Securities Act of 1933 because the securities were issued to a non US citizen without direct selling efforts in the United States.

In May 2011 we issued 59,000 shares of our common stock to one investor for a purchase price of $.10 per share. These issuances of shares qualified for exemption under Regulation S of the Securities Act of 1933 because the securities were issued to a non US citizen without direct selling efforts in the United States.

In connection with the Investment Agreement we issued an aggregate of 5,686,479 shares of our common stock to Centurion and an aggregate of 2,727,272 shares to the placement agent for the transaction. These securities were issued in reliance on Section 4(2) of the Act. The issuance did not involve any general solicitation or advertising by us. Centurion acknowledged the existence of transfer restrictions applicable to the securities sold by us. Certificates representing the securities sold contain a legend stating the restrictions on transfer to which such securities are subject.

In connection with a management agreements to Michael Shenher for 10,000,000,000 shares

In April 2014 issued 900,000,000 for debt conversion
