AMERICAN GREEN INC.
Notes to Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements
For the years ended September 30, 2014 and 2013
(Unaudited)

NOTE 1. THE COMPANY AND ITS SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Company

The Company was incorporated on November 12, 1998 in Nevada as Ti-Mail Inc. During the year 2000 it changed its name to Desert Winds Entertainment, Inc. and then during 2000 to SunnComm, Inc., during 2002 to SunnComm Technologies, Inc., and during 2004 to SunnComm International Inc. On June 14, 2007 the Company changed its name from SunnComm Technologies Inc. to The Amergence Group, Inc. On March 8, 2011 the Company changed its name to Altitude Organic Corporation. On January 6, 2012, the Company changed its name to Tranzbyte Corporation and on May 9, 2014 changed its name to American Green Inc.

The Company under its Altitude Organix division is developing retailing, branding, and commercial cultivating strategies in conjunction with licensed medical marijuana retail dispensaries. While the Company is no longer associated with the Altitude Organic Medicine outlets in Colorado, it has spent the last year developing an "automated dispensary" that will offer the company's proprietary products to qualified adults in the US and around the world.

The Company, in association with its previous spin-out subsidiary, PanPacific International and Vending Design Concepts, are engaged in developing an advanced automated dispensary (Project 21) designed for use by adult customers around the world. Beta testing and preliminary rollout of the machines are being planned to occur before the end of this calendar year. Once rolled out, the automated dispensaries will be part of company's proprietary Zazzz Network.

The unaudited financial statements included herein were prepared from the records of the Company in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles. These financial statements reflect all adjustments that are, in the opinion of management, necessary to provide a fair statement of the results of operations and financial position for the periods presented. Significant adjustments may be required upon the financial statements being audited to be in conformity with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles.

Acquisitions

Yo Corporation

The Company originally agreed to acquire Yo Corporation for $250,000 payable in 10,000,000 shares of common stock valued at $40,000 on May 13, 2013 and $15,000 of common stock a month over 14 months based upon the average bid and ask price of the Company's common shares for the previous 30 day period as listed on OTC Markets based upon the debit card working anywhere Mastercard is accepted. The Company has discovered that the card is not working where Mastercard is accepted; therefore, discussions are ensuing with the seller as to the current value of the card and a fair acquisition price. The Company has issued 22,448,213 shares of common stock valued at $45,000 at the time of issuance to the shareholders of YO Corporation.

American Green Universe

On July 1, 2014, the Company acquired Green Universe Inc. that is a Hydroponic retail store in Sonoma, California. The Company paid $70,000 in cash and owes 10,000,000 common shares for 100% ownership. The Company acquired an additional $50,000 of inventory in subsequent purchases.

Potential Acquisitions

On January 5, 2012, the Company entered into an agreement to acquire all of the outstanding shares of Proxima-RF Technology Holding Company Ltd. "Proxima" for 6,500,000 shares of Preferred Series C stock of the Company. The Company agreed with Proxima to use its best efforts to repurchase and retire the Preferred Series C shares. Once the acquisition is finalized, the company has plans to increase its network of global distributors and value-added resellers. With its "Proxima RF" line of RFID readers, sensor tags, sensor probes and data logging products, the Company seeks out opportunities with partners who have a unique software offering within market verticals where the implementation of secure data collection and temperature sensing bring real and immediate ROI to users. These key markets include: food safety, cold chain logistics and healthcare/pharmaceutical as well as factory and field maintenance applications.

On September 16, 2014 the Company entered into a memorandum of understanding to acquire OG Tea that has a line of fertilization products that have been reported by its customers to enhance the growth of plants. The Company is still completing the details of the acquisition that will involve the issuance of the Company's common shares and employment agreements for key executives of OG Tea.

Pending Sale

OneBode Companies

On July 7, 2014 the Company announced that it sold OneBode Holdings LLC and OneBode Ventures LLC for $3,500,000 to the Healthy Home Company. The Agreement provides for Healthy Home to pay a minimum of $10,000 a month until the remaining balance of the sale price is due during July 2016. Healthy Home has the option to return the rights to the OneBode products at anytime until July 2016 and will pay an additional $500,000 for the rights in the event it meets certain sale benchmarks until July 2016.

American Green Inc. completed the acquisition of the OneBode companies during September 2014. The acquisition cost is $2,914,200 comprised of $1,436,036 of assumed debt, $1,063,964 in the value of common stock issued or to be issued to its equity members and $414,200 in the value of common stock to be issued to consultants and inventory that was sold to Healthy Home. At September 30, 2014, the receivable from Healthy Home remained at $3,500,000, remaining assumed debt to be paid was about $1,412,000 and a remaining $997,297 in stock value needed to be disbursed to OneBode members and consultants.

Going Concern

The Company operates in an industry that is subject to rapid change. The Company's operations will be subject to significant risk and uncertainties including financial, operational, technological, regulatory and other risks, including the potential risk of business failure.

The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent on the successful execution of Management's plans, which include sales of its products, further implementation of its business plan and continuing to raise funds through debt or equity financings. The Company will likely need to rely upon debt or equity financing in order to ensure the continuing existence of the business.

The accompanying unaudited financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business.

Principles of Consolidation

The Company's consolidated financial statements include the assets, liabilities and operating results of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries.

Use of Estimates

The unaudited financial statements included herein were prepared from the records of the Company in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles. These financial statements reflect all adjustments that are, in the opinion of management, necessary to provide a fair statement of the results of operations and financial position.

Cash & Cash Equivalents

The company's policy is to consider cash and cash equivalents to consist of checking accounts, money market accounts or certificates of deposit having maturity dates of 180 days or less.

Inventory

Inventory is valued on an average cost basis and reviewed quarterly for impairment.

Financial Instruments

Financial instruments consist primarily of cash, security deposits and obligations under accounts payable and accrued expenses. The carrying amounts of cash, accounts receivable, security deposits, accounts payable and accrued expenses approximate fair value because of the short-term maturity of those instruments.

Goodwill

Goodwill is the amount of the purchase price of acquisitions in excess of the net assets acquired. The amount may be adjusted from time to time as necessary to reflect the most accurate purchase price of acquisitions.

Income Taxes

The Company records its federal and state income tax liability as it is incurred. The company has accumulated net operating losses and does not have any outstanding income tax liabilities.

NOTE 2. INVESTMENTS

At May 24, 2010, the company entered into a Joint Venture Production Agreement with PanPacific International Limited, "PanPacific", whereby it would receive 50% of the profits in three scheduled concerts with internationally known artists to be performed in Hong Kong, and other agreed-upon joint enterprises, for 60 million restricted common shares valued at $2,400,000. On August 9, 2010, PanPacific and the company formed a Nevada corporation and named it PanPacific International, Inc., "Pan International". PanPacific contributed its business operation allowing Tranzbyte to establish a presence and capabilities in Hong Kong, Macao, and China mainland enabling the company to consider future joint ventures to be identified and its advertising network for 75% ownership and the company received 25% for its prior capital investment of 60 million common shares. During December 2010, the company issued a restricted stock dividend to its shareholders comprised of 80% of its holdings, which was 20% of Pan International's total outstanding common shares. The company reduced its investment in Pan International by 80% to 480,000 shares for the dividend.

The company owns 10 million shares of Pan International representing 5% of Pan International's total outstanding common shares with a cost basis of $480,000.

NOTE 3. PROJECT COSTS

The Company is working on the development of technology or acquisition of products to primarily support the medical marijuana industry. The Company has incurred costs in the following areas:

|-----------------------|------------------|
| ZAZZZ Vending Machine | $252,161 |
| Truth Lighting | 19,711 |
| OG Tea Nutrients | 28,500 |
| Other | 348,075 |
| | $648,447 |

NOTE 4: INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

The Company's 10-year-old Tranzbyte division continues to focus on the development and marketing of its innovative group of optical media enhancement technologies worldwide such as FLASHAlbum, a technology which enables distributors of optic disc media (CDs and DVDs) to combine the best features of both mediums on one content-protected USB flash drive.

CDMX is a multi-media CD enhancement technology is housed entirely on the CD itself and does not require the loading of any software components in order to access the music and bonus content. It also provides an enabling technology that is designed to offer companies an innovative alternative to traditional marketing media. Housed on a digitally-enhanced CD, providing branding, viral marketing, advertising and revenue-generating opportunities.

DVCD provides an environment and interface to include additional digital content on a Video DVD. The most common application might be a movie soundtrack or other audio content included on the same DVD as a movie.

All•Play allows the use of electronic, optical and digital content across multiple applications, and more specifically, allows both content owners and end users to control how and where they can access content. For example, the delivery of music from an online music store to multiple destinations in multiple formats.

DVD copy management, content protection and enhancement technology. This legacy technology provides an alternative, authorized process to play, move and share content from Video-based (Movie) DVDs in a legally approved and controlled process. It provides a compromise solution that delivers limited rights and enhanced features to DVD buyers without allowing freedom to steal content from the producer, or studio.

Collectively, the above-described technologies are valued at $1,196,131 less accumulated amortization of $677,939 resulting in a net value of $518,192.

On May 13, 2013 the Company acquired the Yo Debit card for $250,000. The intangible asset was being amortized on a straight-line basis over 15 years starting July 1, 2013 but has been suspended until it is put into productive use. Accumulated amortization at June 30, 2014 was $16,666.

On August 6, 2014, the Company acquired the patent rights to technology supporting the Zazz Vending Machine. The patents will start being amortized when the Zazz machine is placed in service. The Company is continuing to make payments on the patents.
