RE: Attorney Letter with Respect to "Initial Disclosure Statement" for Evader, Inc.
(EVDR)

Dear Sir or Madam,

You are entitled to rely on this letter in determining whether Evader, Inc. ("Evader" or the "Issuer") has made adequate current information publicly available within the meaning of Rule 144(c)(2) under the Securities Act of 1933.

I am a resident of the United States and have been engaged as special counsel by Evader. My services include but are not limited to reviewing the current information supplied by the Issuer.

I have personally met with or spoken with the management and the directors of the Issuer and examined such corporate records and other documents and have asked such questions of law as I have considered necessary or appropriate for the purpose of writing this letter. I have relied upon filings made with the Secretary of State of the State of Nevada and information obtained from officers and directors of the Issuer. I believe the sources I have relied on are reliable.

I am authorized to practice law in the State of New York, as well as the United States District Courts for the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York, which includes the laws of the United States. I am permitted to practice before the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and I have not been prohibiting from practice thereunder.

In preparing this letter, I have reviewed the Issuer's Initial Disclosure Statement and Unaudited Financial Statements for the period ending March 31, 2012, which was posted to the OTC Markets Group News Service on June 22, 2012. As to matters of fact, I have relied on information obtained from public officials, officers of the Company (including documents and records submitted to me by the Company, of which I assumed the authenticity and the truthfulness of all statements of facts set forth therein) and other sources. I have no reason to believe that all such information, documents and records from all such sources are not accurate, authentic and reliable.

The information supplied and reviewed concerning the Issuer's Initial Information and Disclosure Statement posted June 22, 2012, constitutes, in my opinion, adequate current public information concerning the Issuer's securities and is available within the meaning of Rule 144(c)(2) under the Securities Act of 1933. It includes all of the information that a broker-dealer would be required to obtain from the Issuer to publish a quotation for the Securities under Rule 15c 2-11 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934(the "Exchange Act"); complies as to form with the OTC Markets Groups Guidelines for Providing Adequate Current Information, which are located on the Internet at www.otcmarkets.com; and has been posted through the OTC Disclosure and News Service.

The person responsible for the preparation of the Initial Information and Disclosure Statement is Sasa Vasiljevic, Sole Officer and Director of Issuer. Mr. Keith Roberts compiled the information for the Issuer and prepared the financial statements contained in the Initial Disclosure. Mr. Roberts is a Certified Management Accountant and is qualified to prepare financial statements.

The Issuer's transfer agent is Transfer Online, Inc., which is registered with the SEC. The method used to obtain the number of outstanding shares set forth in the Initial Disclosure was to contact the Issuer's transfer agent and receive confirmation as to the outstanding shares.

I have reviewed the Information published by the Issuer through the OTC Disclosure and News Service, personally met with management and a majority of the directors of the Issuer, and discussed the Information with management and a majority of the directors of Issuer.

To the best of my knowledge, after inquiry of management and the directors of Issuer, neither the Issuer, nor any 5% holder, nor Counsel is currently under investigation by any federal or state regulatory authority for any violation of federal or states securities laws.

No person other than OTC Markets Group can is entitled to rely on this letter. However, I hereby grant the OTC Markets Group full and complete permission and rights to publish this letter in the OTC Markets Groups News Service for viewing by the public and regulators.

Very Truly Yours,
