Principal Products or Services, and Their Markets

The Company currently has been in the business of producing and distributing 3 great-tasting unique Herbal Energy Juice flavors; Pomegranate-Cranberry, Wild Berry and Passion Fruit-Orange. CUBA's products were developed in response to strong demand for energy beverages. Healthy all-natural CUBA Herbal Energy Juice is in an exploding market of energy beverages. CUBA Herbal Energy Juice was one of the first all-natural energy products on the markets and continues to be a leader in the health and wellness category. Energy Drinks have now become the fastest growing sector within the beverage industry; however, there has always been a health concern over the market leading brands because of their high sugar and caffeine content. CUBA Herbal Energy Juice was developed under the direction of top industry scientists with the focus of creating viable, healthy and good tasting alternatives to the current array of existing products. Choice of ingredients was a major concern and focal point of early development and distinguishes CUBA from its competitors. Due to CUBA's use of healthy, good tasting ingredients, it represents a healthy all-natural alternative to existing energy beverage products. Consequently, CUBA stands out as a preferable alternative to soft drinks and to energy beverages. The premise behind the introduction of CUBA Herbal Energy Juice over three years ago was to provide a healthy fat-free boost of energy that would not result in an after the fact crash but instead provide a healthy and steady flow of energy. CUBA has trademarked the names "CUBA," "CUBA Herbal Energy Juice," "CUBA Beverage Company," and "CUBAtini" (CUBAtini is still in the registration process and has not yet been approved). Other than CUBAtini, the Patent and Trademark Office have approved these trademarks for publication and the company successfully renewed these marks in 2015 through 2019.

CUBA is now focusing on the production and distribution of a new product, all-natural alkaline spring water called Polar Springs. The water is bottled right at the source in Northern Wisconsin. The source is an aquifer created by Ice Age glaciers over 15,000 years ago. The springs are constantly monitored to ensure that the purity remains unchanged. The water is UV treated and micron filtered to ensure the highest quality level. Polar Springs natural alkaline mineral springs water has no sugars, no stimulants and no artificial ingredients, with zero calories, cholesterol and carbs. The water offers refreshing taste with one of the highest natural PH factors available in the world.

Distribution methods of the products or services

The Company distributes products through a traditional distribution system and also utilizes a hybrid distribution model, or a combination of warehouse and Direct Store Delivery (DSD). The Company also distributes through a combination of Independent bottlers and regional distributors who sell the Company's products on a "best efforts basis."

The Company has strong marketing and distribution contacts in the USA, the Caribbean, China and Europe. Cuba is placing a high importance on exportation to China and specifically the Guangdong Province. The continuing trade imbalance between the two most dominant markets in the world has created opportunities with respect to the increased ability to import from the United States. The Company has recently exported to Turkey and expects to export more products to this region in the near future. The company has found great markets internationally and a strong reception to the brand, the packaging and the all-natural ingredients. The company has negotiated a licensing deal for multiple countries, which became effective during the 2nd quarter of fiscal 2015.

With the news that the United States and Cuba (the country) are moving toward normalization of relations for the first time in 50 years, CUBA has seen a renewed interest in the company and a significant increase in the share price and trading volume. The company also expects the brand to be better received as more people become interested in the country Cuba and the new relations between the United States and Cuba.

Competitive business conditions, the Issuer's competitive position in the industry, and methods of competition;

The Company has a great opportunity to establish a footprint as a Health & Wellness leader. While other Industry leaders are focused on mimicking line extensions, they are missing the chance to put a foothold into the Health & Wellness Category. This opportunity will not go away, but will continue to grow as more and more schools & work places opt to provide a healthy choice directly to their students and employees. Red Bull was firmly established as the #1 Energy Drink. No other brand with any significant market share was able to loosen the foothold Red Bull had created. Then in 2001 Rockstar and Monster Energy launched a brand proposition, 'twice the size for the same price'. This opportunity allowed competition to drive the market. Now, 5 brands stand firmly at the top and they continue to grow in the billions of dollars in revenue each year. All Energy Drinks today are loaded with extremely high doses of caffeine and taurine, either high sugar contents or with artificial sweeteners and none are 100% natural. The opportunity for CUBA to produce a functional Energy Drink armed as a product with no added caffeine, taurine free, and 100% natural is one of the attributes that has been attractive to consumers. CUBA now seeks to produce one of the healthiest, best tasting drinks on the market with the new functional beverage product it is in the process of creating. The company plans to market this product heavily in schools, as there is a tremendous need for healthy alternatives to sodas and other unhealthy drinks being served in schools throughout the United States.
